GLOSSARY OF ACADEMIC TERMS

This page provides a list of commonly used academic terms found in this calendar. The definitions provided are intended to help readers understand the outlines of academic regulations and programs that follow.

Academic Session - The school year from September until April.

Audit - A student may, with the instructor's permission, attend classes in a given course without receiving credit. These audited courses will not be considered as meeting pre- or corequisites for any course or program at The King's University College.

Baccalaureate - The degree of bachelor granted by universities and colleges.

Bachelor - A degree granted by a university.

Breadth Courses - These courses have the objective of providing students with the broad range of approaches to reality that is the classic goal of a baccalaureate degree. These courses balance disciplinary rigor with making students familiar with the aspect of creation represented by the discipline. This kind of course provides the general context of a student's education.

Bursary - A non-repayable fund, issued based on individual financial need and satisfactory academic status.

Cognate - Courses in another discipline required for a certain concentration or major; but which are not part of the major/concentration discipline.

Concentration - A specific area of study in a three-year degree program or as part of an environmental studies program

Corequisite - A course which must be taken prior to or in the same term as a given course.

Credit - The weight value assigned to a course.

Cross-listed Course - A course listed for credit under more than one discipline. The course may only be taken once for credit, regardless of the disciplinary designation.

Cumulative Grade Point Average - An average calculated by dividing the total number of grade points obtained (credits x grade points) by the number of credits attempted during the student's entire academic history at an institution. For repeated courses only the credits and grade points of the highest grade are used.

Directed Reading - Courses numbered 499 in areas of study within a certain discipline not covered in a specific course. Students desiring to do a directed reading course should contact the faculty member with whom they wish to study.

Discipline - A subject area or branch of knowledge.

Drop - A student may, prior to the specified deadline, drop a course. Dropped courses do not appear on a student's transcript.

Elective - A credit course which does not meet any specific program requirements.

ELSAT - English Language Studies Assessment Test, one way of meeting the admission requirement for those applicants whose native language is not English.

Faculty - The academic teaching staff of a university.

Final Admission - Admission based on final results.

Foundations Courses - These courses have the objective of enabling students to understand the underlying structures of reality and discourse, to develop a Christian perspective on learning aimed at transforming culture, and to perceive that human beings actually make decisions that set the direction of their culture.

Full-time Student - A student enrolled in 9 credits or more per term.

Grade Point Average (GPA) - An average calculated by dividing the total number of grade points obtained (credits x grade points) by the number of credits.

Grant - A non-repayable (government) fund, distributed based on financial need. You must apply for a grant.

Initial Admission - Admission based on interim results.

Interdisciplinary Studies (INST) - Courses and conferences that explore how all of the natural and cultural dimensions of creation fit together as a whole.

Loan - A repayable fund distributed based on financial need. Loans are interest bearing and depending on the type of loan (government or bank), interest payments may be required during the academic study period. Students who require loans must apply for them through the relevant government or bank procedures.

Major - A specific area of study in a four-year degree program.

Official Transcript - An official document that lists the entire academic record of a student at an educational institution. In order to be official, transcripts must be sent directly from the appropriate government department or institution maintaining their records.

Part-time Student - A student enrolled in fewer than 9 credits per term.

Prerequisite - One or more courses that must be completed before a student is eligible to register in a given course.

Probation - Status of a student with academic difficulties which allows the student to continue studies subject to meeting terms required for returning to satisfactory standing.

Registration - The process of choosing, enrolling in and paying fees for courses taken in a term.

Residency Requirement - The number of courses required at the home institution to receive a degree. Normally, a student in the B.A. or B.Sc. (3-year) program must complete at least 33 credits at The King's University College. Normally, a student in a four-year program must spend at least two full years to complete that program. These two years consist of 60 credits in programs requiring a total of 120 credits, 63 credits in programs requiring 123 credits, and 72 credits in programs requiring 132 credits. A student in the B.Ed. program must normally take at least 51 credits at King's. Also, each student must normally take at least 18 credits of the last 30 credits in the program at King's.

Scholarship - A non-repayable fund, issued based on previous academic achievement.

Spring term - Two Spring terms are offered in May and June. Courses run 3 hours a day for 13 days not including a day for a final exam. Additional time is required for courses with a lab. Courses to be offered in the Spring terms are announced in late November for the current academic year. For a list of courses being offered please contact Enrolment Services or the Office of the Registrar.

Term - The Academic Session is divided into two regular terms: the Fall term (September through December) and the Winter term (January through April).

Term Grade Point Average - An average calculated by dividing the total number of grade points obtained (credits x grade points) by the number of credits attempted during a term.

Transfer Credit - Credit granted toward a degree for work completed at another recognized institution.

Tuition - The price for courses.

Unclassified Student - A student who applies and presents the necessary prerequisites on an official transcript may be admitted as unclassified. An unclassified student may not take more than one course in a given term, has no ongoing status as a King's student, and is admitted subject to availability of open spaces in the classes applied for. Unclassified students must reapply for each term.

Visiting Student - Students who are enrolled in a program at another recognized post-secondary institution and who present a letter of permission to take courses specified in the letter. Visiting students must reapply for each term.

With Distinction - A designation awarded to any student completing an undergraduate degree with an overall Grade Point Average of at least 3.50 on the last 60 credits. Bachelor of Education (After Degree) students require a 3.70 to receive this designation.

Withdraw from a Course - A student may, prior to the specified deadline, withdraw from a course. These courses remain on a student's transcript with a grade of 'W'. There is no academic penalty for a grade of 'W' and it is not included in any GPA calculations.

GENERAL INFORMATION

STATEMENT OF FAITH

The educational philosophy of The King's University College is rooted in the historic Christian faith and seeks to work out concretely what the Christian faith means for a liberal arts education.

We believe that all teaching and learning occurs within contexts of views of life and society. The context for education at The King's University College is a specifically Christian world-and-life view, that is, a view that is informed by the Bible, the authoritative Word of God as confessed by the early church and in the creeds of the Protestant Reformation.

From the Bible we derive the following principles which provide the framework for education at The King's University College:

- Creation: that humanity and the entire world find their origin, meaning, and purpose in God the Creator and Jesus Christ the Redeemer.
- Sin: that humanity, by its original disobedience, broke its relationship with God and caused God's curse on creation.
- Redemption: that Christ, the Word Incarnate, is the Redeemer who restores the relationship between God and God's creation and who renews life through the Holy Spirit.
- Human Life: that all of life, including teaching and learning, is service either to the God of the Scriptures or to a god of human invention.
- Teaching and Learning: that teaching and learning must proceed in the light of God's written Word and in accordance with God's Creation order.
- Teachers and Students: that teachers and students, as image bearers of God, are, in mutual respect, to fulfill their calling to develop the earth and to serve God and their neighbor in education.

MISSION STATEMENT

We exist to provide university education that inspires and equips learners to bring renewal and reconciliation to every walk of life as followers of Jesus Christ, the Servant-King.

We value

Community...

- mutual encouragement, openness, and respect among students, staff, and faculty
- growth and maturity as Christians in all aspects of our lives
- our founding Reformed tradition for its convictions that our world belongs to God and that the redemptive work of Christ embraces all things
- the diverse Christian faith traditions of our faculty, staff, and students which enrich our academic community intellectually and spiritually
- our supporting constituency for its vision and dedication
- our calling to contribute to the public good
- collaboration with individuals, institutions, and governing authorities in higher education and Learning...

- interest in exploring all dimensions of our world
- learning marked by openness, delight, and awe
- creative and critical pursuit of knowledge and wisdom
- the unfolding of creative gifts and talents
- interdisciplinary learning
- excellence in teaching, learning, and research
- student engagement in learning and research

...for Service

- global awareness shaped by respect for our neighbours
- social transformation rooted in a biblical vision of justice and compassion
- care for creation
- stewardship of all our resources

We aspire to flourish and grow as a university community faithful to the biblical vision of the restoration of all things in Jesus Christ, characterized by creative teaching, passionate learning, rigorous scholarship, compassionate care, and joyful service.

HISTORY

The King's University College, formerly The King's College, is a Christian institution offering undergraduate university programs. As early as 1965, men and women of vision from diverse walks of life and various church affiliations saw the need for a regional, trans-denominational, Christian college in Western Canada. In December 1970, these people incorporated the Christian College Association (Alberta) and through a constitution and statement of principles gave written expression to their vision of Christian higher education.

During the following years, the Association adopted a Master Development Plan designed to give expression to the principles on which the College was to be founded. Many new members joined the Association, and in January 1978, the Association membership voted overwhelmingly to proceed with the opening of the College in September 1979. On November 16, 1979, the Alberta Legislature approved The King's College Act which granted a charter to The King's College.

On November 2, 1983, an official affiliation agreement was signed with the University of Alberta, ensuring that the great majority of courses at King's would transfer automatically to the University and making various University resources, such as the library and curriculum labs, available to college students. Although the affiliation agreement has since lapsed by mutual consent, The King's University College continues to be listed in the Alberta Transfer Guide both as sending and as receiving institution. Since 1985, the University College has received an annual operating grant from the Province of Alberta.

In 1987, The King's College was given the right to grant its first accredited degree, a three year B.A., with concentrations in a number of disciplines. Since then, it has been authorized to offer many other degree programs, as listed in this calendar.

Until 2004, degree programs at King's were authorized and accredited by the Government of Alberta upon recommendation of the Private College Accreditation Board. Currently, accreditation of new degree programs is upon recommendation to the Government by the Campus Alberta Quality Council.

In the summer of 1993, the College moved into its first permanent campus. In November of that year, the Alberta legislature approved the bill changing the College's name to The King's University College.

The King's University College strives to let its Christian commitment and worldview inspire teaching, learning, research and community life. This commitment to developing a thriving and robust Christian community through whole-person education (academically, socially, physically, vocationally, emotionally and spiritually) makes The King's University College a unique institutional leader in preparing students to be responsible and contributing citizens in contemporary society. A dedicated team of professors and student development professionals equip students with essential knowledge, integrative and critical thinking skills, core values, and leadership qualities. The lively and dynamic learning environment at The King's University College is enhanced by the institution's strong commitment to faculty research and community service.

The King's University College is a member of the following organizations:

- Alberta Colleges Athletic Conference
- Alberta Council on Admissions and Transfer
- Alberta Post-Secondary Application System
- Alberta Registrar's Association
- Alberta Student Awards Personnel Association
- Association for the Advancement of Sustainability in Higher Education
- Association of Christian Schools International
- Association of Reformed Colleges and Universities

- Independent Academic Institutions Council
- International Association for the Promotion of Christian Higher Education
- National Association of Christian College Admissions Personnel

- NEOS Library Consortium
- Prairie Centre for Christian Education
- Western Association of Registrars of the Universities and Colleges of Canada

GOVERNANCE

The King's University College, as a corporation, is controlled by a Board of Governors annually elected from among and by the supporters of the University College. The Executive of the Board of Governors meets monthly and acts on behalf of the Board between semi-annual Board meetings. The Senate, composed of Board members, supporters, faculty, staff and students, advises the Board of Governors on academic matters.

THE CAMPUS

During the summer of 1993, The King's University College moved to a new, fully equipped college campus at 9125 - 50 Street in Edmonton. The campus occupies 20 acres and the main building has a total floor area of nearly 17,000 square metres.

The campus includes the following:

- 21 classrooms of various sizes
- Nine fully equipped science labs
- The King's Centre for Molecular Structure (KCMS), dedicated to scientific research
- Three computer labs comprising of 60 stations for student use and 3 program specific computer labs
- Greenhouse
- Four fine arts studios and instructional spaces
- Specialized venues for drama and psychology
- Performance hall/chapel with pipe organ
- Five music practice rooms
- Twelve hundred square-metre library to house up to 100,000 volumes
- Nine hundred square-metre gymnasium with showers, locker rooms, and team rooms
- A 300 square-metre Student Activity Centre
- Student offices
- Large atrium, student assembly space and lounge
- Spacious cafeteria with seating for 280
- Bookstore
- Offices for administration and faculty
- Two student residence with room for 260 students
- Outdoor sports fields for soccer
- The King's Centre of Visualization in Science
- Micah Centre
- The WORKout Centre, a fully equipped fitness facility

These facilities provide access to basic productivity applications, course-specific programs, as well as e-mail and internet access. Through 25 public access stations in the library, King's students have electronic access to academic libraries, databases and millions of electronic articles. All residence rooms are wired for internet access and wireless access is available throughout the campus.

Technical support for student owned computers is available on a best effort basis. IT strives to make the students' experience at King's technology trouble free.

The Simona Maaskant library is a member of the NEOS consortium of 18 Alberta university, college, government and hospital libraries. NEOS provides a common catalogue, document delivery services and access to over 10 million print items.

Conveniently located on the edge of a residential district, the campus has bus service to downtown or the University of Alberta, and is within a short distance of several churches, community recreational facilities and a shopping mall.

The campus is an ideal site for conferences and other special events. When regular classes are not in session during the months of May through August, the University College can accommodate up to 260 people in residence and considerably more for meals and meetings.

APPLICATION, ADMISSION, REGISTRATION

APPLICATION

Inquiries from prospective students should be addressed to the Office of Enrolment Services. An Application for Admission packet will then be mailed to the prospective student. Application for Admission packets may also be available from high school counsellors. Application may also be made via the World Wide Web (www.kingsu.ca). Although early application (before March 31, see section on Scholarships and Financial Aid) is highly recommended, the completed application form should be returned to the Office of the Registrar not later than the following deadlines:

- August 15 for the Fall term and
- December 1 for the Winter term

B.Ed. applications are normally considered for the Fall term only. The B.Ed. program has limited space and admission is competitive. Admission decisions will be released on two dates: March 31, and May 15.

The University College may accept applications after the deadline; contact the Office of the Registrar to inquire. The University College may also close or restrict applications prior to these deadlines.

The application form must be complete and accurate in order to be processed. Application forms are complete when:

- all required information on the application form has been supplied,
- the application fee has been received
- official transcripts and other required documents have been received by the University College, and
- a personal recommendation has been received by the University College

For requirements for applicants to the Bachelor of Education program see page 21.

Please note that prospective students must arrange to have official transcripts of their high school and all college and university records sent to the Office of the Registrar. Bachelor of Education applicants are not required to provide high school transcripts.

Applicants should order their transcripts to be sent directly from the appropriate government department or institution maintaining their records.

Transcripts issued to the student or to another institution are not acceptable. Fax or email copies are also not considered official. If transcripts will take some time to obtain, unofficial transcripts may be submitted only for preliminary consideration, and must be followed by official transcripts.

All documents must be submitted in English or French. Where official documents are in a language other than English the applicant needs to provide notarized English translations as well as the final official documents.

Students who have not yet completed high school should submit transcripts indicating credits and grades to date, and subsequently submit, as soon as possible, a transcript with final grades. Similarly, students with post-secondary work in progress should submit interim transcripts followed by final transcripts as soon as possible.

While admission decisions may be made using interim or unofficial transcripts if final transcripts are not available at the time of application, final documents must be received by the University College by the last business day of the month in which the student begins study at the University College.

All documents submitted for application purposes become the property of The King's University College and will not be returned. Neither the originals nor copies will be released to the applicant or anyone else.

Admission is always conditional on the receipt of official final versions of these documents; failure to meet these deadlines could jeopardize the student's continuation in the program.

Included in the Application for Admission packet will be a recommendation form that should be sent to a referee chosen by the applicant. Please note that there is a different recommendation form for the Bachelor of Education program. This recommendation should be mailed by the referee directly to the Office of the Registrar.

See page 27 for application fees. Please note the application fee is non-refundable

ADMISSION

ADMISSIONS AUTHORITY

Admissions policy is initiated by the Registrar and is recommended to Faculty Council and Senate by the Vice President Academic and the Admissions Committee.

Implementation of admissions policy is the responsibility of the Registrar who will convene the Admissions Committee from time to time to review admissions practices and to consider written appeals referred to it by the Registrar.

The Admissions Committee consists of the Registrar, two members of faculty appointed by Faculty Council, and the Director of Enrolment Services.

BASIS OF ADMISSION

Admissions are granted by a review of application information provided, including the personal recommendation and all academic information. Applicants may be admitted on the basis of:

Bachelor of Education

- an acceptable bachelor's degree with specific elements contained therein see page 21.

B.A., B.Sc., B.Com., B.Mus.

- grade 12 courses,
- previous post-secondary study, either for transfer or as a previous degree.
- mature student status,
- being a visiting or unclassified student

Applicants may be admitted provided they present the academic requirements outlined below. Possession of minimum academic requirements does not guarantee admission to the University College. Conversely, applications for admission that do not meet the minimum admission criteria may be considered by the Registrar. Applicants who are refused admission may submit a written appeal to the Registrar that may be referred, at the Registrar's discretion, to the Admissions Committee. Please note the English Language Proficiency requirements on page 19.

GRADE 12

Required High School Courses

Applicants must present five Grade 12 courses including English, with a minimum average of 60%. This average will be calculated on the final grades for these courses as they appear on the final, official transcript. In provinces where provincial testing for a course is optional, the grade used will be the higher of the school grade or the blended grade.

Of the four courses presented besides Grade 12 English, at least three must come from the standard list on page 16. The remaining course may be any distinct academic or non-academic grade 12 course carrying normal course weight and which is neither a Special Projects nor a Work Experience course. Two courses of lower course weight may be substituted for this fifth course.

No more than two courses from each category below will be considered for admission.

- English
- Language Other than English
- Social Studies
- Mathematics
- Fine Arts
- In the Sciences, one course from each of biology, chemistry and physics may be presented

Recommended High School Program

To obtain maximum freedom in choosing college programs and courses, a student should take the following six subjects at the Grade 12 level:

1. English
2. A language other than English
3. Social Studies or History
4. Mathematics
5. & 6. Chemistry and/or Biology and/or Physics.

Course Deficiency

A student who cannot present 5 acceptable courses for admission purposes but who can present a 65% average on 4 courses may be admitted as an unclassified student to take for credit an approved King's course substituting for one of the admission courses. Should this student achieve a C- or better in that course, he or she may be considered for regular admission to King's in the subsequent term. The following chart indicates which courses fulfill which deficiencies.

Course Missing	Supplement with 3 credits of
English	ENGL 204 or 205
Social Studies	An introductory social science or history course
Science	An introductory non-majors science course
A Fine Arts	An introductory fine arts course
A Non-Standard Course	THEO 250 or PHIL 230

Students whose average on five courses is slightly below 60% may be admitted on probation at the discretion of the Registrar.

International Language Proficiency

Students may submit demonstrations of proficiency in languages other than English as non-standard courses for admission purposes. International language proficiency examinations that are currently accepted are:

- Diplôme d'Etudes de Langue Française (DELF), minimum level B2
- Diplôme Approfondi de Langue Française (DALF), minimum level B2
- Test de connaissance du français (TCF), minimum level B2
- Test d'évaluation de français (TEF), minimum level B2
- Diplomas de Español como Lengua Extranjera (DELE), minimum Nivel Intermedio
- Sprach Diplom, minimum level Level 2
- Hanyu Shuiping Kaoshi Chinese Proficiency Examination (HSK) minimum Level 7

Other international examinations may be accepted; please contact the Office of the Registrar to inquire.

Grade 11 Honours Initial Admission

Students who demonstrate that they have and/or are registered in 5 acceptable 30-level subjects, and who have completed grade 11 with an honours average (80% or higher) in the preparatory subjects for those courses, may be given Initial Admission and tentatively awarded an admission scholarship

Part-time

Students who are interested in enrolling in fewer than 9 credits per term may apply as a part-time student. Admission requirements are the same as those for full-time students.

International Baccalaureate and Advanced Placement Program

Students who have earned International Baccalaureate or Advanced Placement Program credits may present those as non-standard courses for admission purposes. These courses can only be counted once, and so will only be considered for admission if they are not also presented as a standard course on the high school transcript.

These courses will also be considered for Transfer Credit. They will be evaluated individually to determine what credit, if any, they should receive for their International Baccalaureate or Advanced Placement Program work.

The King's University College Advanced Placement code is 2677.

Unaccredited Schools

Depending on the school and the program, students graduating from unaccredited high schools may be admitted in the normal fashion or on academic probation. Graduates of the Accelerated Christian Education program are considered for normal high school admission if they graduate from a Model Status school with the college preparation program and present an acceptable score on the ACT test. A recommendation from the principal of the high school may also be requested.

Home School

Students who have completed high school using home schooling will be considered for admission:

- upon recommendation of a qualified educator, normally the facilitator of the program, and;
- upon demonstrated proficiency in English, to be determined either by their home school English mark or by a University College-administered English Language Studies Assessment Test (ELSAT) (available only on-campus).

4-year B.Sc. ENVS Computing Science	Mathematics 30-1
4-year B.Com.	Mathematics 30-1

Notes:

- Alberta high school codes are listed. Equivalents will also be acceptable.
- Passing of an algebra competency test may be used in lieu of Mathematics 30-1
- Mathematics 30-1 may be used in lieu of Mathematics 30-2

- Science 30 may be acceptable in place of Biology 30, Chemistry 30, or Physics 30 with consent from the instructor.
- Required concentration courses within the ENVS major may also have high school prerequisites.

If your program has required courses that have high school prerequisites which you do not possess, please submit a written letter of appeal to the Registrar who will consult with the instructor of the course. See "Prerequisites, Corequisites and Consent to Take Courses" on page 99.

PREVIOUS POST-SECONDARY STUDY

Students in good standing in their past work in a Canadian university or other post-secondary institution may expect to be admitted to The King's University College. Students must submit official transcripts of their entire post-secondary experience. Omissions will result in immediate dismissal without appeal. Program specific high school pre-requisites must still be met.

MATURE

Students who will be 21 years of age by September 1 of the year of entry for Fall or January 1 for Winter and who do not meet specific admission requirements will be considered for admission if they have completed ELA 30-1 or its equivalent and their high school record, letters of recommendation, and/or college entrance examination scores indicate the potential for success in college. These applicants may be required to write an English Language Studies Assessment Test administered by the Office of the Registrar on campus only. Every application for admission as a mature student is considered on its own merit. Program specific high school pre-requisites must still be met.

VISITING

Students who are enrolled in a program at another recognized post-secondary institution and who present a letter of permission may take courses specified in the letter. Visiting students must complete an application form and present necessary prerequisites by submitting official transcripts. Admission is subject to availability of open spaces in the classes applied for. Visiting students must reapply for each term.

UNCLASSIFIED

Students who apply and present the necessary prerequisites on an official transcript may be admitted as unclassified. An unclassified student may not take more than one course in a given term, has no ongoing status as a King's student, and is admitted subject to availability of open spaces in the classes applied for. Unclassified students must reapply for each term.

INTERNATIONAL

An applicant from outside Canada will be considered for admission on presentation of an academic high school program similar to the Alberta program. Specific admission requirements may vary depending upon the applicant's country of origin and may include acceptable performances on such entrance tests as ACT (code number 5209) and SAT (code number 2677). Since the language of instruction at the University College is English, applicants must possess proficiency in both oral and written English.

All documents must be submitted in English or French. Where official documents are in a language other than English the applicant needs to provide notarized English translations as well as the final official documents.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

All applicants to The King's University College are expected to have a level of English proficiency sufficient to enable them to succeed in our programs. This proficiency must be demonstrated regardless of citizenship or country of origin. English proficiency may be demonstrated by one of the following:

- Three years of formal, full-time study in a Canadian secondary or post-secondary institution with accepted English proficiency or a similar institution outside Canada approved by the University College;
- 75% on the Alberta ELA 30-1 Diploma Examination (not the blended grade) or 80% on Alberta ELA 30-1 (blended grade), or the equivalent course from other Canadian provinces;
- International Baccalaureate Higher Level English with a minimum grade of 6.0;
- Advanced Placement English with a grade of 5.0;
- ENGL 204 or 205 (or equivalent) with a grade of B- (Alpha 4.00 scale);
- Canadian Academic English Language (CAEL) Assessment with a minimum score of 70;
- International English Language Testing System (IELTS) Academic module with a score of 6.5, 5.0 on each band;
- Michigan English Language Assessment Battery (MELAB) with a score of 90;
- Completion of the ASPECT program to level 7;
- Pearson Test of English (Academic) (PTE): An overall score of at least 59;
- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)
 - paper-based: 580 (or 570 accompanied by a Test of Written English (TWE) score of 4);
 - internet based: 86 (with a minimum score of 21 on each of the four tested areas).

- A passing grade in an English for Academic Purposes (EAP) program which is accepted as a means of satisfying English Language Proficiency by another recognized Canadian university, and whose English Language Proficiency requirement is at least as demanding as is that of The King's University College.
- King's administered English Language Studies Assessment Test (ELSAT) with an acceptable score.

All students enrolled in ENGL 204 are required to write an English diagnostic essay administered by the King's English department. Those students who demonstrate English-as-a-Second-Language difficulties will be required to take University ESL courses (see "Post-Secondary English at King's" on page 51).

Applicants who meet all admission requirements except English language proficiency may apply for PEAK (see "Post-Secondary English at King's" on page 51).

BACHELOR OF EDUCATION

In order to qualify for admission to The King's University College Bachelor of Education (After Degree) applicants must meet the admission requirements listed in the chart on page 21.

In Canada, acceptable institutions are defined as members of the Association of Universities and Colleges in Canada (AUCC) or institutions whose programs are accredited by the Campus Alberta Quality Council. For information on acceptable institutions outside of Canada, please contact the Office of the Registrar.

Students who are deficient in the breadth of study elements may be required to make up the deficiency prior to the end of their B.Ed. program either through the use of electives or by taking courses extra to the degree. Students who do not possess credits in educational philosophy will be required to take EDUC 300 in the Fall term of their first year.

The B.Ed. programs have limited space and admission is competitive. Possession of the minimum admission requirements does not guarantee admission. Students are encouraged to apply early.

Please note that a maximum of 9 credits from another recognized institution may be transferred to The King's University College, provided that these credits have not been applied to a previous degree and are appropriate to the student's program. Some courses from previous educational experiences which duplicate courses in the B.Ed. program may also be used as "replacement credit" in the program, permitting the student to take more elective courses.

Bachelor of Education (After Degree) applicants with advance credit from Bible Colleges need to read the note at the end of the Transfer Credit section on page 22.

UNIVERSITY CERTIFICATES & DIPLOMA

The University Certificates in Drama and the Environment, Education and the Environment and Micah Studies, are normally followed by students in a bachelor's degree program. The University Diploma in Church Music is normally followed by students in a B.A. Music or B.Mus. program.

Students who are not currently enrolled in a bachelor's degree at King's must be in possession of an earned undergraduate degree and present the prerequisites for the courses in the certificate. The degree must be from an acceptable institution. In Canada the institution must be a member of the Association of Universities and Colleges in Canada (AUCC) or its programs must be accredited by the Campus Alberta Quality Council (formerly the Private Colleges Accreditation Board). For information on acceptable institutions outside of Canada, please contact the Office of the Registrar.

POST-BACCALAUREATE CERTIFICATE AND DIPLOMA

Performer's Post-Baccalaureate Certificate

Students are admitted to the Performer's Post-Baccalaureate Certificate on the basis of an undergraduate degree, an audition, a letter of career intent and two letters of recommendation. The degree must be from an acceptable institution. In Canada the institution must be a member of the Association of Universities and Colleges in Canada (AUCC) or its programs must be accredited by the Campus Alberta Quality Council (formerly the Private Colleges Accreditation Board). For information on acceptable institutions outside of Canada, please contact the Office of the Registrar.

A live audition is required, but a videotape with a CD or a professional quality DVD will be considered. The auditioning committee will consist of instructors in the Applied field of the candidate, the Department Chair and two other faculty members. The expected performance level at the audition will be comparable to an A or A+.

Audition will take place in January for the subsequent Fall term or in September for the subsequent Winter term.

Artist's Post-Baccalaureate Diploma

Students are admitted to the Artist's Post-Baccalaureate Diploma on the basis of a King's Performer's Certificate and recommendation of the Music Faculty.

INCLUSIVE POST-SECONDARY EDUCATION

The King's University College, in partnership with Alberta Association for Community Living, provides the opportunity for students with developmental disabilities to experience success in post-secondary education. Inclusive Post-Secondary Education is a service that enables students to participate in The King's University College's courses, programs of study and campus life. Students enroll as limited credit, non-credit or audit students, depending on individual abilities and needs. Inclusive Post-Secondary Education enables students to individualize their studies in order to achieve the most beneficial learning experience possible.

The Inclusive Post-Secondary Education Coordinator works closely with students, faculty and other staff to adapt course requirements, set attainable goals and support students to participate in campus life. In addition to classes and involvement in extracurricular activities, this year-round service assists students to meet their career goals through support in obtaining employment during the summer months.

Prospective students who may be interested should contact the Inclusive Post-Secondary Education Coordinator. Please note that students supported by Inclusive Post-Secondary Education need to be eligible for funding through Persons with Developmental Disabilities (PDD), Edmonton Community Board.

NOTIFICATION AND ACCEPTANCE OF ADMISSION

As soon as all admission information has been received, documents will be evaluated and the applicant will be notified of his/her standing. To accept admission to King's, new students must register within 14 calendar days of the date of admission or by June 15, whichever comes later. Students who register by these deadlines receive a $50 discount on the required non refundable tuition deposit. Students who fail to register and pay within these deadlines are deemed to have allowed their admission to lapse. Lapsed admission may be reinstated by the submission of a registration worksheet and payment of the full tuition deposit.

Students may write a letter to the Registrar requesting that their admission be deferred from the Fall term to the Winter term. Please note that a fee may apply, see page 27.

TRANSFER CREDIT

Once a student has been admitted to The King's University College and the Office of the Registrar has received official transcripts from previous post-secondary institutions, the transcripts will be assessed by the Office of the Registrar for possible transfer credit. If transfer credit is awarded, the student will be notified by mail with an Initial Credit Assessment if the student has not yet registered or an Evaluation of Transfer Credit. Not all transfer credit recognized may be applicable to the degree.

The purpose of evaluating transfer credit is to reduce the likelihood of a student having to repeat academic work in which he or she has already demonstrated competence.

Students wishing to transfer to The King's University College from another Alberta institution may check the Alberta Transfer Guide for the minimum negotiated transfer credit for courses they have taken. The Alberta Transfer Guide is published annually by the:

Alberta Council on Admissions and Transfer
11th Floor, Commerce Place
10155 - 102 St.
Edmonton, AB T5K 2J5

The Alberta Transfer Guide is also on-line at www.transferralberta.ca.

The King's University College does have transfer credit arrangements with some Alberta institutions outside of the Alberta Transfer Guide including Vanguard College. Arrangements have also been made with Providence Christian College in Pasadena, California. Please contact the Office of the Registrar for details on these arrangements.

The King's University College accepts for transfer credit, on a course by course basis, courses successfully completed at institutions in Canada and elsewhere.

In order to consider credit from an international post-secondary institution it must be listed in the current editions of either the International Handbook of Universities or The World of Learning. Institutions located in the United States must be accredited by one of the following associations: Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities or the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

Credit will be given where courses are appropriate for the student's program requirements at The King's University College, subject to the following:

1. Courses offered at other recognized degree-granting institutions are normally acceptable for transfer credit, provided they are appropriate to the student's program. Students may be required to provide to the Office of the Registrar a course catalogue and course syllabi. The course syllabus must include a detailed course description, the number of contact hours involved in the course, the number of credits or credit hours assigned to the course, prerequisites, the length of each semester, the instructor qualifications, textbooks used and the mark distribution. Each syllabus must be from the year and term in which the student took the course.
2. Only courses with a grade of C- (Alpha 4.00 scale) or better will be considered for transfer credit in the B.A., B.Sc., B.Com. or B.Mus. major or area of concentration or minor or second area of concentration and only courses with a grade of D (Alpha 4.00 scale) or better will be considered for transfer credit in all other cases. Only courses with a grade of C- (Alpha 4.00 scale) or better will be considered for transfer credit in the B.Ed. program.
3. Since a maximum of 18 credits of what is considered a professional nature are accepted as meeting B.A., B.Sc. or B.Mus. graduation requirements, no more than 18 credits of such a nature will be accepted for transfer credit. Courses of a professional nature must be deemed to be relevant to the King's program.
4. Transfer credit will be granted for no more than 60 credits toward B.A., B.Sc., B.Com. or B.Mus. graduation requirements and 9 credits toward B.Ed. graduation requirements. Transfer credit may also be limited by other factors such as allowable number of junior courses and relevancy.
5. Transfer credit will be granted for no more than 9 credits toward the University Certificate in Micah Studies, 12 credits toward the University Certificate in Education and the Environment or the University Certificate in Drama and the Environment and 30 credits toward the University Diploma in Church Music.

6. No transfer credit will be granted toward the Performer's Post-Baccalaureate Certificate or Artist's Post-Baccalaureate Diploma.
7. Eighteen of the last thirty credits of the degree program must be completed at the University College.
8. Normally students must complete at least 50% of the courses required for their major, first concentration, minor and second concentration at The King's University College.
9. Students who have earned credit for a course at King's will not also receive transfer credit for the same course.
10. Students who have earned International Baccalaureate or Advanced Placement Program credits will be considered for advanced standing or college credit. They will be evaluated individually to determine what credit, if any, they should receive for their International Baccalaureate or Advanced Placement Program work.

Questions concerning transfer credit should be addressed to the Office of the Registrar.

Bible Colleges

Applicants may expect to transfer Bible College credits from institutions that are accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education. Courses must be relevant to the student's program requirements at The King's University College and may be assigned less credit than that granted by the issuing institution. In addition to the regulations listed above, please note the following in this regard:

1. Foundations requirements in theology must be met by The King's University College foundations courses or close equivalents.
2. Courses of a professional (e.g. missions, personal development) or restricted denominational nature will not be transferable.
3. Courses with 3 or 4 credit hours will transfer as 3 credit courses. Courses with 2 credit hours may be combined to grant credit (4 = 3 credits). Where different disciplines are combined, unassigned credits will be granted.

Education Students Note: Provincial Teacher Service Qualification Boards (and, in some cases, certification boards) do not generally recognize Bible College work that is not listed in a provincial transfer guide. Although King's will transfer courses from Bible Colleges to the student's first degree and to the BEd degree, these courses may not be included by Teacher Service Qualification Boards and the student may be assessed to have completed less years than their degrees imply. This may have an affect on a student's ability to be certified and may have salary implications. Consequently, transfer students from Bible Colleges who plan to get a Bachelor of Education degree are advised to ensure that they have at least 4 years of King's or other university-level courses by the time they complete the Bachelor of Education Program.

The Office of the Registrar is the final authority for evaluation of transfer credit based on published transfer credit policy, an examination of published accreditation guides, transfer credit guides, calendar course descriptions, detailed course outlines, precedent and the advice of other universities.

SECOND DEGREE REGULATIONS

1. Students will not be awarded a Bachelor of Arts or a Bachelor of Science degree in a major or concentration comprehended in a prior Bachelor degree.
2. A graduate from King's who wishes to complete a second King's bachelor degree may do so. Students must:
 - a. fulfill all degree and major/concentration requirements of the new program and
 - b. complete the required number of credits for the program, reduced by 60 credits from the student's previous degree.
3. Graduates from Bachelor programs at other recognized institutions who wish to complete a second bachelor degree at King's may do so. Students must:
 - a. fulfill all degree and major/concentration requirements of the new program, and
 - b. complete a minimum of six credits in theology, philosophy or history at King's, and
 - c. complete the required number of credits for the program, reduced by a maximum of 60 credits from the student's previous degree. Transfer credit restrictions may apply, please see the Transfer credit section on page 22.
4. After completing a King's degree, students may complete the course work for an additional concentration or major for their existing degrees and have this noted on their transcript. They will not, however, be granted another degree.

5. Holders of a three-year degree from King's may return to complete a four year degree of the same kind and in the same subject provided that:
 - a. they meet all program requirements for the four year degree and major, and
 - b. they surrender their three-year degree upon completion of the four-year program. They will then be granted a four-year degree.
6. Holders of a three-year B.A. in Music may also receive the B.Mus. after completing an additional 72 credits.
7. Holders of a King's three- or four-year B.A. in Music may return to complete a B.Mus provided that:
 - a. they meet all program requirements for the B.Mus.
 - b. they surrender their three- or four-year degree
8. King's Bachelor of Commerce degree is, for the purposes of this policy, considered to be the four year degree of the same kind and subject as 3-year B.A. with a concentration in Business Administration.

REGISTRATION

Only students who have registered will be guaranteed spaces in courses and programs. While King's attempts to keep schedule changes to a minimum, course cancellations or changes to a student's course or lab sections may occur. Students will be notified if their schedule changes. If a course is cancelled registered students will be notified of the cancelation. Students are encouraged to speak to their Faculty Advisor to discuss alternative options.

All students must follow King's general education requirements and degree regulations whether they are planning to transfer or intend on finishing a degree at The King's University College.

A student cannot participate in registration or any other related activities until amounts owing to the University College are paid in full and/or University College property assigned to the student has been returned and/or all official documents have been received by the Office of the Registrar.

DEFINITIONS

Student Classification

For registration purposes, New Students are all who are admitted based on an application for admission for the current term. Returning Students refers to students who were in attendance the previous term. Re-Entering students are former King's students who have been readmitted after at least one regular term's absence.

Faculty Advisors

Each student attending The King's University College will be assigned a faculty advisor. At set times prior to and during the term, advisors are available to assist students in planning their studies. Faculty Advisors must approve initial registrations. Faculty Advisors may be consulted when making registration changes. Students are encouraged to make use of this important program counselling service. It should be noted, however, that the student is ultimately responsible for his or her choices and the calendar is the official statement of all academic policy.

Student Status

Full-time Students: Students enrolled in 9 or more credits in a given term.

Part-time Students: Students enrolled in fewer than 9 credits in a given term.

Visiting Students: Students enrolled in a program at another college or university which has permitted them to enroll in one or more courses at King's. Visiting students have no ongoing student status and must reapply for admission each term.

Unclassified Students: Students enrolled in one course. Unclassified students have no ongoing student status and must reapply for admission each term. Unclassified students are restricted to one course per term.

Year of Study

All Programs First Year - students who have completed fewer than 24 credits.

All Three- and Four-year Programs Second Year - students who have completed 24 or more credits but fewer than 54 credits.

After Degree Programs Second Year - students who have completed 24 or more credits.

Three-year Programs Third Year - students who have completed 54 or more credits.

Four-year Programs Third Year - students who have completed 54 or more credits but fewer than 84 credits.

Four-year Programs Fourth Year - students who have completed at least 84 credits.

FALL AND WINTER TERM REGISTRATION CONFIRMATION

Fall term registration confirmation days are on August 29-30, 2013. Winter term registration confirmation is on January 6, 2014.

Students are not to attend class until they have confirmed their registration. In order to ensure maximum enrolment in courses students who have not confirmed their registration 48 hours prior to the end of the add/drop deadline of the term in question will be withdrawn from their courses to free up their seats for other students. Students who know they will be late confirming their registration must notify the Office of the Registrar in writing to ensure they maintain their registration.

NEW AND RE-ENTERING STUDENTS

Applicants who have been notified of admission may contact an admissions counsellor at the University College by calling (780)465-8383 or 1-800-661-8582. A registration worksheet and Tuition Deposit must be submitted for the term in which a student was admitted. Students can also register for courses online. Once the Tuition Deposit is paid, instructions for online registration will be emailed to the student. Students who register and pay their tuition deposit by this deadline receive a $50 discount on their Tuition Deposit.

The Tuition Deposit is applied against the student's tuition. The Deposit is due by June 15* for the Fall term and November 30* for the Winter term (*or two weeks after the date of admission listed on the Letter of Admission). The deposit is not refundable.

Cancellation of registration indicates that all courses will be cancelled for the Fall term and for the Winter term.

In early August all students will be able to log into their OnLine Registry Services and book a Registration Confirmation Appointment. New and Re-Entering students must meet with their advisor prior to Registration Confirmation. An advisor appointment will automatically be booked 30 minutes prior to the Registration Confirmation appointment. During their Registration Confirmation appointment, students receive and sign their Course/Fee Sheet, receive their photo ID card and pay their fees.

Registration is completed by attendance on designated registration confirmation days, completion of all Registry procedures, and payment of fees at the Office of the Registrar. Any changes from the initial registration must be made by following Registry Add/Drop procedures.

RETURNING STUDENTS

Returning Students may register in March for Fall and Winter courses. Students must have their faculty advisors' signatures to register. Students can also register for courses and have their advisor approve their registration online. Fall registration must be confirmed by June 15 by payment of a Tuition Deposit; the deposit will be applied against the student's tuition. This deposit is not refundable.

Students who do not pay the Tuition Deposit by June 15 will be deemed to be not returning for the next Academic Session. Current student status will be lost and students will be de-registered from all future courses. Registration may be reinstated by filling out the Reinstatement Application (fee applies). Students may register in classes once they have been reinstated and pay the full tuition deposit.

In early August all students will be able to log into their OnLine Registry Services and book a Registration Confirmation Appointment. During their appointment, students receive and sign their Course/Fee Sheet, receive their photo ID card and pay their fees. Students not yet registered must come to the Office of the Registrar, complete the Reinstatement Application (fee applies), meet with their advisor to pick courses, and then book a Registration Confirmation Appointment.

Registration is completed by attendance on designated registration confirmation days, completion of all Registry procedures, and payment of fees at the Office of the Registrar. Any changes from the initial registration must be made by following Registry Add/Drop procedures.

UNCLASSIFIED STUDENTS AND VISITING STUDENTS

Students admitted as Unclassified or Visiting may pick up a registration form from the Office of the Registrar. The completed form needs to be returned to the Office of the Registrar. The Tuition Deposit or the full tuition, whichever is less, must accompany the registration form. This deposit is not refundable. Visiting students can only register in courses for which they have received permission from their home institution; unclassified students are restricted to the one course indicated on their application.

SPRING AND SUMMER TERMS

Registration confirmation is May 6, 2013 for Spring term 1 and May 27, 2013 for Spring term 2. Tuition deposits for these terms must be paid prior to the enrollment review date, May 1, 2013 for Spring term 1 and May 22, 2013 for Spring term 2. This deposit is not refundable.

ADD/DROP PROCEDURE

Students wanting to add or drop a course must do so in the specified time period. The student must bring, in person, a completed Add/Drop form to the Office of the Registrar for changes to be confirmed. Students can also add and drop courses online. The last day to add a course or drop a course without receiving a withdrawal notation on the student's transcript is September 11, 2013 for the Fall term and January 15, 2014 for the Winter term.

WITHDRAWAL PROCEDURE

ONLINE REGISTRY SERVICES

Online services are available to students through OnLine Registry Services on the King's website, registry.kingsu.ca. Some online services include registration and course changes, transcript requests, advisor reports (program planning), final grades, and tax receipts.

FEES

FEE STRUCTURE

Fees are subject to approval by the Board of Governors and may change without notice. Students are assessed fees at the rate which is in effect at time of registration.

Fees may be paid by cash, cheque, money order, debit card, credit card or direct bank transfer. Please contact Financial Services for more information.

APPLICATION FEES

Application fees are a non-refundable, one-time fee for a continuing student. If a student discontinues at King's for a term or more the application fee will be required again along with a completed application form.

RESIDENTIAL COSTS

Fully furnished rooms including bed, desk, chair, bookshelf, wardrobe and local telephone service and internet are available to full-time students during the academic year, September through April. The Tower Residence provides dormitory style accommodation (normally 2 students per room) while the Apartment Residence provides a more independent living environment for up to 6 senior students.

Internet access is available in all residences. Cooking appliances such as toasters and microwave ovens are not permitted in the Tower Residence. All residence students housed in the Tower Residence are expected to access food services in the cafeteria by establishing a Prepaid Food Services Account.

The University College does not provide insurance coverage for students' personal belongings. It is the responsibility of the student to arrange insurance for personal possessions.

Applications for the residence will be received by the Student Life Office. Upon receipt of the non-refundable residence deposit, a confirmation letter will be sent. Further information and applications for the residence are also available from the Student Life Office.

All first year, out-of-town students are strongly advised to take advantage of the unique educational and social opportunities provided through residence life. See the Student Life section for more information on Residence.

TYPICAL COSTS

Typical tuition, fees and book costs for one year for a full-time King's student are:

Tuition	31 credits	$10,540.00
Student Fees	Full-time	$625.00
Books and Materials	Estimate	1,300.00
Total		$12,465.00

International Students should add the international student fee of $1,500 for a total of $13,965.00.

These costs may be reduced for students qualifying for scholarships or other financial aid (see page 32).

Approximate Living Costs

Living costs will vary, depending on the living arrangements. For the sake of comparison, the estimated cost of living in residence for 8 months is $7350.00, the cost of comparable living circumstances off campus is estimated at $7480.00.

When planning finances for the year, students should be aware of expenses such as housing, food, bus passes ($76.95 per month), vehicle expenses and parking costs, personal needs, and travel between Edmonton and the student's home.

OBTAINING A REFUND

If a student withdraws from the University College drops a course, or changes from credit to audit tuition fees will be credited to the student's account as follows:

Fall Term

On or before September 11, 2013	100%
On or before September 24, 2013	50%

Winter Term

On or before January 15, 2014	100%
On or before January 28, 2014	50%

All refunds are less the Tuition Deposit, regardless of whether it was paid in advance.

To receive a refund of a credit on account, a student should submit a "Request for Refund" form. Requests received during the add/drop period will should be available September 30 for the fall term and January 31 for the winter term. See also "Withdrawal from Courses" under the Academic Information section on page 58.

Refunds for residence fees are detailed in the residence agreement. Refunds are less the Residence Deposit, regardless of whether it was paid in advance.

A Refund Appeals Committee exists for the consideration of exceptional circumstances surrounding a refund. Appeals must be submitted during the term to which they apply. 'Refund Appeal' forms and further information are available from the Office of the Registrar.

CERTIFICATION OF STUDENT RECORDS

All certification of a student's record (including degrees, diplomas and transcripts) will be withheld until amounts owing to the University College are paid in full and/or University College property assigned to the student has been returned and/or documents required by the University College are received. In addition, registration in future terms may be withheld, at the discretion of the Registrar.

PAYMENT DEADLINES AND OPTIONS

PAYMENT DEADLINES

Payment for each term is due on Registration Confirmation day. If you have not made the first payment as outlined below and confirmed your registration on or before the 5th class day of the term, we will assume that you have had a change in plans and will not be attending courses for that term and we will remove you from classes. You will have the opportunity to re-register until the 7th class day of each term. Any remaining outstanding balance on the student's account must be paid by the last date of the payment option. If full payment is not received by that date, you will be withdrawn from your courses and may not write final exams.

PAYMENT MECHANISMS

King's accepts payment through online banking, Interac (online or in person) or in person by cheque or cash. Credit card payments will be accepted only for mandatory non-refundable deposits, application fees, bookstore purchases, and miscellaneous charges and fines.

PAYMENT OPTIONS

One Course Only

If you are enrolled in 3 or fewer credits, your tuition, residence and meal plan (if any) and mandatory fees are due in full by Registration Confirmation in the relevant term.

More Than One Course

If you are enrolled in more than 3 credits, you have two options for paying your tuition, residence and meal plan and mandatory fees.

OPTION A: One Payment per Term

Full payment on or before Registration Confirmation day each term. Students who have not set up a pre-authorized debit plan as outlined below will be assumed to be electing Option A.

OPTION B: Monthly payments during the Term

This option is selected by signing up for a pre-authorized debit plan. Payments are processed through automatic withdrawal from your Canadian bank or credit union. There is a fee charged per payment plan.

Once King's receives notice of your approval for this plan and you have confirmed your registration, the monthly payment dates and amounts will be established. Your first payment, which is paid directly to King's, is due on or before your registration confirmation date. Payments at the beginning of each month will be required thereafter.

The King's University College offers Option B at no interest if the payments are received on time. Should you fail to keep your payment arrangement in good standing, you will incur interest charges of 19.56% per annum calculated back to the date of your Registration Confirmation. Further, you will not be eligible to have a payment arrangement in the subsequent term.

Payments may be increased by submitting a request to Financial Services at least 72 business hours in advance of the payment date.

Payment Dates	Fall	Winter	% due
First payment all options	On or before 30 August	On or before 4 January	Option A: 100% Option B: 25%
Option B Second payment	On 1 October	On 1 February	25%
Option B Third payment	On 1 November	On 1 March	25%
Option B Fourth payment	On 1 December	On 1 April	25%

AWARDS AND FINANCIAL AID

AVAILABLE FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

King's provides non-repayable financial assistance in various forms:

- scholarships, awards based primarily on academic performance;
- bursaries, awards primarily based upon financial need;
- and prizes, awards that may be offered for academic achievement, leadership qualities, volunteer efforts, or in combination.

King's students are also eligible to apply for government funding which may take the form of repayable federal and provincial/territorial loans, non-repayable grants, or a combination of both. In addition, government funding for students with permanent disabilities may also be available.

KING'S FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION

Although students are automatically considered for some awards (e.g. Admission Scholarship, General Transfer Scholarship and Returning Student Scholarship), others require an application. All full-time students are encourage to complete the annual King's Financial Aid Application. Each year the online application is available starting on or after February 1 with a deadline of March 31. Applications will be available on www.kingsu.ca. Students who cannot apply online may request a paper copy from the Manager of Financial Aid in the Enrolment Services office. Students will be notified of results by the end of May. To be considered, applicants must meet individual award requirements. Applications, including any required letters of reference, must be submitted in full no later than March 31 deadline.

ELIGIBILITY

In order to be eligible for awards administered by King's, students must:

- have received at least initial admission on or before March 31 (new students only)
- have all incomplete grades submitted by the normal incomplete deadline

- for scholarships, register for and maintain a minimum of 12 credits per term in each of Fall and Winter terms (unless otherwise stated)
- for bursaries, register for and complete a minimum of 9 credits per term in each of Fall and Winter terms (unless otherwise stated)
- return 'Thank you' cards by the Annual Awards Celebration in early October to show appreciation to our award donors (blank cards are provided by the Manager of Financial Aid)
- provide required documentation and information to support student eligibility of awards (if applicable) before the withdrawal deadline for the term in which the award is offered the award will be forfeit.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Students who become ineligible by program change, withdrawal or change to part-time status in the fall term will forfeit the winter term portion of the award.

PAYMENT

Unless otherwise noted, all scholarships, bursaries and monetary awards administered by King's will be credited to student accounts in two equal amounts, half in the Fall term (typically in late September) and half in the Winter term (typically in late January). Students who receive an award but who do not return to King's for further study will forfeit their award.

STUDENTS WITH PERMANENT DISABILITIES

Students with a permanent disabilities may be eligible to hold their award(s) with reduced course load requirements if they have enrolled with the Student Life Office and have proof of their disability listed as permanent by a third party medical professional (see "Equity of Access for students with Disabilities" on page 47). Once approval is granted, students may reduce their course load to 3 credits less than the required credit course load (for example, if a scholarship requires 12 credits per term, these students would be eligible to still accept their award while taking 9 credits per term).

WINTER TERM ONLY STUDENTS

Students who are only registered for the Winter Term (not enrolled in the Fall Term) may be considered for awards at King's so long as students apply for awards by published deadlines. However, eligible students will only receive half of the award value.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Students are responsible for:

- Updating their current and permanent mailing address, email and telephone numbers
- Checking their King's email account regularly
- Checking their King's student mailboxes regularly
- Submitting award applications and required documentation (if applicable) by award deadlines

Failure to do any of the above may result in missed award opportunities.

AWARD APPEALS

All appeals must be submitted in writing in the term in which the award was originally offered.

Appeals concerning scholarships designated as NOT REQUIRING AN APPLICATION in the awards listing must be directed to the Office of the Registrar.

Appeals concerning awards designated as REQUIRING AN APPLICATION in the awards listing, must be directed to the Manager of Financial Aid in the Enrolment Services office.

Appeals are only granted in exceptional circumstances, such as medical or personal emergencies, and require documentation. Not being aware of deadlines is not considered a valid ground for an appeal since all deadlines are published within the Academic Calendar as well as online at kingsu.ca.

In the event of any dispute, all final decisions regarding eligibility and the awarding of scholarships and bursaries will be made by the Financial Aid Committee (FAC).

STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS

For students taking part in a study abroad program in their Fall term, full award amounts will be deferred until the Winter term. For students who choose to study abroad in the Winter term, the first half of their awards will be deposited into their account in September with the second half coming in December, subject to confirmation of enrolment in the study abroad program. Should a student choose not to attend his or her program, awards will be distributed as per usual.

AWARDS OFFERED AT KING'S (LISTED IN ALPHABETICAL ORDER)

These awards are considered 'internal', meaning that they are exclusively available for future and current students who attend Kings'. Please read award descriptions carefully and note that awards are subject to availability and changes to the terms. Should there be any discrepancies, the latter will prevail and the most recent terms of award will be used. Please also note that "Grade Point Average" will be represented as G.P.A. within award descriptions.

OTHER SOURCES OF FINANCIAL AID

GOVERNMENT OF CANADA STUDENT LOAN FOR FULL-TIME STUDENTS

Full-Time Student Loans

If you are a Canadian citizen, a permanent resident of Canada, or a protected person, you may apply for a government student loan. Students who need financial assistance are advised to apply online to their province of residence (you are a permanent resident of the province or territory where you have most recently lived for at least 12 consecutive months without having been a full-time student at a post-secondary institution). Students should apply for government student loans NO LATER than two months prior to the first day of classes. Government loan applications are issued by June 1 of each year with a recommended deadline of June 30 for a class start date in September. For students starting their studies in January, aim to apply for your government student loan no later than mid-October.

Loans in Canada are integrated; meaning, when students apply for a government student loan, they are automatically applying for both, Federal and Provincial loan money. These loans are based upon financial need and are meant to be a supplement to your finances. Students who have not yet been out of high school for 4 years will require their legal parent/guardian(s) to complete income information on the application.

You are automatically considered for non-repayable grants when you apply for a full-time government loan. For more information on grant types and eligibility, please visit the government of Canada site: www.canlearn.ca.

Loans are distributed in two parts; 60% of funding in the Fall term (typically in federal loan funds) and the remaining 40% in the Winter term (typically in provincial loan funds). To be eligible for full time government loans, students must register for and complete at least 9 credits in each term. When studying full time, government loans are interest-free until students complete full-time study. One term only loans are available; apply two months prior to your class start date to ensure that funding is available on time. Please Note: King's is considered a public institution for student loan purposes.

Part-Time Student Loans

Part-time students are only eligible for Canada Student Loans (no provincial/territorial funding is allowed). Unlike the requirement for full-time loan funding, students must apply to the province that they are studying in, not necessarily the province that they are a permanent resident of. ALL King's students must apply to Student Aid Alberta (see below for their contact information). To be eligible for Canada Student Loans and Grants for part-time studies, you must:

- be a Canadian citizen, a permanent resident of Canada, or designated as a protected person;
- be a resident of a province or a territory that issues Canada Student Loans (for part-time loans, you apply through the province that you are studying in);
- demonstrate financial need;
- be enrolled in 20 to 59 percent of a full course load. However, if you are a student with permanent disabilities, and you are studying between 40 to 59% of a full course load, you can choose to be considered a student in full or part-time studies;
- be enrolled in a degree, diploma, or certificate program that runs for at least 12 weeks within a 15-week period and is offered by a designated post-secondary educational institution;
- maintain satisfactory grades; and
- pass a credit check if you are 22 or older and applying for a Canada Student Loan and Grant for the first time.
- to apply for a part-time Canada Student Loan, complete the application form on the Student Aid Alberta website: studentaid.alberta.ca Call the Student Aid Alberta Service Centre with your questions: 1-855-606-2096

KING'S ON-CAMPUS EMPLOYMENT

On-campus jobs are available to students in full-time attendance at King's. Students must have a G.P.A. of at least 2.00 to be employed on-campus. A total of approximately $250,000 is paid to student employees each year.

Applications for campus employment are online: <http://www.kingsu.ca/future-students> and are due by April 30 (deadline subject to change).

A number of jobs are usually available in the following departments: Athletics, Facilities, Conference Services, Campus Bookstore, Development, Enrolment Services, Food Services, Information Technology Services, Library, Reception, and Student Life. The application form will specify the experience and/or ability required for each type of job and will provide expanded job descriptions.

DIRECT LOAN PROGRAM: GOVERNMENT LOANS FOR U.S. STUDENTS

American students at King's may borrow Direct Loans under the U.S. Department of Education's government loan program. Our designated institutional code is: 026119

The Direct Loan Program offers these types of loans for full time undergraduate students:

- Subsidized: for students with demonstrated financial need, as determined by federal regulations. No interest is charged while a student is in school full time, during the grace period, and during deferment periods.
- Unsubsidized: no financial need required; interest is charged during all periods, including while in school and within the grace period.
- PLUS: unsubsidized loans for the parents of dependant students. Interest is charged during all periods.

U.S. loans are approved and issued by the school using this calculation:

- Cost of attendance (COA) - Expected Family Contribution (EFC) - Other financial assistance = Eligible loan amount (Loan amounts cannot exceed the total cost of attendance)

To apply, students must:

- Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) on: <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/>
- Sign a Master Promissory Note (MPN) by going to: <https://studentloans.gov>

- If you are a first time borrower, complete mandatory Entrance Counselling: <https://studentloans.gov>
- Notify King's of your upcoming loan application by June 30 for classes that commence in September, and October 31 for classes that commence in January to the Manager of Financial Aid, Enrolment Services, Tel: (780) 465-3500 x8117

Once your application has been fully reviewed you will be sent a letter by mail to your current address listed on your original admission application indicating your eligibility and loan amount(s), if applicable. It will further include your rights and responsibilities as a borrower that you will have to agree to prior to receiving loan funds.

Know your Loan Limits! Before you think of applying for funding, know how much you can borrow! Most first year students are not eligible for more than USD$5,500 for the entire school year! See <https://studentloans.gov> for more information

Important:

- Distance and online learning courses are not eligible for Federal Student Aid (even one course will disqualify you)
- Part-time students are not eligible for Direct Loans - all students must take a 60% course load
- NEW students! If this is your first time receiving a Federal loan, you must attend school for 30 days before your funds can be released (and you are expected to pay your tuition on time regardless)
- Federal Pell Grants and Federal Work-Study are not available outside of the U.S.
- Direct Loan funding is not available for students in a non-degree program (ie. diploma, certificate)

Funds cannot be released to first-time loan borrowers until they've attended at least 30 days of school. Average costs for one (8 month) school year total CAD$19,000 to $25,000 dollars. Not all loans cover all of your educational costs so please review your expenses carefully against your available loan limits by visiting: <https://studentloans.gov>

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) & Course load Requirements

There are academic performance expectations when you are studying with approved U.S. Federal funding; students are expected to complete and pass at least 60% of a full course load or will have subsequent loans put on probation or denied.

Open a Canadian bank account

The Direct Loan program means that US loan funds will be sent via wire transfer from the US Treasury to King's directly. We will credit your tuition account for the term (after verifying eligibility) and all loan money will be applied to your fees. If, after payment, your fees are paid in full, students will receive a refund cheque in Canadian dollars. If you deposit this into a US bank account, your money will most likely be held for anywhere between 2-4 weeks but if you have a Canadian dollar account, you will most likely avoid this long holding period. Note: There is no bank on the King's campus.

Visa Requirements

All students must show to Canadian immigration that they have enough funding to pay for their educational & living expenses. Our office can provide proof of funding letters, upon request, if your loan information has been received and reviewed. Please allow 2-4 weeks for processing for these.

Exit Counselling

Once you have completed full-time study (whether by completing or ceasing study) you must take mandatory Exit Counselling so that you are aware of repayment options. You may do this online at: <https://studentloans.gov>

STUDENT LIFE

A large part of university life is co-curricular — what students do besides attend class and study. The King's University College offers a full range of activities and services — recreational, artistic, musical, ministerial, athletic, academic, social — that help students to participate in a richly diverse and caring community. Personal growth, spiritual development, relational skills, academic development, lifelong friendships and faith integration are among the significant opportunities for students at The King's University College.

THE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE COMMUNITY

We exist to provide university education that inspires and equips learners to bring renewal and reconciliation to every walk of life as followers of Jesus Christ, the Servant-King.

The role of the Student Life office is to encourage an environment that is engaging...

where all students can feel and experience belonging...

challenging one another within a culture of learning...

by taking responsibility through acts of humble ownership...

STUDENT RESOURCES

The transition that many students make when they begin university studies is filled with new challenges and often complex changes. The Student Life Office helps students work through those transitions by providing various resources and support services including the following:

- new student orientation
- retreats and social activities
- student leadership opportunities
- pastoral care
- personal counselling services
- support for mature students
- international student assistance
- accommodation access for students with disabilities
- mentoring student leaders
- residence applications and services

- off-campus volunteer opportunities
- local and international learning and services opportunities
- off-campus housing information

CAMPUS MINISTRIES

The Campus Ministers are spiritual mentors for the campus community. Weekly chapel services, coordinated by the Campus Ministers, offer the King's community an opportunity for collective worship. Chapel meets in the Atrium. Occasional special chapels, such as Advent, meet in the SAC or Knoppers Hall. Students are encouraged to attend chapel and become involved in one of the student-led worship team leadership opportunities.

All students are encouraged to participate in the many opportunities provided for spiritual growth on campus. Campus worship, prayer, discipleship and service groups as well as evening worship times are only some of the ways to be involved.

Students are encouraged to become involved in campus ministries by attending various functions, exercising their gifts and providing leadership. Students are also encouraged to worship regularly at a church of their choice.

EQUITY OF ACCESS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students who have been diagnosed with a disability which may affect their academic performance or physical wellbeing at King's are encouraged to identify themselves well in advance of the start of the term. The information can be provided on the course registration worksheet or a student may call the school directly and speak with the Student Life Office Coordinator. Students must provide recent (within the past 4 years) professional assessment of their disability in order to access accommodation services.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS (UNIV 150)

University level study is exciting and challenging. At King's we want to see all students achieve academic success. Investing time in learning about learning can help to develop effective study skills. This short course is designed to equip students with the tools to work in the university environment. Topics include: preparing for research, critical thinking, reading and note-taking, writing a paper, making the most of faculty feedback and exam preparation.

Whether students need to consolidate existing skills or acquire new ones, this course will prove useful.

The course meets once a week for a 50 minute class over 7 weeks. It runs twice a year in the fall and winter semester.

The cost subsidized by King's to make it accessible for all students. See "Tuition Fees" on page 28

RESIDENCE LIFE

The King's University College provides excellent facilities for students who choose to live on campus. Students are not required to live on campus, but are encouraged to consider this option because of its many advantages. First year students under the age of 21 who do not live with parents during the school year are advised to live on campus.

In the friendly surroundings of the Residence, students experience the best of campus life: here is an enhanced sense of community and support due to increased opportunities for social and spiritual interaction. A wide variety of spiritual and recreational activities are planned and hosted by the University College and Residence Staff and students.

Two residences are on The King's University College campus:

TOWER RESIDENCE

The eight-story Residence tower provides housing that is safe, comfortable and convenient. Wireless internet access is available in all rooms. Students will share a large room with another person of the same gender, although some single occupancy rooms may be available. Common lounge areas and pre-paid laundry equipment are available to all resident students. Local telephone is included. Students are responsible for their own bed linens, task lighting and accessory furnishings.

All residents in the Tower must purchase a meal plan. For further information see Food Services-Cafeteria section.

APARTMENT RESIDENCE

A second student residence, intended for returning and senior students, provides suites of 6 bedrooms.

Applicants to this residence must have completed a minimum of 24 credits or have been admitted as a mature student. Meal plans offered through food services are optional for apartment residents.

Students who have special dietary needs may be eligible to apply for the apartment residence upon approval by the Student Life Office. A written request is required.

In general, the residence is available for full-time students only. Any requests for exceptions to this policy must be submitted, in writing, to the Community Life Director or the Coordinator of Residence Life.

On-campus housing is offered on a first-come, first-served basis. Students are encouraged to apply early. Students may apply for residence online on the King's website at www.kingsu.ca (click Campus Life & Tour, then Residence), further information is also available from the Student Life Office.

See page 28 for occupancy and food costs.

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Members of The King's University College community must uphold specific responsibilities as articulated in the Code of Ethics. Various other policy statements regarding the use of drugs and alcohol, harassment and residence requirements are available in the Student Handbook. All students are subject to the policies outlined in the Student Handbook.

The University College may refuse admission to or withdraw admission from any student who does not maintain acceptable standards. Such action would be taken only in accordance with established discipline procedures.

For more information on standards of conduct, please contact the University College, and/or review the Student Handbook.

COMMUTER PROGRAM

Student Life, in recognition of the fact that 2/3 of students at King's commute to school, has created a dedicated team of Student Leaders known as Commuter Program Assistants (CPAs). Led by the Coordinator of Student Programs, the team organizes events and opportunities for students to connect with one another as well as engage in a full range of activities around campus. Further information can be found on the King's website under Student Life.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

All students are members of The King's University College Students' Association which represents students in King's governing bodies, brings student concerns to campus administration, and plans various social events and activities.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Students can contribute to the following student-run publications:

- The Chronicle, the University College newspaper, is written and published regularly by students. It is an opportunity for those interested in the life of the University College to keep their fingers on its pulse and develop skills in communication. The Chronicle is distributed on campus free of charge. Students' Publications Advisory Board Awards are available to staff members. See page 36.
- Ballyhoo is an artistic and eclectic collection of poetry, short stories, essays, musical scores, drawings and photos - all expressions of the diverse creativity of the King's community. Ballyhoo is available at a modest price through The King's University College Bookstore.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Several activities are sponsored throughout the academic year by the Student Life Office and the Students' Association. Athletics, intramurals, clubs, student publications and social activities are organized and promoted annually.

Social activities include the annual Barbecue, Fall Retreat, Christmas Banquet and Year-End Picnic in addition to numerous activities hosted by the Student Life office and the Students' Association, such as dances, concerts, skating/tobogganing parties, movie nights, coffee houses and much more.

FITNESS OPPORTUNITIES

King's offers its students, as part of their fees, the use of the WORKout Centre which features a wide range of cardiovascular equipment including treadmills, cross trainers, and a variety of bikes. Weight equipment includes free weights, olympic weights, power cage and a multi-station universal. The facility is open daily, hours are posted.

RECREATION OPPORTUNITIES

During the day, the gymnasium is open to students and equipment may be signed out from the WORKout Centre.

Students are also given the opportunity to participate in Intramural programs offered at various times during the school year, including indoor soccer, floor hockey, ultimate frisbee, volleyball, basketball and badminton.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE ATHLETICS

The King's University College participates in the Alberta College Athletic Conference (ACAC). This includes both men's and women's teams in the following sports: Soccer, Basketball, Volleyball and Badminton (open tournaments). Each sport hosts several Identification Camps throughout the year. Anyone interested in competing on a college team may either call the university or go to the King's Athletic Web page at www.kingsu.ca.

STUDENT SERVICES

FOOD SERVICES - CAFETERIA

Food Services offers popular menus for breakfast, lunch and supper. Menus are nutritionally balanced and offer generous quantities of high-quality food. Those housed in the Tower Residence must purchase one of two food services plans. See page 29 for occupancy and food costs.

OFF-CAMPUS STUDENT HOUSING REGISTRY

A Student Housing registry is provided in the Student Life office to assist King's students with living arrangements apart from the Residence. It includes up-to-date listings of houses, house suites, apartments and room and board situations, as well as persons looking for roommates.

BOOKSTORE

Textbooks and school supplies can be purchased at The King's University College Bookstore. The Bookstore also buys back used textbooks at the beginning and end of each semester – details on upcoming buybacks can be found at www.kingsu.ca/bookstore.

Other items available include: King's apparel and accessories, study aids, greeting cards, fair-trade coffee, and a wide selection of titles in theology and Christian ministry.

LIBRARY

The Simona Maaskant Library provides general and course-specific instruction in information research and use. Our Instructional Librarian and other library staff are happy to assist students in meeting their information needs. Over 100,000 books, periodicals, and other materials are available on site, and over 10 million items are available through the NEOS Consortium (see below). The library also has online indexes and databases, more than 80,000 electronic full-text journals, and curriculum material for use in the elementary classroom.

NEOS includes 18 government, academic, hospital, and special libraries in Alberta, among them the University of Alberta and The Alberta Government Library. Students have borrowing privileges at all NEOS libraries, and are able to request items for delivery to King's. The library is also a member of the Council of Prairie and Pacific University Libraries (COPPUL), comprising 19 libraries in Western Canada and the Canadian Research Knowledge Network, a national database licensing program.

The library provides study carrels for quiet study and reading; group study areas; facilities for viewing/listening to audiovisual materials; interlibrary loans; wireless network access; a computer lab; a poster printer; and photocopiers.

COMPUTER ACCOUNTS

Every student receives a computer lab account, including e-mail and Internet access. A basic allotment of credit for printing is included in student fees. Additional allotments may be purchased through the Office of the Registrar. Detailed information is available in the computer labs.

TRANSPORTATION AND PARKING

Public transportation is available to and from the campus on the Edmonton Transit System. Student parking with a plug-in is available on site, see page 29 for parking fees. A limited number of stalls are available and are reserved on a first-come, first-served basis during the week of registration; all other parking is free. Parking passes may be paid for and picked up at the Office of the Registrar.

INTERNATIONALIZATION

INTERNATIONALIZATION

Today's world has left behind many of the barriers between people and nations that characterized the 20th century. A powerful result of this situation is the phenomenon known as "globalization". King's equips students to be internationally knowledgeable and interculturally competent.

A basic element of preparing ourselves for this change is to raise our consciousness about the need to find new and more constructive ways to live in and with diversity. Understanding that we live in diversity means that we recognize, affirm and respectfully investigate the enormous mosaic of human and natural diversity. Living with diversity requires faculty and students to explore and develop new ways to use diversity to the mutual advantage of all instead of it being the basis for division, strife and oppression. At King's, this must be reflected in our teaching and research.

The University College is globalizing its programs by recruiting qualified international students, using visiting scholars to enrich the international experience of students, overtly addressing international issues and alternative viewpoints in course material where possible, and helping students participate in off-campus or overseas study experiences.

To this end the University College currently features the following:

- An Coordinator of International Student Programs dedicated to assisting King's international students experiencing a new culture and adapting to Canada, and guidance for King's domestic students in realizing international experiences
- A Globe Aware Week held every Fall term with activities, music, films, a Globe Aware Marketplace, and International Students' Country Booths
- An International Students' Orientation catered especially for international students to familiarize them with King's, Edmonton and Canada
- An International Students' Buddy Program that pairs interested international students with a student for facilitating cross-cultural adjustment

- Monthly International Students dinners that aims to bring international students together for a meal and to reconnect with each other as a community.
- A set of Host Apartments in the Apartments comprising of local students "hosting" up to 2 international students in their apartment to promote cross-cultural interactions
- A variety of off-campus programs (see page 51 and following)
- An "A-way to Learn" brochure that features a complete list of global possibilities at King's: a description of off-campus study programs and Faculty contacts for those programs, information about international internships through the relevant degree programs or the Micah Centre with discussion of King's field courses in international development.
- ESL support to help students whose native language is not English (see Post-Secondary English at King's below);
- Go Global bursaries available to international students
- Funding, scholarships and bursaries for many of these programs (see page 32);
- A variety of off-campus programs (see page 52 and following)

Students are encouraged to make the most of these and other opportunities. More information about most of the options mentioned above is available from the Student Life Office or the Coordinator of International Student Programs. Information about bursaries and scholarships is available through the Financial Aid Office in Enrolment Services. Information about off campus programs is available from the identified contact person.

POST-SECONDARY ENGLISH AT KING'S

King's has established a University English as a Second Language program called Post Secondary English At King's (PEAK). This program is designed to offer two streams of university ESL:

PEAK FOUNDATIONS

PEAK Foundations is a 24 hour per week ESL program designed to bring students to a level of proficiency in listening, speaking, reading and writing sufficient for post-secondary study. Students who are in the PEAK Foundations course must complete at least one term, and normally would complete two terms of study in this program. Based on the advice of the ESL instructor(s) students may move from this program into Blended PEAK or into regular academic study. Please see the course descriptions for PEAK100 and 110 for more details on this program.

BLENDED PEAK

Blended PEAK allows a student to take 9 hours per week of ESL while also taking 6 to 9.5 credits of other University courses. While in the Blended PEAK program, students are excused from the requirement to complete Foundations English in the first 30 credits completed. Students must complete at least one term, and normally would complete two terms of study in this program. Based on the advice of the ESL instructor(s) students may move from this program into PEAK Foundations or into regular academic study. Please see the course descriptions for PEAK105 and 115 for more details on this program.

APPLYING TO PEAK

To be considered for PEAK, students must be admissible to King's in all respects except for English proficiency. Students may apply to the PEAK program by indicating this on the application for admission form.

In addition, students who have been admitted to King's as regular students may be required to take Blended PEAK based on the results of an English proficiency test normally delivered in the first week of either ENGL204 or ENGL205.

OFF-CAMPUS PROGRAMS

A student must complete and submit to the Office of the Registrar a 'Request to Enroll in a Course at Another Institution' form in order to receive credit for off-campus courses not administered by The King's University College.

Up to 15 credits may be applied to a student's program for successful completion of one of the following off-campus programs. Interested students should see the faculty contact person named in the description of the program they are interested in for further details about cost.

A student will be expected to take at least 50% of their major/first concentration, or minor/second concentration courses at King's. Also, each student must normally take at least 18 credits of the last 30 credits in the program at King's.

AU SABLE INSTITUTE OF ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

7526 Sunset Trail, N.E., Mancelona, MI 49659-9555

www.ausable.org

The Au Sable Institute of Environmental Studies provides university level courses with transferable credits to undergraduates in over 60 colleges and universities. The curriculum includes a wide-range of field-based environmental and natural science courses that emphasize sustainable community building, restoration and environmental education. Students can undertake independent research projects or complete a Certificate in one of five speciality areas. The Institute sponsors a Graduate Fellows program with faculty mentors and Forums on academic topics. Programs are offered in the Great Lakes Forest of northern Michigan, Puget Sound in the Pacific Northwest, South Florida just north of the Everglades, and South India. Applications are completed online at: www.ausable.org For further information contact Dr. Vern Peters or Dr. John Wood

CHRISTELIJKE HOGESCHOOL EDE

The King's University College has arranged with Christelijke Hogeschool Ede, University for Professional Education in Ede, The Netherlands to cooperate in facilitating the exchange of students. Please see the Office of the Registrar for details.

L'ABRI FELLOWSHIP IN SWITZERLAND

King's has arranged for its students to earn three credits for a directed study project at the Swiss L'Abri. Students develop a project with a King's professor and then travel to Switzerland to work on the project for four weeks with one of the L'Abri tutors. Tutors can oversee study of various subjects, including technology related issues, theology, apologetics, gender relations, counselling issues, arts in general, music and therapy, philosophy, cultural studies, economics, and literature. See Dr. Stephen Martin for details.

LAURENTIAN LEADERSHIP CENTRE

The Laurentian Leadership Centre is run by Trinity Western University, and provides students a unique opportunity for to spend a semester in Ottawa, Ont., combining course work with an internship in the field of choice. King's students have access to this program during the Winter term each year. Students live in a renovated heritage mansion in the heart of Ottawa, just minutes away from Parliament Hill. Students have the opportunity to interact with national leaders and watch tomorrow's headlines unfold while earning academic credit. Please see www.twu.ca/sites/laurentian/ and Dr. John Hiemstra for details.

NETHERLANDIC STUDY PROGRAM IN CONTEMPORARY EUROPE

The King's University College is a cooperating college in the Netherlandic Studies Program run by Dordt College. Students may apply to study for a term in the Netherlands in the areas of art, business, Dutch language and history. University College credit is available for this program. See Dr. Chris Peet for details.

OXFORD STUDY PROGRAMME

The Oxford Study Programme is a program run by Crandall University that provides one term of study as an associate student at Regent's Park College, Oxford University. Topics offered during this period of study include Art History, the Intellectual History of Science and Religion, English Literature, and Biblical Archeology. Students participating in this program will be able to visit castles, cathedrals, and abbeys in conjunction with their studies, and live with a British family in a small, safe, welcoming country town in the picturesque Cotswold Hills, just outside Oxford. See <http://www.crandallu.ca/cu/crandall-oxford-study-programme> and the Office of the Registrar for details.

COUNCIL FOR CHRISTIAN COLLEGES & UNIVERSITIES - MANAGED PROGRAMS

AMERICAN STUDIES PROGRAM (ASP)

Founded in 1976, the American Studies Program has served hundreds of students as a "Washington, D.C. campus." ASP uses Washington as a stimulating educational laboratory where collegians gain hands on experience with an internship in their chosen field. Internships are tailored to fit the student's talents and aspirations and are available in a wide range of fields. Participants also explore pressing national and international issues in public policy seminars that are issue oriented, interdisciplinary and led by ASP faculty and Washington professionals. The ASP bridges classroom and marketplace, combining biblical reflection, policy analysis and real world experience. Students are exposed to on the job learning that helps them build for their future and gain perspective on the calling of God for their lives. They are challenged in a rigorous course of study to discover for themselves the meaning of Christ's lordship in putting their beliefs into practice. The aim of the program is to help Council schools prepare their students to live faithfully in contemporary society as followers of Christ. See Dr. John Hiemstra for details.

AUSTRALIA STUDIES CENTRE (ASC)

The ASC offers students a semester at the Wesley Institute, in Sydney, Australia, where they can explore their artistic talents through Wesley Institute's outstanding division of Ministry & the Arts. Faculty trained and working in the professional performing arts scene in Sydney will guide students in their thinking through the Christian's role in culture, whether classical or pop culture. The ASC utilizes a combination of classroom training at the Wesley Institute and experiential learning in the beautiful Australian context. Home stays, service learning and travel around Australia are important components of the ASC. Students will examine the many faces of Australia. They will observe its beautiful landscape, live in the cosmopolitan melting pot of Sydney, serve the poor of Sydney's multi-cultural ghettos, engage the political capital Canberra and its power players, and come to know the traditions of Aborigines. ASC students participate in the core experiential course and choose the remainder of their credits from Wesley Institute's arts and ministry courses. See Dr. William Van Arragon for details.

CHINA STUDIES PROGRAM

The China Studies Program enables students to engage this ancient and intriguing country from the inside. While living in and experiencing Chinese civilization firsthand, students participate in seminar courses on the historical, cultural, religious, geographic and economic/business realities of this strategic and populous nation. In addition to the study of standard Chinese language, students are given opportunities such as assisting Chinese students learning English or working in an orphanage, allowing for one on one interaction. The program introduces students to the diversity of China, including Hong Kong, Beijing, Shanghai, Xi'an and Xiamen. This interdisciplinary, cross cultural program enables students to deal with this increasingly important part of the world in an informed, Christ centered way. See Dr. Heather Prior for details.

CONTEMPORARY MUSIC CENTER (CMC)

The Contemporary Music Center provides students the opportunity to live and work in community while seeking to understand how God will have them integrate music, faith and business. Both interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary in nature, the CMC offers two tracks:

the Artist Track and the Executive Track. The Artist Track is tailored to students considering careers as vocalists, musicians, songwriters, recording artists, performers, producers and recording engineers. The Executive Track is designed for business, arts management, marketing, communications and related majors interested in possible careers as artist managers, agents, record company executives, music publishers, concert promoters and entertainment industry entrepreneurs. Both Artist and Executive track students receive instruction, experience and a uniquely Christian perspective on creativity and the marketplace, while working together to create and market a recording of original music. Both tracks include course work, labs, directed study and a practicum. See Dr. Charles Stolte for details.

INDIA STUDIES PROGRAM

"Unity in Diversity" is the hallmark of the nation of India. There are 28 states and 7 union territories, 22 officially recognized languages and numerous dialects, about 9 religions and nearly 2000 ethnic groups across India. The India Studies Program offers a unique opportunity to encounter one of today's most fascinating and diverse cultures. This diversity, as well as the call to be an obedient witness for Christ throughout the world, provides a rich and engaging setting to equip students to be servant-leaders in a pluralistic world of beliefs, cultures and needs.

The India Studies Program is structured to provide students with both immersion in a local community and broad exposure to a variety of peoples, places and customs in India including an extensive two-week travel portion of the program to provide students a close up look at India's diversity. Students will participate in two core courses designed to provide a broad overview of the historical, religious, geographical and economic landscape of India. Building on their basic understanding of India's past and contemporary realities students will have opportunities to explore a variety of issues -poverty, social justice, rapid social change, religious pluralism - through the eyes and experience of Indian Christians. Rounding out the semester experience, students will also have the opportunity to take courses in their major areas with Indian students and professors. See the Office of the Registrar for details.

LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES PROGRAM

Students of CCCU colleges have the opportunity to live and learn in Latin America through the Latin American Studies Program, based in San Jose, Costa Rica. The program introduces students to a wide range of experiences through the study of the language, literature, culture, politics, history, economics, ecology and religion of the region. Living with a Costa Rican family, students experience and become a part of the day to day lives of typical Latin Americans. Students also take part in a service opportunity and travel for three weeks to nearby Central American nations. Students participate in one of four concentrations: Latin American Studies (offered both Fall and Spring terms); Advanced Language and Literature (limited to Spanish majors and offered both Fall and Spring terms); International Business and Management (offered only in Fall terms); and Tropical Sciences (offered only during Spring terms). See Dr. John Hiemstra for details.

LOS ANGELES FILM STUDIES CENTER

The Los Angeles Film Studies Center is designed to train students of Council institutions to serve in various aspects of the film industry with both professional skill and Christian integrity. Students live, learn and work in the LA area near major studios. The curriculum consists of two required seminars focusing on the role of film in culture and the relationship of faith to work in this very influential industry. In addition, students choose two elective courses from a variety of offerings in film studies. Internships in various segments of the film industry provide students with hands on experience. The combination of the internship and seminars allow students to explore the film industry within a Christian context and from a liberal arts perspective. See Professor Daniel van Heyst for details.

MIDDLE EAST STUDIES PROGRAM (MESP)

This program, based in Jerusalem allows Council students to explore and interact with the complex and strategic world of the modern Middle East. The interdisciplinary seminars give students the opportunity to explore the diverse religious, social, cultural and political traditions of Middle Eastern peoples. Students also study the Arabic language and work as volunteers with various organizations in Cairo. Through travel to Israel, Palestine, Jordan, Syria and Turkey, students are exposed to the diversity and dynamism of the region. At a time of tension and change in the Middle East Region, MESP encourages and equips students to relate to the Muslim world in an informed, constructive and Christ centered manner. See Dr. William Van Arragon for details.

OXFORD SUMMER PROGRAMME

The Oxford Summer Programme (OSP) is a program of the Council for Christian Colleges & Universities and Wycliffe Hall, Oxford. The program is designed for students wishing to gain a more comprehensive understanding of the relationship between Christianity and the development of the West and who wish to do specialized work under expert Oxford academics in the areas of History, Religious Studies, English, and History of Science. The Programme is structured for rising college sophomores, juniors, and seniors, graduate and seminary students, non-traditional students, teachers, and those enrolled in continuing-education programs. See Dr. Richard Vaudry for details.

THE SCHOLARS' SEMESTER IN OXFORD (SSO)

SSO is designed for students interested in doing intensive scholarship in this historic seat of learning. Working with academic tutors, students hone their skills and delve into the areas that interest them most. As Visiting Students of Oxford University and members of Wycliffe Hall, students have the privilege to study and learn in one of university's historic halls. SSO students enroll in a Primary and Secondary Tutorial, an Integrative Seminar and are required to attend two series of lectures. The SSO is designed for students interested in the fields of Theology, Biblical Studies, Education, Science, Pre-Med, Psychology, Business and the Humanities. Applicants are generally honors and other very high-achieving students. See Dr. Richard Vaudry for details.

UGANDA STUDIES PROGRAM

Winston Churchill is credited with nicknaming Uganda the "Pearl of Africa," and many visitors since his time have come to agree with him. The USP offers students a very personal encounter with this African success story, which has become an economic and public health model in its region. Another success story, Uganda Christian University (UCU), serves as the base of study for students in the USP. Set on the outskirts of the capital city Kampala, this rapidly growing institution brings USP students together with the UCU Honours College. Courses taught by local faculty in the English tutorial tradition will immerse students in a uniquely African education. Topics such as Christianity and Islam in Contemporary Africa, African Literature and African History will present many insights into African life because of the guidance of faculty who live in and love Uganda and East Africa. Home stays, travel, service learning and daily interaction Honours College students form the backbone of the USP experience. See the Office of the Registrar for details.

WASHINGTON JOURNALISM CENTRE

The Washington Journalism Centre (WJC) is a semester-long study program in Washington, DC, created for students interested in the field of journalism. While in Washington students will take classes focusing on the history and future of the media and how it relates to the public as well as to their personal writing skills. These classes - Foundations for Media Involvement; Reporting in Washington; and Washington, News and Public Discourse - combined with an internship at a top news publication will help students learn to integrate their faith in a journalism career. Students will also participate in service learning opportunities as well as live with families in home stays as part of the WJC experience. For more information: www.bestsemester.com. See Dr. Arlette Zinck for details.

OTHER RECOGNIZED PROGRAMS

CREATION CARE STUDY PROGRAM

The Creation Care Study Program (CCSP) is a four-month study abroad program offered in two international locations: Belize, Central America and the South Pacific (Samoa and New Zealand.) The goal of CCSP is to develop and nurture the knowledge, care, and practical competence necessary to be caretakers of creation. Specifically, the core of each program is three, four-credit classes in theology (God and Nature), biology (Tropical Ecosystems or Ecosystems of the South Pacific) and sustainable development (Introduction to Sustainable Community Development). Internships are also offered in the student's major, as well as elective classes in anthropology, Latin American Studies or Environmental Literature. In addition to the formal curriculum, students also live in Christian community with their fellow students, enjoy homestays with national host families, travel for fieldwork and cross-cultural exposure, and participate in the spiritual life of the community through worship and devotions. The experience of CCSP is challenging and diverse-on any given day, students may be snorkeling a coral reef for class work, visiting with the chief of the local village, talking theology over coffee with a visiting professor, wading in a stream to collect water samples, or swimming in a deep blue karst sink hole with fellow students. See Dr. John Wood for details.

HOUGHTON IN TANZANIA

The Houghton in Tanzania semester is offered once a year. It is intended to get the student out of the western classroom and into a real setting in the developing world. Tanzania is a beautiful, peaceful country with most of its people still living in a rural, agrarian setting. The semester offers courses in various integrated fields such as anthropology, history, wildlife studies, missions and folklore. This semester is much more than a tourist trip. At the base camp near Iringa formal lectures are given in each of these courses, but more importantly the students travel extensively, live with Tanzanian families, talk Swahili, see historical sites, and observe wildlife in wilderness settings. Students experience for themselves the same material they are learning in the classroom. The result is in-depth learning and a life changing experience. See the Office of the Registrar for details.

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS INSTITUTE

The International Business Institute (IBI) is a cooperative program involving colleges and universities of the CCCU. It is designed to give students in economics and business a distinctive opportunity for a term of study in the international dimension in these fields. See the Office of the Registrar for details.

JERUSALEM UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

Jerusalem University College, formerly known as the Institute of Holy Land Studies, and American Institute is an extension campus for more than 100 accredited Christian universities, colleges and seminaries around the world as well as an independent, degree granting, institution of higher education in Israel. Founded in 1957 as a graduate institution, the school provides both graduate and undergraduate students the opportunity to study the Christian Scriptures in the context of the land where the events occurred as well as the languages, social and political culture, religions and historical relationships of the Middle East. See Dr. Doug Harink for details.

TRINITY CHRISTIAN COLLEGE SEMESTER IN SPAIN

Semester In Spain strives to provide a comprehensive living and learning environment in Seville, Spain. The core of the program is built around excellent teaching by native Spaniards, exciting faith opportunities, and an enriching homestay experience with Spanish families. Beginners, intermediate and advanced Spanish students are welcomed to Trinity Christian College's program in Seville. Students can choose year long study, a Fall or Spring semester, January interim or the summer program. The curriculum provides intensive language and grammar, art, history, literature, and business courses. Many excursions are provided including Cordoba, Toledo, Ronda, Cadiz and Granada. See Dr. Chris Peet for details.

WORLD JOURNALISM INSTITUTE

The World Journalism Institute (WJI) in New York City was established to help equip aspiring Christian journalists to write well, observe keenly and think biblically. WJI holds multi-week journalism courses in New York City, Washington, DC, and Los Angeles, as well as weekend conferences. Drawing its faculty from the ranks of working journalists and academic journalists, WJI offers classroom instruction, writing assignments, field trips, and internships for its most promising graduates. See Dr. Arlette Zinck for details.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

GENERAL

The school year is referred to as the academic session. It is divided into two regular terms (Fall and Winter) and special terms (Spring and Summer). Students normally take 15.5 credits per regular term in 93 credit, 120 credit and 123 credit programs and 15 credits per regular term in 60 credit programs.

EVALUATION PROCEDURES, GRADING AND APPEALS

At the beginning of each course, the instructor will announce the distribution of marking weight among term work and final examination, and the evaluation procedures to be used.

In grading, the faculty will not lose sight of the student as a whole person, but the emphasis in grading will be on academic achievement.

The grading system used at the University College is the Alberta Common Grading Scale, also known as the Alpha 4.00 Grading Scale. Grades have the following meanings:

Grade	Interpretation	Grade Points
A+	Excellent	4.00
A		4.00
A-		3.70
B+	Good	3.30
B		3.00
B-		2.70
C+	Satisfactory	2.30
C		2.00
C-		1.70
D+	Poor	1.30
D	Minimal Pass	1.00
F	Failure	0.00
FI	Failure, academic misconduct	0.00
AU	Audit
I	Incomplete
M	Full Year Course, No Mid-term Grade
N	Non-credit
PA/FA	Pass/Fail*
W	Withdraw from Course

*See "Pass/Fail Courses" in the Course Description section (page 99).

Because of the nature of the Alpha 4.00 system, there can be no uniform university-wide conversion scale. The relationship between raw scores and the resultant grade will depend on the nature of the course, and the instructor's assessment of the level of this class compared to similar classes that he/she has taught. An instructor may provide students with his/her own conversion scale that he/she has found useful as a guideline for distributing grades over the Alpha 4.00 scale.

AUDIT (AU)

A student may attend classes in a given course without receiving credit under the following conditions.

- Permission of the course instructor, or alternately the faculty dean, must be obtained and submitted to the Office of the Registrar on the "Permission to Audit" form. Note that obtaining instructor permission does not guarantee registration in that course.
- Priority is given to students registered for credit. Should a course be full and have a waitlist, auditors will be removed and may be added to the course only at the add/drop deadline.
- A student may audit a course or course component that is by its nature practical or applied, except for applied music, but in such cases the audit fee shall be the same as the normal tuition fee. Instructors may also impose other conditions on student participation in practical or applied components for safety reasons.
- A student who audits a course must attend at least 80% of the class sessions of that course to receive the audit notation on a transcript unless specific, written alternative arrangements are arrived at between the instructor and the student.
- A grade of AU is assigned for successful completion of the audit requirements. "Audit notation denied" appears for students who have not completed requirements. AW is assigned for students who withdraw from an audited course.
- Audited courses will not be considered as meeting pre- or corequisites for any course or program at The King's University College.

- A student may not audit any course which he or she has previously attempted for credit or audit.

The last day for changing a course from audit to credit is September 11, 2013, for the Fall term and January 15, 2014, for the Winter term. The last day to change from credit to audit is October 17, 2013, for the Fall term and February 26, 2014, for the Winter term. The last day to withdraw from an audited course is November 15, 2013 in the Fall and March 26, 2014 in the Winter.

INCOMPLETE (I)

If a student has made prior arrangements to complete course work after the end of the term, a professor may award an "Incomplete". An incomplete cannot be given for missing an examination. The student has up to four weeks after the end of classes to make up incomplete work. If the work is not completed by that time, a grade of zero will be awarded for the incomplete work and calculated into the final grade for the course. Incomplete agreement forms are available in the Office of the Registrar.

WITHDRAWAL FROM COURSES (W)

If a student decides not to complete a course after the seventh class day of each term he or she may withdraw from the course.

A student can withdraw from a course by withdrawing in the Office of the Registrar in person or online using their OnLine Registry Services. A student wishing to withdraw completely from the University College must fill out a "Notification of Withdrawal" form available in the Office of the Registrar and surrender their student identification card.

The student's Statement of Results and transcript will note "W" for the withdrawn course. The "W" is not computed in the GPA and carries no academic penalty. The student should consult the "Fees" section of the calendar under "Obtaining a Refund" on page 30 to determine if he or she qualifies for a refund. Normally full-time students will not be allowed to withdraw from foundations or Interdisciplinary Studies courses. If a student stops attending classes but does not complete a "Course Withdrawal" form, his or her statement of results and transcript will note a grade for the course based on the work done relative to the requirements of the course.

GRADE APPEAL PROCESS

The grading policies of the University College are based on the assumption that normally the classroom instructor is best able to evaluate the performance of the student. However, the University College has the responsibility of ensuring that proper grading practices and procedures are safeguarded, and the grade appeal process is a way of balancing responsibilities.

If a student believes that his or her grade for an assignment or test, or final mark for a course is not right, the student should speak to the course instructor within 30 days of receiving the grade or mark in question if possible, indicating what seems wrong.

If consultation with the instructor is not possible or fails to resolve the disagreement, the student may, within 30 days of consulting with the instructor, or within 30 days of receiving the grade if such consultation is not possible, present a written appeal to the Vice President Academic. The appeal should state the mark or grade in question, the grounds for the appeal and the remedy sought. Acceptable grounds are such things as a procedural error, failure to consider all relevant factors, an error in marking or computing a mark, bias or discrimination, etc.

If there appear to be sufficient grounds for the appeal, the Vice President Academic will consult with the instructor in question, and with the applicable Faculty Dean as required. In the case of an assignment or exam grade, the Vice President Academic may arrange for another qualified academic to re-grade the assignment. In the case of a final course mark, the Vice President Academic will review the mark distribution and computation with the instructor to see that proper procedures were used in assigning the mark.

If the procedure suggests that the student's grade or mark should be changed, the Vice President Academic will arrange for the change with the Registrar. Whether the appeal is upheld or denied, the Vice President Academic will inform the student and the instructor of the outcome, and the Vice President Academic's decision shall be final.

CHALLENGE EXAMS

A student who feels that he or she may have prior learning or experience equivalent to a course offered by the University College may apply to write a challenge exam, subject to the following regulations.

1. Students should apply to write a Challenge Exam prior to the beginning of the term in which the course in question is normally offered. Students must successfully complete a Challenge Exam prior to the Add/Drop deadline of that term.
2. Only full-time King's students may apply to take a challenge exam.

3. Challenge exams cannot be taken for any course the student has previously audited or taken for credit and failed.
4. Students must obtain permission from the Registrar to take a challenge exam (forms are available in the Office of the Registrar). The Registrar will consult with the faculty member affected as to the applicability of the student's background to the course to be challenged.
5. In applying for a challenge exam based on non-credit study at another institution, the student may be required to provide an official transcript and other documentation including one or more of the following: course outlines, course descriptions and a list of textual materials.
6. In applying for a challenge exam for work-related experience, the student shall provide documentation describing the nature and duration of the work experience and the name of a reference from the place of employment.
7. In challenging courses with lab components, a student is required to demonstrate sufficient applied experience to approximate the lab.
8. A fee of one-half the regular course tuition must be paid upon approval of the request and prior to the administration of the exam.
9. Students must achieve a grade of at least C- in order to receive credit for a course being challenged and to have the course and grade registered on their transcripts.
10. A course may be challenged only once.
11. No more than twelve credits may be earned by any student through challenge exams except for the B.Ed. program where 9 credits may be earned. Advanced and challenged course credits combined cannot exceed a maximum of 60 credits toward graduation requirements for all programs except for the B.Ed. program where 9 credits may be used toward graduation requirements.

REPEATING A COURSE

Students may repeat any course they have failed or passed. All attempts at the course and the resulting grade will be recorded on the Statement of Results and Transcript but only the highest grade will be used in Grade Point Average (GPA) calculations except for term GPA's.

ATTENDANCE

The University College expects students to attend all classes, seminars and laboratory periods. Part of a student's responsibility in contributing to the community of the University College is his or her contribution to and participation in each class. Students should note that some classes (e.g., Physical Education activity courses, Choir) have minimum attendance requirements.

Students auditing a course must attend at least 80% of the lectures.

ACCOMMODATION FOR DISABILITIES

Information and assistance is available to students who have, or suspect they may have, a disability which would affect their academic performance or physical wellbeing at King's. Please see page 47 in the Student Life section of the calendar for more information.

TESTS AND EXAMINATIONS

Tests and examinations are attempts to establish how well students have mastered the subjects being examined, and the effectiveness of the examining procedure depends on an instructor getting a clear indication of a student's achievement during the course. Thus the effectiveness of the procedure is based on the trust or confidence which everyone must have in the process, including students, instructors and those who must evaluate students' capabilities at a later date, based on their academic performance. Anything which would undermine that trust is a threat to the value of a student's education, and the following procedures and policies are intended to protect the security and reliability of the examination procedure in the spirit of the following section on Scholarly Ethics.

TESTS

Instructors may give intra-term tests, commonly called mid-terms, during any regular lecture or laboratory period except during the last week of classes of each term. Laboratory exams and music juries may be scheduled in the last week of classes up to the first day of final exams. If a student is absent from an intra-term test without excuse, the grade assigned to him or her will be zero. Students who are prevented from taking an intra-term test by illness or other extreme circumstances may request to take an alternate test at a later date, presenting to the instructor, in the case of illness, a physician's note which indicates that the student was unable to attend class on the day in question, using such wording as "In my opinion [the student] was unable to take an exam on...". A general note indicating that the student has simply seen a physician will not be sufficient. At the instructor's discretion, a student who misses an intra-term test for a valid reason may be excused from writing an intra-term test, and the missed test will not be included in the calculation of the final grade.

FINAL EXAMS

The dates for the Final Examination Week are listed in the Academic Schedule on page 7.

Final exams must be taken at the time specified in the official exam schedule. Students will not be scheduled to write more than three final exams in a 24-hour period. Final exams must be written in official exam booklets distributed by the instructor at the time of the exam. In no case may a student substitute another booklet for the one distributed at the time of the exam.

If a student is prevented from writing a final exam by illness or other extreme circumstances, the student must apply to the Registrar for exemption or alternate exam. In the case of illness, the student must present a completed "Physician's Statement for Missed Final Exams" form (available in the Office of the Registrar) to the Office of the Registrar which indicates that the student was unable to write the exam on the day in question. A general note indicating that the student has simply seen a physician will not be sufficient.

If the Registrar determines that the student's excuse is valid, he or she will notify the instructor who may exempt the student from writing the final exam or may require the student to take an alternate exam normally scheduled during the final exam period. If a student is absent from a final exam without a valid excuse, the grade assigned to him or her will be zero. If an exemption is granted, the final exam will not be used in calculating the student's final grade.

Final exams will not make up more than 40% of the course grade, except in the case of private music instruction, where the final exam may be weighted up to 50%. In no case will supplemental exams be given.

Students must not finalize plans for departure from Edmonton during Examinations Week until they have received the final examination schedule (early October for the Fall term; early February for the Winter term).

Students must not make travel plans which conflict with their final exam schedule.

The Registrar will not normally consider booking transportation out of Edmonton before all exams are complete as a valid excuse for missing a final exam.

SCHOLARLY ETHICS AND ACADEMIC HONESTY

PREAMBLE

The King's University College community is based on the biblical concept of community and mutual trust. All members of the University College community are called upon to share the ideal of Christian community. All are equal in their worth as God's creatures, and all are liable to discipline. Every effort must be made to avoid an adversarial relationship, especially between students and University College personnel, and every effort must be made to restore trust when it is broken.

By Charter, student discipline is fundamentally a responsibility of the Senate, and it is by delegation that University College personnel and committees deal with it.

Regulations regarding student discipline should accomplish two things. They should preserve an infracting student's dignity as much as possible while calling that student to account, and they should be redemptive in nature, calculated to restore an offending student to a proper relation with the rest of the community.

Normally a first case of confirmed academic dishonesty for a student will result in a zero being assigned for the test, exam or assignment. A second confirmed case for a given student will normally result in a zero being assigned for the course in which the case was discovered. A third confirmed case will normally result in a zero being assigned for the course and a suspension policy will normally apply. This means that the student will be suspended from King's for a minimum of 12 months and any post-secondary credits completed elsewhere during the suspension period will not be transferable to King's. The student will not be permitted to withdraw from the course in which a second or subsequent case is discovered. Any subsequent academic offense may result in permanent expulsion.

The regulations that follow should be seen as exceptional measures to deal with exceptional cases. Most problems of student adherence to University College standards should be resolved between two people or at most with the Registrar, Vice President Student Development or Vice President Academic. Only in extreme or unresolved cases should the Discipline Committee be required to convene.

If the principles of trust and mutual accountability are worth anything, they are worth the extra trouble represented in a loving and caring attempt to resolve differences on the simplest level. Only when this attempt fails or when the offense is severe and clearly against the whole institution should the following policy be implemented.

ACADEMIC OFFENSES

The following offenses are infractions of the scholar's ethical code and are liable to punishment under the University College's disciplinary code.

Cheating

- obtaining information or material from other students or from another unauthorized source during an exam,
- passing information or material to another student during an exam,
- permitting another student to observe answers during an exam, or
- possessing or attempting to acquire or distribute unauthorized material relating to an exam.

Plagiarism

- representing another's work in whole or in part as one's own in an exam or paper,
- knowingly including a false statement or reference as if it were true, or
- submission by the student of the work prepared for a different course without the express consent of the instructor.

Other Academic Offenses

- tampering or attempting to tamper with examinations, class work, grades or class records;
- failure to abide by directions given by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in;
- the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment;
- the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports;
- the non-authorized recording of lectures;
- failure to obtain approval, permission, or to otherwise follow procedures, as required by the University College as outlined in the University College Calendar.

Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offenses is also guilty of academic misconduct.

DISCIPLINE POLICY

The discipline procedure should be followed only in exceptional circumstances that cannot be resolved by dialogue between those involved, or at most, with the Registrar, Vice President Student Development or Vice President Academic.

Discipline Committee

The Discipline Committee is a standing University College committee, with male and female representatives, established to adjudicate matters of student behavior. This committee is composed of the following members appointed by the President:

1. Three representatives of the student body, elected by the Student Association.
2. The Vice President Academic, the Registrar and the Vice President Student Development.
3. A member of the Senate not employed by The King's University College or registered at the University College as a student, to serve as Chairperson.

Procedures

1. Any person believing that a student has committed a serious academic offense may notify the Vice President Academic in writing, whereupon the Vice President Academic will conduct a preliminary investigation to see if there are sufficient grounds for the charge. The Vice President Academic will then inform the Chairperson of the standing committee.
2. The Chairperson, upon deciding that there are sufficient grounds for a charge, shall convene a hearing for the student concerned during which the charges are heard. Both the student charged and the party or parties bringing the charge shall be present at the hearing.

Any person believing that a student has committed a non-academic offense against University College rules should refer to the terms of the student handbook.

Appeals

A party who feels that the issue has not been fairly resolved has the right to appeal the decision to the Senate through the office of the President. The Senate shall then appoint an Appeal Board to hear the appeal. The Appeal Board shall include one member of the faculty or staff of the University College, one community member, and three students, one of whom may be selected by the student charged.

Penalties

The Discipline Committee, by delegation of authority from the Senate, is empowered to take appropriate disciplinary action, including the levying of fines, suspension, expulsion, or an alteration of the student's applicable marks and academic standing. Recommendation for expulsion must be approved by the Senate. Every attempt shall be made in dealing with an offense to preserve the integrity of the University College's regulations and the student's dignity.

NOTIFICATION OF RESULTS

After each term, students may view their results through their online services (registry.kingsu.ca). A single copy of a printed statement of results may also be requested by the student. In the event, however, that the student has outstanding fees (owing to the University College or the Bookstore), application documents, library materials, or disciplinary or property fines owing to the University College, his or her statement of results will be withheld pending settlement of the account. All certification of a student's record (including degrees, diplomas and transcripts) will be withheld until amounts owing to the University College are paid in full and/or University College property assigned to the student has been returned and/or all official documents have been received in the Office of the Registrar. In addition, registration in future terms may be withheld, at the discretion of the Registrar.

ACADEMIC STANDING REGULATIONS

ACADEMIC CRITERIA

At the conclusion of each term, academic standing is determined for all students. Students' average grades are calculated based on all King's courses in order to determine their academic standing.

For all students registered in at least nine credits, academic performance is classified according to the standards and has the implications noted in the tables following.

Academic Performance Classification

	Program	Criteria by Grade Point Average:
		Term	Cumulative
Outstanding:	B.Ed.	at least 3.70 with no failing grades
	All other programs	at least 3.50 with no failing grades
Acceptable:	B.Ed.	at least 2.70
	B.A. or B.Sc. in Environmental Studies	at least 2.50	3rd year: at least 1.60 4th year: at least 2.00
	All other 4 year programs	at least 2.00	3rd year: at least 1.60 4th year: at least 2.00
	All 3 year programs	at least 2.00	2nd year: at least 1.60 3rd year: at least 2.00
Marginal:	B.Ed.	at least 1.70 but less than 2.70
	B.A. or B.Sc. in Environmental Studies	at least 1.70 but less than 2.50	3rd year: at least 1.60 but less than 2.00 4th year: at least 1.60 but less than 2.00
	All other 4 year programs	at least 1.70 but less than 2.00	3rd year: at least 1.60 but less than 2.00 4th year: at least 1.60 but less than 2.00
	All 3 year programs	at least 1.70 but less than 2.00	2nd year: at least 1.60 3rd year: at least 2.00
Unsatisfactory	B.Ed.	less than 1.70
	B.A. or B.Sc. in Environmental Studies	less than 1.70	3rd year: less than 1.30 4th year: less than 1.60
	All other 4 year programs	less than 1.70	3rd year: less than 1.30 4th year: less than 1.60
	All 3 year programs	less than 1.70	2nd year: less than 1.30 3rd year: less than 1.60

Academic Performance Implications

	Implications
Outstanding:	A student with outstanding achievement will be awarded Honors standing and receive written recognition of his or her performance. A notation will also appear on the student's transcript.
Acceptable:	A student achieving acceptable achievement is academically eligible to continue studies at the University College.
Marginal:	A student with marginal achievement may continue studies at the University College either under Academic Warning or on Academic Probation. A student who is on academic warning or on academic probation for two consecutive terms may be required to withdraw from the University College. A notation will appear on the student's transcript.
Unsatisfactory:	A student with unsatisfactory standing at the end of the Fall term may continue at the University College for the Winter term on Probation with a 9.5 credit restriction. The student must have Acceptable achievement for the Winter term or she or she will normally be required to withdraw from the University College. A student with unsatisfactory standing at the end of the Winter term will normally be required to withdraw from the University College. A notation will appear on the student's transcript.

NOTES AND ADDITIONAL ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

1. The year of study referred to in the academic performance charts is as of the end of the term being assessed.
2. A student who has been required to withdraw from the University College will not be considered for re-admission until two regular terms of study have elapsed.
3. A student who has been required to withdraw from another post-secondary institution normally will not be admitted to The King's University College until two regular terms of study have expired.
4. A student who has been admitted on probation may be required to meet specific conditions as well as those required of all other full-time students.
5. Any student having been placed on academic warning or probation or who has been asked to withdraw may appeal to their Faculty Dean within 30 days of receiving notice. After a successful meeting with the Faculty Dean the student must submit a signed "Confirmation of Conference" form to the Office of the Registrar. Academic standing will be changed once the student registers in courses and the tuition deposit is paid. Academic Warning is a cautionary status but carries no course registration restriction. Academic Probation requires that students restrict their registration to less than a full load as specified in their academic standing letter.
6. Also see "Academic Standing" on page 70.

TRANSFER TO OTHER INSTITUTIONS

The University College does not offer distinct transfer programs as such, although it continues to maintain the transferability of most of its courses. While at The King's University College, all students are registered in a University College program and must meet University College program requirements.

Students planning to transfer to other institutions should be aware of the specific program requirements at the institutions to which they plan to transfer.

For information on transfer to The King's University College from other institutions see regulations under the section on Admissions, Previous Post-Secondary on page 18 and Transfer Credit on page 22.

Duly negotiated Alberta transfer arrangements are recorded annually in the Alberta Transfer Guide published by the:

Alberta Council on Admissions and Transfer
 11th Floor, Commerce Place
 10155 - 102 Street
 Edmonton, AB T5J 4L5
 Phone: 422-9021

The Alberta Transfer Guide is also online at www.transferralberta.ca.

ACADEMIC LEAVE

A student in good academic standing may apply to take an academic leave of up to one academic year. Students who apply for approved off-campus programs will be automatically granted academic leave for the duration of that program.

Students on academic leave are required to request permission for any courses taken elsewhere during that leave prior to taking those courses. Students on academic leave are restricted from taking courses elsewhere that we are offering during the period of the leave. Students on academic leave are also responsible to ensure that they continue to meet the requirements of their program at King's.

Students not on leave who fail to register by relevant deadlines for a regular academic term lose their student status and must reapply for admission. Re-admission is not guaranteed.

There may be financial implications as a result of taking academic leave; students are advised to consult with the Manager of Financial Aid and the Office of the Registrar in advance.

Forms to apply for Academic Leave are available at the Office of the Registrar.

STUDENT RECORDS

Documents submitted to The King's University College become the property of the University College. Neither the originals nor copies will be released to the student or anyone outside the University College. The applications, transcripts and other supporting documents of applicants who are not admitted or who do not attend may be destroyed at the discretion of the Registry. If a student wishes to reapply, a new set of documents may be required.

The University College assumes the responsibility for the safekeeping and confidentiality of student records. No private information of any kind concerning any student will be released without specific written permission by the student, either by the application form declaration or separate authorization. Exceptions are: inquiries whether or not the student is currently attending the University College ("yes" or "no"), in the case of an emergency, in response to a formal inquiry by police or justice officials, or by permission of the Registrar in exceptional circumstances. Students have access to all information in their student files except to material for which they have waived access.

Public information, such as the awarding of a degree, may also be released in response to inquiry.

TRANSCRIPTS

Official transcripts are issued only upon the request of the student. Transcripts must be requested by the student in writing and must include the student's signature, address, and phone number, the number of copies required and the address in which to mail them. Official transcripts are not issued to a student; they will be sent directly to the institution or agency designated by the student. Students may also request transcripts online through the OnLine Registry Services (registry.kingsu.ca).

GRADUATION

Degrees are conferred twice each year by King's Senate: in January and in May. Spring Convocation is held once a year on the Saturday following the last Winter term Final Examination. All students planning to graduate from any program must submit a completed "Application to Graduate" form to the Office of the Registrar by October 31 for January conferral or by December 15 for the May conferral. "Application to Graduate" forms are available in the Office of the Registrar. The "Application to Graduate" must be completed in full including the student's signature and be accompanied by the current graduation fee. Late "Applications to Graduate" for the May conferral will be accepted until the last day in February accompanied by a current late graduation fee.

The application fee is assessed for all graduands regardless of their attendance at the Convocation. As well, applicants who have previously applied to graduate must also pay the fee.

It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that his/her name appears on the graduation list.

In order to graduate a candidate must fulfill all program requirements as listed under Programs of Study.

To participate in the Spring Convocation, a student needs to show promise of satisfying all program requirements by the end of the Winter term prior to the convocation. Students are strongly encouraged not to take courses elsewhere during the Winter term prior to the convocation. Students who are completing requirements elsewhere must have final official transcripts submitted to the Office of the Registrar by November 30 for January conferral or March 31 for May conferral. Students not submitting transcripts by the deadline will not be permitted to participate in the Spring Convocation and will need to reapply for degree conferral in the following year.

Holders of a three year degree from King's who are completing a four-year degree of the same kind and in the same subject who participated in a Spring Convocation for the three year degree may not participate in a Spring Convocation for the four year degree.

Candidates for Graduation must participate in the Convocation rehearsal to participate in the ceremony.

All certification of a student's record (including degrees, diplomas and transcripts) will be withheld until amounts owing to the University College are paid in full and/or University College property assigned to the student has been returned and/or documents required by the University College are received.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS

Normally, a student in the B.A. or B.Sc. (3-year) program must complete at least 33 credits at The King's University College. Normally, a student in a four-year program must spend at least two full years to complete that program. These two years consist of 60 credits in programs requiring a total of 120 credits, 63 credits in programs requiring 123 credits, and 72 credits in programs requiring 132 credits. A student in the B.Ed. program must normally take at least 51 credits at King's. Also, each student must normally take at least 18 credits of the last 30 credits in the program at King's.

Transfer credit will be granted for no more than 60 credits toward B.A., B.Sc., B.Com. or B.Mus. graduation requirements and 9 credits toward B.Ed. graduation requirements.

Students must have completed 50% of their major/first concentration and minor/second concentration at The King's University College.

SENIOR LEVEL CREDITS

A minimum of 42 credits of 300- and 400-level courses are required for a 3-year B.A. or B.Sc. and a minimum of 72 credits of 300- and 400-level courses are required for a 4-year B.A., B.Sc., or B.Com. and a minimum of 75 credits of 300- and 400-level courses are required for a 4-year B.Mus.

Grade Point Average Requirements for Graduation: These averages are calculated on the last 60 credits.

Degree	Overall	Major and Concentration	With Distinction
Bachelor of Arts (93 credits)	2.00	2.00	3.50
Bachelor of Arts (120/123 credits)	2.00	2.00	3.50
Bachelor of Arts in Environmental Studies	2.50	2.50	3.50
Bachelor of Science (93 credits)	2.00	2.00	3.50
Bachelor of Science (123 credits)	2.00	2.00	3.50
Bachelor of Science in Environmental Studies	2.50	2.50	3.50
Bachelor of Commerce (123 credits)	2.00	2.00	3.50
Bachelor of Music (132 credits)	2.00	2.00	3.50
Bachelor of Education	2.70	2.70	3.70
Diploma of Church Music	2.00	2.00	3.50

PROGRAMS OF STUDY

INTRODUCTION

The King's University College offers the following programs. The date of accreditation appears in parentheses.

- three-year Bachelor of Arts degree (March 1987) with concentrations in biology, chemistry, English, history, music, philosophy, psychology, social science group, sociology and theology
- four-year Bachelor of Arts degree with majors in English (July 1999), environmental studies (June 1995), history (2006), music (April 2000), Politics, History and Economics (March 2004) and psychology (June 1998)
- three-year Bachelor of Science degree (January 1988) with concentrations in biology and chemistry
- four-year Bachelor of Science degree with majors in biology (July 2000), chemistry (April 2000), computing science (February 2000) and environmental studies (June 1995)
- four-year Bachelor of Commerce degree (April 2000)
- four-year Bachelor of Music degree (April 2000)
- two-year Bachelor of Education (After Degree) in elementary education (September 1994) and secondary education (March 2008)

The University College also offers Diplomas and Certificates:

- University Certificate in Drama and the Environment
- University Certificate in Education and the Environment
- University Certificate in Micah Studies
- University Diploma in Church Music
- Performer's Post-Baccalaureate Certificate
- Artist's Post-Baccalaureate Diploma

King's 4-year Bachelor of Science with a major in Chemistry is also accredited by the Canadian Society for Chemistry (CSC). CSC is the national professional association representing the field of chemistry and the interests of chemists in industry, academia and government. Please see:

www.chemistry.ca/2/6/9/2/index1.shtml.

The Bachelor of Arts in Environmental Studies and the Bachelor of Science in Environmental Studies are also accredited by Environmental Careers Organization (ECO) Canada, the certifying body of the Canadian Environmental Accreditation Commission (CEAC).

In addition to reading the information below, students must talk with their faculty advisors prior to registration.

In designing programs of study, students should note the following normal academic loads.

- certificates - 18-24 credits per year
- diplomas - 18-30 credits per year
- three-year B.A. or B.Sc. - 31 credits per year
- four-year B.A. (except as listed below), B.Sc., B.Com. - 31 credits per year for the first three years and 30 credits in the fourth year
- four-year B.A. in English and psychology - 30 credits per year
- four-year B.Mus. - 33 credits per year
- two-year B.Ed. program and the Diploma of Church Music - 30 credits per year

Students who wish to register in more than 17.9 credits in a given term, not including 0.5 credit INST courses, must submit a completed "Course Overload" form to the Office of the Registrar (forms are available in the Office of the Registrar).

All students must follow King's general education requirements and degree regulations whether they plan to transfer or intend on finishing a degree at The King's University College.

COMPLETION PROMISE

King's is committed to ensuring that students can enroll in a set of courses that will allow them to graduate. This commitment depends upon the student doing all that is necessary at the optimum/appropriate times as indicated in the Calendar. Students must have enrolled in appropriate programs (changes to program after the second year may not be considered), completed appropriate prerequisites, and requested courses from a full range of the possible options that would allow them to complete their program and degree. Students must have participated in early registration and appear on the waitlist for the relevant courses. If students who have met these conditions find themselves unable to register in a required course they should contact the Registrar's office prior to the add/drop deadline for the relevant term. The Registrar's office will contact the relevant faculty Dean to arrange for space in the course or grant permission to take the course elsewhere.

GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

The general education program at King's is designed to include three modes of learning or knowing: foundations, breadth, and skills. Concentrations are intended to address the fourth mode, depth.

FOUNDATIONS

The Foundations courses have the objective of enabling students to understand the underlying structures of reality and discourse, to develop a Christian perspective on learning aimed at transforming culture, and to perceive that human beings actually make decisions that set the direction of their culture. Such courses should enable students to see that the various disciplines are ways of studying different aspects of creation. They should also prepare students to articulate a biblical model of the relation between faith and learning. Student's should learn how one's faith commitment relates with learning and research. Such courses should also help students gain a historically informed, linguistically capable, critical and appreciative understanding of the "isms" of the age (e.g., relativism, naturalism, reductionism, etc.) which have shaped our culture's understanding of the academic enterprise and generated certain issues and problems common to all or several disciplines.

Foundations Requirements

B.A., B.Com. and B.Mus. Foundations

All B.A., B.Com. and B.Mus. students must normally take at least 12 foundations credits, including six credits in English, in their first 30 credits; all B.A. (except 4-year Music) and B.Com. students must normally take at least 24 foundations credits within the first 60 credits. Four-year B.A. Music and B.Mus. students must normally take at least 24 foundations credits within the first 90 credits.

Students may normally take 300-level courses only after having completed one full year of 200-level study (at least 24 credits) or equivalent. CMPT 302, MUSI 306, STAT 300 and THEO 310 may be taken in the first year if the relevant prerequisite is completed.

Pre-education students may use EDUC 300 to meet three credits of the philosophy foundations requirement. Music students may use THEO/MUSI376 to meet 3 credits of the theology foundations requirement.

B.A., B.Com., and B.Mus. Foundations Courses

ENGL 204 and 205	6 credits
HIST 202 and 204	6 credits
PHIL 230 and one other philosophy course (except 221, 310, 311) or EDUC 300 (pre-education students only)	6 credits
THEO 250 and 3 credits of THEO 310, 331, 342, 351, 353, 364, 370, 371, 373, 375, 380 or THEO/MUSI 376 (Music students only)	6 credits

B.A. Environmental Studies Foundations Courses

ENGL 204 and 205	6 credits
HIST 202 or 204 and HIST 359	6 credits
PHIL 230 and 320	6 credits
THEO 250 and 370	6 credits

Students with a concentration in Business Administration must take THEO 250 and one of THEO 310, 370 or 380

B.Sc. Foundations

All B.Sc. students must normally take at least 12 foundations credits, including six credits in English, in their first 30 credits and the remainder by completion of their programs.

B.Sc. Foundations Courses

ENGL 204 and 205	6 credits
HIST 202 or 204	3 credits
PHIL 230	3 credits
THEO 250	3 credits
Two additional courses, in two of the following disciplines:	6 credits

1. PHIL (except 221, 310, 311) or EDUC 300 (pre-education students only)
2. HIST
3. THEO (one of 310, 331, 342, 351, 353, 364, 370, 371, 373, 375, 380)

B.Sc. Environmental Studies Foundations Courses

ENGL 204 and 205	6 credits
HIST 202 or 204 and HIST 359	6 credits

B.Sc. Environmental Studies Foundations Courses

PHIL 230 and 320	6 credits
THEO 250 and 370	6 credits

University Diploma in Church Music Foundations

All Diploma students must normally take at least 12 foundations credits, including six credits in English, in their first 30 credits.

ENGL 204 and 205	6 credits
At least 3 credits in each subject	18 credits
History,
Philosophy: excluding PHIL 221, 310, 311
Theology: only THEO 250, 310, 331, 342, 351, 353, 364, 370, 371, 373, 375, 380; THEO/MUSI 376
(Music students only)

Foundations Exceptions

Exceptions to foundations requirements may be granted to students in individual cases only by a student's Faculty Dean.

BREADTH

Breadth courses have the objective of providing students with the broad range of approaches to reality that is the classic goal of a baccalaureate degree. These courses balance disciplinary rigor with making students familiar with the aspect of creation represented by the discipline. This kind of course provides the general context of a student's education.

Breadth Requirements

The fine arts or language other than English breadth requirement may be met with the following courses: any art course; any art history course; any drama course; CMNA 350, 395, 396; ENGL 391, 398, 498; any music course; any language other than English course.

The natural science (with lab) breadth requirement may be met with the following courses: any astronomy course; any biology course with a lab; any chemistry course with a lab; CMPT 250; GEOG 201; PHYS 241, 243.

In the Bachelor of Arts in Environmental Studies program, students may select one of two groups of courses:

Group A: 9 credits of BIOL 210, 211, 330, CHEM 200, 201 (must include at least 3 credits of BIOL and 3 credits of CHEM)

Group B: CHEM 290, GEOG 201, 6 credits of BIOL 210, 211, ASTR 200, 210

The social science breadth requirement may be met with the following courses: any economics course except

ECON 331; EDUC 363; GEOG 310; any political science course except POLI 373; any sociology course, any psychology course except PSYC 327, 370, 375, 385 and PSYC 477.

In the Environmental Studies program, students must take the following social science courses.

- 3 credits of ECON 201, 202
- 3 credits of POLI 205
- all of ECON 315, POLI 327

INTERDISCIPLINARY REQUIREMENT (INST)

Students must complete 1 credit of INST within their first 31 credits, 2 credits within their first 62 credits, and 3 credits within their first 93 credits. These are delivered as a 0.5 credit INST course in conjunction with the Interdisciplinary Studies Conference held each term.

SKILLS

Skills instruction provides the technical abilities that all students need to succeed in their studies. As might be expected in a liberal arts and science institution, relatively few courses focus primarily on the acquisition of skills. Typically, the acquisition of skills is a by-product or accompaniment of the fuller process of education represented by most courses. Skill instruction is a component in all general education courses. Skills such as academic writing, critical thinking, researching, computer applications, and public presentation are developed in foundations and breadth courses, and students have the opportunity in breadth courses to acquire basic skills in dramatic or musical performance, science lab functions, numeracy, etc. General skills courses required in certain concentrations, majors, or degrees are included in program descriptions.

MAJOR/FIRST CONCENTRATION REQUIREMENTS

All students in the B.A. and B.Sc. (3-year) programs must take a minimum of 24 credits within their first concentration. There are three exceptions to this: psychology and sociology require a minimum of 27 credits and the social science group requires a minimum of 36 credits.

All students in the B.A. (4-year) program must take a minimum of 45 credits within their major. There are three exceptions to this: history requires 51 credits, politics, history and economics requires 75 credits and psychology requires 48 credits.

All students in the B.A. and B.Sc. (4-year) environmental studies program must take a minimum of 24 credits within their concentration. There are a few exceptions to this: the B.A. with a concentration in history or psychology requires a minimum of 27 credits, the B.A. with a concentration in sociology requires 30 credits, the B.A. with a concentration in the social science group or economics and politics requires a minimum of 39 credits and the B.A. with a concentration in sociology requires a minimum of 30 credits. The B.Sc. with a concentration in computing science requires a minimum of 27 credits and the B.Sc. with a concentration in chemistry requires a minimum of 30 credits.

All students in the B.Sc. (4-year) program must take a minimum of 42 credits within the biology major and 45 credits within the chemistry major and the computing science major.

All students in the B.Com. (4-year) program must take a minimum of 60 credits within their major.

All students in the B.Mus. (4-year) program must take a minimum of 87 credits within their major.

Courses meeting Foundation or Breadth requirements may also meet a student's Major/First Concentration requirements.

MINOR/SECOND CONCENTRATION REQUIREMENTS

Minors are available in the B.A. (4-year), B.Sc. (4-year) and the B.Com. (4-year). Second concentrations are available in the B.A. and B.Sc. (3-year).

In the B.Mus. (4-year), although there is not enough room in the 132 credits to complete a minor, a student may complete a minor with course work beyond the 132 credits.

A minor is not available in the B.A. and B.Sc. (4-year) environmental studies programs.

For all Minors/Second Concentrations:

- Follow the requirements for a Minor/Second Concentration as listed on page 92. See the notes on the chart to determine which Minors/Second Concentrations can be completed with which program.
- Of the minimum 18 credits required for a Minor/Second Concentration, 12 credits must be at the 300-level or above, with the exceptions of music, communication arts and computing science.
- Courses meeting Foundation or Breadth requirements may also meet a student's Minor/Second Concentration requirement.
- Cognate requirements are separate from Minor/Second Concentration requirements and are not counted in the Second Concentration/Minor credit totals.

- A course used in a major/first concentration cannot also be used in a Minor/Second Concentration.

DEGREE PROGRAMS

ACCREDITATION

The degrees offered by the University College have been accredited upon recommendation by the Campus Alberta Quality Council (formerly Alberta Private Colleges Accreditation Board) to the Minister of Advanced Education. The University College has been authorized to grant the B.A., B.Sc., B.Com., B.Mus. and B.Ed. by the Orders in Council signed by the Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Alberta on the recommendation of the Minister of Advanced Education, under the Post Secondary Learning Act, 2004 and the Approval of Programs of Study Regulation (51/2004).

GENERAL DEGREE PROGRAM REGULATIONS

Declaring a Concentration/Major

All students are asked to choose a degree and an area of concentration/major when applying to the University College. The student, in consultation with his/her advisor, may change the declared area of concentration/major prior to the beginning of the third year of study.

Open Electives

These are courses that are not subject to program requirements and that a student may choose freely. These electives are, of course, subject to 200-level course limitations. (See below.)

Professional Courses

No more than 18 credits deemed to be of a professional nature shall be presented to meet requirements for the B.A., B.Sc. or B.Mus. EDUC 300 and 363 have been designated arts courses and thus are not covered by this regulation. All other education courses and all business courses are covered by this regulation.

200- and 300-Level Courses

A B.A., B.Sc., B.Com. or B.Mus. student must normally take only 200-level courses, sometimes called junior-level courses, in the first year of study. Exceptions include STAT 300; THEO 310 which may be taken in the first year if a student has completed THEO 250; MUSI 306 which may be taken in the first year if a student has completed MUSI 216 and 217; BUSI 355 which may be taken in the first year if a student has completed BUSI 253; CMPT 302 may be taken in the first year if a student has completed CMPT 275.

A minimum of 42 credits of 300- and 400-level courses are required for a 3-year B.A. or B.Sc. and a minimum of 72 credits of 300- and 400-level courses are required for a 4-year B.A., B.Sc. or B.Com. A minimum of 75 credits of 300- and 400-level courses are required for the B.Mus.

Cross-Listed Courses

See page 99.

Taking a Course at Another Institution

Students may be encouraged or desire to take certain courses at another institution. Such courses must constitute part of a coherent program for the student. All such courses, therefore, must be approved by the Registry Officer in advance. Normally students will not be permitted to take courses at another institution that are offered at King's. Students will be expected to take at least 50% of their major/first concentration, or minor/second concentration courses at King's.

Only students in good standing will be given permission to take courses elsewhere. Students will only be granted permission to take courses elsewhere such that the combination of King's and the external courses does not exceed a normal course load unless permission for a course overload is received (see page 66).

"Request to Enroll in a Course at Another Institution" forms are available in the Office of the Registrar.

Program Exceptions

Students who cannot complete programs as outlined in the effective calendar must complete a 'Request for Program Exception' form. This form must fully explain the nature and terms of the exception requested as well as the grounds for the request. The request must make clear how the proposed exception still fulfills the intent of the original program regulations. This request must be recommended by the student's faculty advisor and Faculty Dean, and is subject to review and acceptance by the Registry. 'Request for Program Exception' forms are available in the Office of the Registrar.

Academic Standing

To be eligible for the B.A., B.Sc., B.Com. or B.Mus. degree, a student must achieve an overall average of at least 2.00, on the last 60 credits of study. A student must also achieve an overall average of at least 2.00 in his or her first subject of concentration or major. Students achieving an overall average of 3.50 or greater, on the last 60 credits of study, will be granted the degree "with distinction".

To be eligible for the B.A. or B.Sc. degree in Environmental Studies, a student must achieve an overall average of at least 2.50, on the last 60 credits of study. A student must also achieve an overall average of at least 2.50 in his or her major and first subject of concentration. Students achieving an overall average of 3.50 or greater, on the last 60 credits of study, will be granted the degree "with distinction".

To be eligible for the B.Ed. degree, a student must achieve an overall average of at least 2.70. Students achieving an overall average of 3.70 or greater will be granted the degree "with distinction".

Residency

Normally, a student in the 3-year B.A. or B.Sc. program must complete at least 33 credits at The King's University College. Normally, a student in a four-year program must spend at least two full years to complete that program. These two years consist of 60 credits in programs requiring a total of 120 credits, 63 credits in programs requiring 123 credits, and 72 credits in programs requiring 132 credits. A student in the B.Ed. program must normally take at least 51 credits at King's. Also, each student must normally take at least 18 credits of the last 30 credits in the program at King's.

Transfer credit will be granted for no more than 60 credits toward B.A., B.Sc., B.Com. or B.Mus. graduation requirements and 9 credits toward B.Ed. graduation requirements.

Program Regulations in Effect

Students are to follow the program regulations in the calendar for the year they were admitted. If a student changes to a program that did not exist at the time of their first admission, they are to follow the program regulations in the calendar for the first year that they were in the new program. Students may also choose to follow the program regulations of the calendar from the year of their graduation.

Students who interrupt their program for more than one regular term must follow the program regulations of the calendar current at the time they are readmitted.

All students must comply with all other regulations according to the current calendar.

COURSE SELECTION

New students should be guided in their course selection by the structured registration worksheets provided by the Office of the Registrar. Transfer students should use the 'Evaluation of Transfer Credit' to determine remaining requirements in their program. All students should use the program chart at the beginning of each degree program section below to assist them. All students are encouraged to contact their faculty advisor and/or the Enrolment Services office for program planning advice. Current students have access to Web based program advising reports (registry.kingsu.ca). This report lists courses taken, transfer credit received, program requirements fulfilled and remaining.

For more information regarding Course Selection please see "Registration" on page 24.

Call 1-800-661-8582 for registration advice.

BACHELOR OF ARTS (3-YEAR)

B.A. (3-year) Curriculum

Foundations Requirements

All students in the B.A. (3-year) program must choose 24 credits as listed under B.A. Foundations on page 67.

Breadth Requirements

To increase breadth, the University College requires all students in the B.A. (3-year) program to choose 18 credits as follows:

Fine Arts or Language Other than English	6 credits
Natural Sciences (with lab)	6 credits
Social Sciences	6 credits

See list of specific courses that meet these requirements on page 68.

Interdisciplinary Requirement

Six 0.5 credit courses of interdisciplinary study. See page 68 for further details.

Concentration Requirements

Students in the B.A. (3-year) program must choose a first subject of concentration and may choose a second subject. First subjects are available in the following:

- | | |
|-------------|------------------------|
| • Biology | • Philosophy |
| • Chemistry | • Psychology |
| • English | • Social Science Group |
| • History | • Sociology |
| • Music | • Theology |

No more than 6 credits of 200-level courses may be applied to meet concentration subject requirements except in music and the social science group concentration. Certain disciplines may have special cognate requirements which a student must meet for a first subject of concentration.

See "Minor/Second Concentrations" on page 92 for second concentration requirements.

Specific B.A. (3-year) First Concentration Requirements

See statement about declaring concentrations under General Degree Program Regulations on page 69.

Biology

- 24-42 credits including 210, 211, 395, 480, 494
- At least 3 credits of 320, 330
- At least 3 credits of 340, 342, 344
- Cognate requirement: CHEM 200, 201

Notes:

1. BIOL 200 and 204 meet the natural science breadth requirement for the B.A. but will not meet concentration requirements in biology.
2. Electives may be used to add biology concentration courses up to 42 credits or to make a second concentration.
3. Students who wish to enter professional schools of medicine, dentistry and veterinary science can meet the requirements of these schools while earning the B.A. degree with a concentration in biology. In some cases a 4-year program will be advantageous. See the pre-professional programs beginning on page 97.
4. See Au Sable listing of off-campus biology courses at the Au Sable website www.ausable.org.

Chemistry

- 24-42 credits including 200, 201, 350, 351, 395, 494
- Cognate requirement: 6 credits in MATH (not 281) and/or STAT

Notes:

1. CHEM 290 meets the natural science (with lab) breadth requirement for the B.A. but will not meet concentration requirements in chemistry.
2. Electives may be used to add chemistry concentration courses up to 42 credits or to make up a second concentration.
3. Students who wish to enter professional schools of medicine, dentistry and veterinary science can meet the requirements of those schools while earning the B.A. degree with a concentration in chemistry. In some cases a 4-year program will be advantageous. See Pre-Professional programs starting on page 97.

English

- 24-42 credits including 204, 205, 304, 305, 495
- At least 3 credits of 320, 380, 410, 430

Notes:

1. Students in the three-year English program normally may include one ENGL 499 course in their program.
2. Electives may be used to add English concentration courses up to 42 credits or to make up a second concentration.

History

- 27-42 credits including 202, 204, 371, 372
- At least 3 credits of North American history (351, 352, 360, 361, 460)
- At least 3 credits of European history (309, 314, 316, 318, 380)

- At least 3 credits of British History (344, 345, 347, 348)

Recommended Courses in Other Disciplines

At least 3 credits each in sociology, political science and economics.

Notes:

1. Electives may be used to add history concentration courses up to 42 credits or to make up a second concentration.
2. It is recommended that students take HIST 499.

Music

- 24-42 credits including 216, 217, 266, 267, 306, 495
- At least 6 credits of applied music
- At least 3 credits of 301, 302, 303, 304, 305
- At least 6 credits of music ensemble

Notes:

1. All new music students must register for MUSI 200. They have the option to pass a music theory test and drop MUSI 200 by the Fall Add/Drop deadline without penalty.
2. MUSI 205, 235, 255 and 285 meet the fine arts breadth requirement for the B.A. but will not meet concentration requirements in music.
3. A student wishing to receive the 2-year Diploma in Church Music together with the 3-year B.A. with a concentration in music must fulfill the requirements of the Diploma and complete at least 9 additional music credits beyond those of the degree requirements (102 credits).
4. All full-time students enrolled in 200-level and 300-level credit courses in music (individual instruction) must enroll in Choral Ensemble, Chamber Choir or Instrumental Ensemble as a corequisite (maximum 4 terms).
5. Electives may be used to add music concentration courses up to 42 credits or to make up a second concentration.

Philosophy

- 24-42 credits including 221, 230, 495
- At least 6 credits of historical courses (327, 332, 343, 345)
- At least 6 credits of topical courses (321, 322, 334, 339, 391)

Notes:

1. Students concentrating in philosophy are advised to take 221 and 230 in their first year. Appropriate combinations of philosophy courses will be suggested for students choosing philosophy as a second subject of concentration, in order to complement their first subjects.

2. Electives may be used to add philosophy concentration courses up to 42 credits or to make up a second concentration.

Psychology

- 27-42 credits including 250, 251, 301, 351, 398
- 6 credits of 340, 390, 395, 420
- 6 credits of 363, 375, 465, 473, 477

Notes:

1. PSYC 301 must normally be taken in the second year.
2. A recommended senior philosophy foundations course is PHIL 334.
3. It is recommended that students take PSYC 302.
4. A recommended breadth course is BIOL 200.
5. Electives may be used to add psychology concentration courses up to 42 credits, or to make a second concentration.
6. Students interested in advanced professional training or human services work after graduation are strongly encouraged to take PSYC 302 and relevant senior courses, for which PSYC 301/302 are a prerequisite.

Social Science Group

- At least 30 credits in at least three of the following disciplines: economics; educational psychology 363; geography 310; history; political science; psychology; sociology; or anthropology (by transfer credit)
- At least 15 credits in 300- and 400-level courses from at least two of the above disciplines
- SSCI 309, 495 (SSCI 309 must normally be taken in the second year of study).

Continuity Requirement:

One of the following requirements must be met:

- a. a student must be a declared social science student for at least three terms, or
- b. a student must take at least 9 credits in 300- and 400-level courses designated as providing a social science emphasis (at present, all 300- and 400-level courses in psychology, educational psychology (363), political science and sociology except PSYC 370.)

Program Limits:

There is no maximum number of courses in this group concentration.

Pre-Bachelor of Education students:

Recommended Courses:

Elementary Education:

GEOG 310, HIST 360, HIST 361, POLI 320, PSYC 251, PSYC 351, SOCI 201, SOCI 301 or 318, SSCI 309, SSCI 495

Secondary Education:

ECON 202, GEOG 310, HIST 360, HIST 361, POLI 320, POLI 380, SOCI 201, SOCI 301 or 318, SSCI 309, SSCI 495

Please see page 97 for details regarding Pre-Bachelor of Education program planning.

Additional SSCI Notes:

1. PHIL 334: Philosophy of the Sciences is desirable as well as courses in anthropology, which are not currently available at the University College.

2. Foundations history courses are also applied to the social science group concentration. Electives may be used to add social science concentration courses or to make up a non-social science second concentration.
3. Students with a first concentration in the social science group may only have a second concentration in a non-social science discipline.

Sociology

- 27-42 credits including 200, 201, 309, 332, 495 (SOCI 309 must normally be taken in the 2nd year of study)
- At least 3 credits of 301, 324, 345, 370
- At least 3 credits of 318, 319, 321, 360

Theology

- 24-42 credits including 250, 397, 495
- At least 6 credits of biblical courses (310, 342, 351, 353)
- At least 6 credits of theological courses (361, 364, 369, 370, 371, 373, 375, 380, 391)

BACHELOR OF ARTS

B.A. (4-year) Curriculum

Foundations Requirements

All students in the B.A. program must choose 24 credits as listed under B.A. Foundations on page 67.

Breadth Requirements

To increase breadth, the University College requires all students in the B.A. (4-year) program to choose 18 credits as follows:

Fine Arts or Language Other than English	6 credits
Social Sciences	6 credits
Natural Sciences (with lab)	6 credits

See list of specific courses that meet these requirements on page 68.

Interdisciplinary Requirement

Six 0.5 credit courses of interdisciplinary study. See page 68 for further details.

Major Requirements

Students in the B.A. (4-year) program must choose a major. Subjects are available in the following:

- English
- History
- Music
- Politics, History & Economics
- Psychology

No more than 6 credits of 200-level courses may be applied to meet major subject requirements, except in Music and Politics, History & Economics. Certain disciplines may have special cognate requirements which a student must meet.

Professional Accreditation

The Bachelor of Arts in Environmental Studies is accredited by Environmental Careers Organization (ECO) Canada, the certifying body of the Canadian Environmental Accreditation Commission (CEAC).

B.A. (4-year) in Environmental Studies Curriculum

Foundations Requirements

All students in the B.A. program must choose 24 credits as listed under B.A. Foundations on page 67.

Breadth Requirements

To increase breadth, the University College requires all students in the B.A. Environmental Studies program to choose 27-30 credits as follows:

Fine Arts or Language Other than English	6 credits
Social Sciences	12 credits
Natural Sciences (with lab)	9 or 12 credits

See list of specific courses that meet these requirements on page 68.

Interdisciplinary Requirement

Six 0.5 credit courses of interdisciplinary study. See page 68 for further details.

Major Requirements

Students must complete 27 credits in the Environmental Studies major consisting of ENVS 200, 300, 410, 450, 490, 491, GEOG 310, 350, and SOCI 319.

CONCENTRATION REQUIREMENTS

Students in the B.A. Environmental Studies program must choose a subject of concentration. Subjects are available in the following:

- Biology
- Business Administration
- Chemistry
- Economics and Politics
- English
- History
- Philosophy
- Psychology
- Social Science Group
- Sociology
- Theology

No more than 6 credits of 200-level courses may be applied to meet concentration subject requirements. Certain disciplines may have special cognate requirements which a student must meet for a subject of concentration.

Environmental Studies Internship Requirement

Internship Eligibility, Registration and Procedures

ELIGIBILITY

Students are eligible for an environmental internship if they have:

- successfully completed year three of the Environmental Studies Program, achieved an overall GPA of 2.50, and
- satisfactorily completed an interview with the Director of the Environmental Studies Program to assess progress in their program of study, ascertain preparation and readiness for an internship, and evaluate ability and commitment to completion of year four of the degree program.

REGISTRATION

Consent of the Director of the Environmental Studies program is needed to register in ENVS 490 (Internship). This consent is granted, or not granted, during registration in the Spring.

PROCEDURE

1. submit an "Application for Internship in Environmental Studies"
2. participate in year 3 program interview
3. actively search for an internship position
4. inform King's of an offer of employment
5. sign letter of agreement among student, employer and King's
6. register in ENVS 490 & 491

Au Sable Institute of Environmental Studies

Students in the Environmental studies programs may be interested in taking courses through the Au Sable Institute of Environmental Studies. Please see the Au Sable website www.ausable.org or "Au Sable Institute of Environmental Studies" on page 52 for details.

Specific B.A. (4-year) in Environmental Studies Concentration Requirements

See statement about declaring concentrations under General Degree Program Regulations on page 69.

Biology

- 24-45 credits including 210, 211, 330, 395, 436, 494
- At least 3 credits of 340, 342, 344
- Cognate Requirement: 6 credits of chemistry (not 290)

Note: BIOL 200 and 204 meet the natural science (with lab) breadth requirement for the B.A. but will not meet concentration requirements in biology.

Business Administration

- 24-39 credits including 200, 253, 320, 339, 365
- 9 credits of 344, 355, 369, 396
- Cognate requirements: ECON 201, 202 & one of THEO 310, 370

Notes:

1. The program allows few electives because of the combined extent of cognates and concentration courses. Electives could be used to augment the concentration to the limit of 39 credits.

2. This concentration is not a professional education as such and does not lead to a professional designation. It is sometimes used as a pre-professional preparation for an M.B.A. or for law school.

Chemistry

- 24-45 credits including 200, 201, 350, 351, 395, 494
- 3 credits of 440 or 441
- Cognate requirement: 6 credits of MATH (not 281) and/or STAT, 3 credits of BIOL (not 200 or 204)

Notes:

1. CHEM 290 meets the natural science (with lab) breadth requirement for the B.A. but will not meet concentration requirements in chemistry.
2. Students who wish to enter professional schools of medicine, dentistry and veterinary science can meet the requirements of those schools while earning the B.A. degree with a concentration in chemistry. See Pre-Professional programs starting on page 97.

Economics and Politics

- 39-45 credits including ECON 201, 202, POLI 205, PHES 201, 495, 498
- 9 credits of POLI 3xx, 4xx
- 9 credits of ECON 3xx, 4xx
- 3 credits of ECON 3xx, 4xx, POLI 3xx, 4xx
- POLI 310, 311, 320 and 380 are recommended

English

- 24-45 credits including 204, 205, 304, 305, 495, 499 (Directed Study on the Literature of the Environment)
- At least 3 credits of 370, 371

History

- 24-45 credits including 202, 204, 371, 372
- At least 3 credits of 308, 360, 361

Recommended Courses in Other Disciplines: at least 3 credits each in sociology, political science and economics.

Philosophy

- 24-45 credits including 221, 230, 320, 495
- At least 6 credits of historical courses (327, 332, 343, 345)
- At least 6 credits of topical courses (321, 322, 334, 339, 391)

Notes:

1. Students concentrating in philosophy are advised to take 221 and 230 in their first year. Appropriate combinations of philosophy courses will be suggested for students choosing philosophy as a second subject of concentration, in order to complement their first subjects.

Psychology

- 27-45 credits including 250, 251, 301, 398, 470
- 3 credits of 340, 351, 352
- 6 credits of 363, 375, 465, 473, 477

Notes:

1. PSYC 301 must normally be taken in the second year.
2. It is recommended that students take PSYC 302.
3. Recommended electives are PHIL 334 and BIOL 200.
4. Students interested in advanced professional training can combine many requirements with a concentration in psychology.

Social Science Group

- All of ECON 315; GEOG 310; POLI 327; SSCI 309, 495 (SSCI 309 must normally be taken in the 2nd year of study)
- 9 credits of POLI 205; ECON 201 or 202; SOCI 319 or PSYC 470
- 15 credits of economics; educational psychology 363; history; political science; psychology; sociology; or anthropology (by transfer credit)
- At least 21 credits of these must be 3xx or 4xx

Continuity Requirement:

One of the following requirements must be met:

- a. a student must be a declared social science student for at least three terms, or
- b. a student must take at least 9 credits in 300- and 400-level courses designated as providing a social science emphasis (at present, all 300- and 400-level courses in psychology, educational psychology (363), political science and sociology except PSYC 370).

Program Limits:

There is no maximum number of courses in this group concentration.

Notes:

1. PHIL 334: Philosophy of the Sciences is desirable as well as courses in anthropology, which are not currently available at the University College.
2. Foundations history courses are also applied to the social science group concentration.

Sociology

- 27-45 credits including 200, 201, 309, 319, 332, 495 (309 must normally be taken in the 2nd year of study)
- 3 credits of 301, 324, 345, 370
- 3 credits of 318, 319, 321, 360

Theology

- 24-45 credits including 250, 370, 397, 495
- At least 6 credits of biblical courses (310, 342, 351, 353)
- At least 6 credits of theological courses (361, 364, 369, 371, 373, 375, 380, 391)

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (3-YEAR)

B.Sc. (3-year) Curriculum

Foundations Requirements

All students in the B.Sc. (3-year) program must choose 21 credits as listed under B.Sc. Foundations on page 67.

Breadth Requirements

To increase breadth, the University College requires all students in the B.Sc. (3-year) program to choose 12 credits as follows:

Fine Arts or Language Other Than English	3 credits
Social Science	3 credits
Natural Science (with lab)	6 credits

See list of specific courses that meet these requirements on page 68.

Interdisciplinary Requirement

Six 0.5 credit courses of interdisciplinary study. See page 68 for further details.

Concentration Requirements

Students in the B.Sc. (3-year) program must choose a first subject of concentration and may choose a second subject. First subjects are available in the following:

- Biology
- Chemistry

No more than 6 credits of 200-level courses may be applied to meet concentration requirements. Both chemistry and biology have cognate requirements which a student must meet for a first subject of concentration.

See "Minor/Second Concentrations" on page 92 for second concentration requirements.

Science Requirement

At least 42 credits must be in the natural and social sciences and mathematics which have been designated as science program courses. Courses that meet this requirement are as follows: ASTR 210, 211, all biology courses, all chemistry courses, all computing courses, all mathematics courses, all physics courses, PSYC 250, 251, 370, 375, 395, 420, 473 and STAT 300.

Specific B.Sc. (3-year) First Concentration Requirements

See statement about declaring concentrations under General Degree Program Regulations on page 69.

Biology

- 24-42 credits including 210, 211, 395, 480, 494
- At least 3 credits of 320, 330
- At least 3 credits of 340, 342, 344
- Cognate Requirement: CHEM 200, 201, 350, 351

Notes:

1. BIOL 200 and BIOL 204 meet the natural science (with lab) breadth requirements for the B.A. but will not meet concentration requirements in biology.
2. Electives may be used to add biology concentration courses up to 42 credits or to make up a second concentration.
3. Students who wish to enter professional schools of medicine, dentistry, and veterinary science can meet the requirements of these schools while earning the B.Sc. degree with a concentration in biology. In some cases a 4-year program will be advantageous. See Pre-Professional Programs starting on page 97.
4. See Au Sable listing of off-campus biology courses at the Au Sable website www.ausable.org.

Chemistry

- 24-42 credits including 200, 201, 350, 351, 370, 371, 395, 494
- Cognate requirement: MATH 200 and 205
- PHYS 241/243 are recommended

Notes:

1. It is strongly recommended that students with a first concentration in chemistry take at least 6 credits in each of inorganic (CHEM 330, 431), organic (CHEM 350, 351, 450), physical (CHEM 370, 371), and analytical chemistry (CHEM 310, 311) to be exposed to the breadth of the discipline.
2. CHEM 290 meets the natural science (with lab) breadth requirements for the B.A. but will not meet concentration requirements in chemistry.
3. Electives may be used to add chemistry concentration courses up to 42 credits or to make up a second concentration.
4. Students who wish to enter professional schools of medicine, dentistry, and veterinary science can meet the requirements of these schools while earning the B.Sc. degree with a concentration in chemistry. In some cases a 4-year program will be advantageous. See Pre-Professional Programs starting on page 97.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

B.Sc. (4-year) Curriculum

Foundation Requirements

All students in the B.Sc. (4-year) program must choose 21 credits as listed under B.Sc. Foundations on page 67.

Breadth Requirements

To increase breadth, the University College requires all students in the B.Sc. (4-year) program to choose 12 credits as follows:

Interdisciplinary Requirement

Six 0.5 credit courses of interdisciplinary study. See

Fine Arts or Language Other Than English	3 credits
Social Science	3 credits
Natural Science (with lab)	3 credits
And 1 additional course in: Social Science, Fine Arts or Language Other Than English, Natural Science (with lab) (Computing science students must take a Natural Science)	3 credits

Major Requirements

Students in the B.Sc. (4-year) program must choose a major. Subjects are available in the following:

- Biology
- Chemistry
- Computing Science

No more than 6 credits of 200-level courses may be applied to meet major subject requirements. There are also cognate requirements which a student must meet.

Minor Requirements

See “Minor/Second Concentrations” on page 92.

Science Requirement

At least 63 credits must be in mathematics and science.

Specific B.Sc. (4-year) Major Requirements

See statement about declaring majors under General Degree Program Regulations on page 69.

Biology

- 42-60 credits including 210, 211, 320, 330, 391, 395, 480, 495, 497
- At least 6 credits of 340, 342, 344, 346
- At least 3 credits of 352, 356
- At least 6 credits of 422, 423, 470, 471
- Cognate requirements: BIOL/ENVS 478 CHEM 200, 201, 350, 351, MATH 200, STAT 300

Notes:

1. BIOL 200 and BIOL 204 will not meet major requirements in biology.
2. Students who wish to enter professional schools of medicine, dentistry, and veterinary science can meet the requirements of these schools while earning the B.Sc. degree with a major in biology. See Pre-Professional Programs starting on page 97.

Chemistry

This program is accredited by the Canadian Society for Chemistry (CSC), which is the national professional association representing the field of chemistry and the interests of chemists in industry, academia and government. The Canadian Society for Chemistry (CSC) accredits undergraduate chemistry programs in Canadian universities, to ensure that educational programs have the potential to prepare graduates to practise their profession in a competent scientific manner. Please see:

www.chemistry.ca/2/6/9/2/index1.shtml.

- 48-60 credits including 200, 201, 310, 311, 330, 350, 351, 370, 371, 395, 400, 431, 495, 497
- At least 6 credits of 450, 460, 470
- At least 3 credits of 401, 440, 441, 442, (450, 460, 470) if not selected above
- Cognate requirements: MATH 200, 205, 300
- Strongly recommended 3 credits of MATH 305, 434, PHYS 300
- All of PHYS 241, 243

Notes:

1. CHEM 290 will not meet major requirements in chemistry.
2. Students who wish to enter professional schools of medicine, dentistry, and veterinary science can meet the requirements of these schools while earning the B.Sc. degree with a major in chemistry. See Pre-Professional Programs starting on page 97.

Computing Science

- 45-60 credits including 250, 275, 302, 305, 360, 370, 420, 440, 470, 480, 481, 496
- At least 3 credits of 315, 320, 340, 405, 430
- At least 6 credits of 304, 310, 330, 350, 355, 400, 450
- Cognate requirements: MATH 200, 205, 221, STAT 300

Streams:

1. Software Systems Development
 - all of 260, 310, 315, 320, 330, 340, 405
2. Secure Computing
 - all of 260, 350, 330, 355, 400, 405, 450, SOCI 325
3. Computer Graphics and Visualization
 - all of CMPT 260, 315, 350, 450, ARTS 211, PHYS 241, PSYC 250

Notes:

1. Computing science majors who are also mathematics minors may take CMPT 360 as MATH 360 or CMPT 420 as MATH 420; however, a minimum of 45 credits must be taken as CMPT courses for a computing science major.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

Professional Accreditation

The Bachelor of Science in Environmental Studies is accredited by Environmental Careers Organization (ECO) Canada, the certifying body of the Canadian Environmental Accreditation Commission (CEAC).

B.Sc. (4-year) in Environmental Studies Curriculum

Foundations Requirements

All students in the B.Sc. Environmental Studies program must choose 24 credits as listed under B.Sc. Foundations on page 67.

Breadth Requirements

To increase breadth, the University College requires all students in the B.Sc. Environmental Studies program to choose 15 credits as follows:

Fine Arts or Language Other Than English	3 credits
Natural Science (with lab)	3 credits
Social Science	12 credits

See list of specific courses that meet these requirements on page 68.

Interdisciplinary Requirement

Six 0.5 credit courses of interdisciplinary study. See page 68 for further details.

Major Requirements

Students must complete 24 credits in the Environmental Studies major consisting of ENVS 200, 300, 410, 450, 490, 491, GEOG 310 and 350.

Concentration Requirements

Students in the B.Sc. Environmental Studies program must choose a subject of concentration in either biology or chemistry.

No more than 6 credits of 200-level courses may be applied to meet either concentration subject requirement. Both chemistry and biology have cognate requirements which a student must meet for a first subject of concentration.

Au Sable Institute of Environmental Studies

Students in the Environmental studies programs may be interested in taking courses through the Au Sable Institute of Environmental Studies. Please see the Au Sable website www.ausable.org or "Au Sable Institute of Environmental Studies" on page 52 for details.

Environmental Studies Internship Requirement

Internship Eligibility, Registration and Procedures
ELIGIBILITY Students are eligible for an environmental internship if they have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • successfully completed year three of the Environmental Studies Program, achieved an overall GPA of 2.50, and • satisfactorily completed an interview with the Director of the Environmental Studies Program to assess progress in their program of study, ascertain preparation and readiness for an internship, and evaluate ability and commitment to completion of year four of the degree program.
REGISTRATION Consent of the Director of the Environmental Studies program is needed to register in ENVS 490 (Internship). This consent is granted, or not granted, during registration in the Spring.
PROCEDURE <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. submit an "Application for Internship in Environmental Studies" 2. participate in year 3 program interview 3. actively search for an internship position 4. inform King's of an offer of employment 5. sign letter of agreement among student, employer and King's 6. register in ENVS 490 & 491

Specific B.Sc. (4-year) in Environmental Studies Concentration Requirements

See statement about declaring concentrations under General Degree Program Regulations on page 69.

Biology

- 24-42 credits including 210, 211, 330, 395, 436, 494
- At least 3 credits of 340, 342, 344

- Cognate Requirement: CHEM 200, 201, 350, 351; and 440 or 441

Notes:

1. BIOL 200 and BIOL 204 meet the natural science (with lab) breadth requirements for the B.A. but will not meet concentration requirements in biology.
2. Students who wish to enter professional schools of medicine, dentistry, and veterinary science can meet the requirements of these schools while earning the B.Sc. degree with a concentration in biology. See Pre-Professional Programs starting on page 97.
3. See Au Sable listing of off-campus biology courses at the Au Sable website www.ausable.org.

Chemistry

- 30-42 credits including 200, 201, 310, 311, 350, 351, 395, 440, 441, 494
- 3 credits of 330, 370
- Cognate requirement is MATH 200, 205 and BIOL 330 and 3 credits of BIOL 210, 211
- PHYS 241/243 are recommended

Notes:

1. It is strongly recommended that students with a first concentration in chemistry take at least 6 credits in each of inorganic, organic, physical, and analytical chemistry to be exposed to the breadth of the discipline.
2. CHEM 290 meets the natural science (with lab) breadth requirements for the B.A. but will not meet concentration requirements in chemistry.
3. Students who wish to enter professional schools of medicine, dentistry, and veterinary science can meet the requirements of these schools while earning the B.Sc. degree with a concentration in chemistry. See Pre-Professional Programs starting on page 97.

Computing Science

- 27-42 credits including 250, 275, 302, 305, 310, 370, 470
- Cognate Requirement: MATH 200, 205, 221; ENVS 478
- CMPT 420 and 440 are recommended

BACHELOR OF MUSIC

B.Mus. (4-year) Curriculum

Foundations Requirements

All students in the B.Mus. program must choose 24 credits as listed under B.Mus. Foundations on page 67.

Breadth Requirements

To increase breadth, the University College requires all students in the B.Mus. program to choose 12 credits as follows:

- Social Sciences 6 credits
- Natural Sciences (with lab) 6 credits

See list of specific courses that meet these requirements on page 68.

Interdisciplinary Requirement

Six 0.5 credit courses of interdisciplinary study. See page 68 for further details.

Specific B.Mus. (4-year) Requirements

- 87-90 credits including:
- Music Theory and Aural Skills 216, 217, 266, 267, 316, 317, 367, 416, 466, 467

BACHELOR OF EDUCATION (AFTER DEGREE)

General Notes

- Students may be allowed to substitute other courses in the Fall terms if they have met specific education course requirements in their first degree.
- In addition to satisfactory completion of on-campus course work, the student's performance in major practica (EDUC 351/451 or EDUC 353/453) determines whether he or she will be recommended to the Professional Development and Certification Branch of Alberta Education for Interim Professional Certification.

Specific B.Ed. (After Degree) Requirements

Elementary Education

Course work:

- All of 301, 303, 305, 306, 307, 309, 341, 401, 403
- 3 credit education elective
- 3 credit open elective

Practicum:

- All of 351, 451

Notes:

- The Open Elective and the Education Elective in Years 1 or 2 may be used to fulfill pre-B.Ed. admissions requirements.

Secondary Education

Coursework:

- All of 301, 303, 310, 315, 341, 401, 409, 412
- 7 credits of 320/420 or 330/430

Practicum:

- All of 353, 453

Major and Minor:

- 3 credits in a teachable major for a minimum total of 33 credits
- 9 credits in a teachable minor for a minimum total of 18 credits

Please see the Bachelor of Education (After Degree) admission requirements on page 21 for available majors and minor.

Notes:

1. Students may be allowed to substitute other courses in the Fall terms if they have met specific education course requirements.

Students are alerted to the following certification requirement which became effective on September 15, 1990.

All persons applying for certification as teachers in Alberta will be subject to the following restriction on eligibility:

Except where the Minister of Education decides otherwise, the Registrar for Alberta Education shall not issue a teaching certificate to:

- a. a person who has been convicted of an indictable offence under the Criminal Code; or
- b. a person who the Registrar has reason to believe should not be issued a certificate.

Applications for a teaching certificate shall be directed to the Registrar. As part of the application process, applicants will be asked whether they possess a criminal conviction. If the response is yes, the nature of the conviction and when and where they were convicted must be detailed.

The Registrar shall refuse to issue a teaching certificate to any applicant possessing an indictable criminal conviction. The Registrar may refuse to issue a teaching certificate to an applicant possessing a criminal conviction of a nature deemed unsuitable for teaching children or for any other reason. Applicants may appeal the decision of the Registrar to a Certification Appeal Committee established by the Minister. Appeals must be made in writing within 30 days of being advised of the Registrar's decision to not issue a certificate.

For additional information please contact the Director, Teacher Development and Certification Branch of Alberta Education at (780) 427-2045.

UNIVERSITY CERTIFICATES AND DIPLOMAS

UNIVERSITY CERTIFICATE IN DRAMA AND THE ENVIRONMENT 24 CREDITS

- 2 major recitals: MUSI 698, 699 (end of the Fall and Winter terms)

PRE-PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS

Students who are preparing for professional school are strongly encouraged to complete the B.A. or B.Sc. degree. Depending on the professional program, a three- or four-year undergraduate degree will normally provide excellent preparation. Several professional programs, such as medicine, are admitting most of their applicants with a 4-year undergraduate degree. The B.A. or B.Sc. degree gives academic credibility to a student's work regardless of what happens in a professional school.

PRE-EDUCATION PROGRAM

Students can prepare themselves for a teaching career by completing a bachelor's degree at King's and then applying to enter King's B. Ed. (After Degree) Elementary or Secondary program (see page 94) or a program at another Christian college or Canadian university. While pursuing a three-year or four-year degree, students are advised to take at least 9 credits of education courses as part of their degree (i.e. EDUC 251, Math/EDUC 281, EDUC 300).

Students preparing for an Elementary program are also encouraged to take courses that will deepen their understanding of the content they will eventually have to teach (e.g. Canadian history, geography, human anatomy). Students preparing for a Secondary program can complete courses toward a teachable major and minor. The B. Ed. (After Degree) can normally be obtained in two years of study following the three-year bachelor's degree.

Students completing some majors, or students choosing a teaching career later in their degree, may need to complete a four-year degree to meet the admission requirements for a Secondary education program. Additionally, students who complete a four-year degree will receive more preparation and be assessed for a higher salary when they begin teaching.

PRE-MEDICAL, PRE-DENTAL AND PRE-VETERINARY SCIENCE PROGRAMS

Students are strongly advised to complete a B.Sc. or B.A. degree prior to application to these professional programs. Specific prerequisite courses for admission to these professional schools can be readily obtained while completing one of several concentrations or majors in the B.Sc. or B.A. degree programs offered by The King's University College. In some cases it may be possible to meet the entrance requirements after partial completion of a degree program at The King's University College.

The requirements for admission into programs in Veterinary Science can be readily met while at the same time completing a B.A. or B.Sc. at The King's University College.

Since entrance requirements vary from university to university, students are advised to contact their faculty advisors during registration to ensure that they are selecting the right courses.

PRE-SEMINARY STUDIES

A B.A. program for a pre-seminary student is a form of a concentration in English, history, philosophy, social science group or theology. Since different seminaries have different entrance requirements, pre-seminary studies will need to be tailored individually. In many cases, however, students will be able to earn a three- or four-year B.A. degree at The King's University College while fulfilling most or all of the entrance requirements of the seminary of their choice.

The following sequence of courses is a model which meets The King's University College three-year B.A. requirements as well as most current seminary requirements. Note that courses may be taken in another sequence than that presented in the model and that other courses may be substituted for some of those listed.

Length: 93 credits

Sample Schedule:

Year 1
Foundation	ENGL 204 and 205, HIST 202 and 204, THEO 250 and 310, PHIL 230
Breadth:	SOCI 200 or ECON 201, SOCI 201 or ECON 202
Interdisciplinary Requirement:	INST 200 and 210
Elective:	PHIL 221
Year 2
Foundations	PHIL 3xx
Breadth:	6 credits of natural science
Interdisciplinary Requirement:	INST 300 and 310
ENGL 3xx and 3xxx, HIST 3xx and 3xx or 499 (classical), PSYC 250, PSYC 251, PHIL 327 or 3xx
Year 3
Breadth:	DRAM 349 or MUSI 205, and DRAM 202
Interdisciplinary Requirement:	INST 400 and 410
Greek (6 credits) and another modern language (6 credits) at another institution, PHIL 327 or 3xx and another philosophy course
Concentration: 12 credits

Note: Students may be able to take courses in another sequence. Also, this program requires special permission to exceed junior-level course limits.

Students taking King's Pre-Seminary B.A. program can meet the admissions requirements of the M.Div. program at:

- Calvin Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids, Michigan (Requires two years of Greek and two speech courses.)
- Canadian Theological Seminary, Calgary, Alberta
- Taylor Seminary, Edmonton, Alberta
- Newman Theological College, Edmonton, Alberta (Requires 12 credits in philosophy.)
- Tyndale College & Seminary, Toronto, Ontario
- Regent College, Vancouver, British Columbia
- St. Stephen's College, Edmonton, Alberta (does not offer a M.Div., but does offer a Master of Theological Studies (MTS))

Interested students should see the pre-seminary advisor for details.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

CLASS CONTACT HOURS

Students should note that class contact hours and credits differ for many courses. The following example outlines (1) term of offering of the course, (2) assigned credits, and (3) class contact hours.

Every year, Fall 3(3-1-3)

This course is offered every year in the Fall term only. Students receive three credits for successful completion of the course. The course consists of three lecture hours, one seminar hour, and three laboratory hours per week (3-1-3).

For some practicum and internship courses, only the number of weeks or hours involved is listed.

PREREQUISITES, COREQUISITES AND CONSENT TO TAKE COURSES

A prerequisite must be completed before a student is eligible to register in a given course.

A corequisite must be taken prior to or in the same term as a given course.

Students who believe they have the background necessary to take a course may seek the written permission of the instructor to enroll without the normal pre- or corequisites. The waiver of a pre- or corequisite only grants permission to take a specific course and does not exempt the student from any program requirements. Students who wish to pursue credit for a course without having taken it should refer to 'Challenge Exams' (page 58).

GUIDELINES FOR DIRECTED STUDY COURSES

Directed study courses are those usually numbered 499. The purpose of these courses is to allow advanced students to further their study in a specific area of interest that is not addressed in scheduled course offerings or the periodic special topics courses. The courses will have the same if not more rigorous requirements as standard classroom courses. Students must have completed two senior-level courses in the discipline in which they are requesting directed study, must have demonstrated the ability to do independent research and writing, and must normally be full-time students. Directed Study courses are available at the discretion of the faculty member.

Students desiring to do a directed study course must complete a Directed Studies Application, which is available through the Office of the Registrar. Applications for directed study courses must normally be made to the proposed faculty supervisor 45 days prior to the commencement of the term in which the directed study course is desired. Students are advised to begin this process prior to the conclusion of the Winter term if the course is to occur in the Fall. The faculty supervisor and the student must together create a Directed Studies Syllabus. The Application must be signed by the faculty supervisor and the Faculty Dean. It, accompanied by the Directed Studies Syllabus, must be presented to the Office of the Registrar to register in a directed study course.

PASS/FAIL COURSES

Certain courses in the curriculum are graded with a "pass" or "fail" (PA/FA). They are courses that involve practical activities and that could not easily be marked with precision. The course description will list whether a course is graded pass/fail. As in the case of other courses, the expectations for these courses are clearly stated in a course syllabus, and the requirements for a "pass" are clearly described. Such courses will not affect a student's GPA regardless of grade. Credits will be awarded if a student achieves a "pass". A student may apply as many as nine credits of this nature to all degree programs except for the B.Ed. where 15 credits is the maximum in the elementary program and 9 credits is the maximum in the secondary program.

100-level music courses are marked on a pass/fail basis but may not be taken for credit.

CROSS-LISTED COURSES

The King's University College offers courses listed for credit under more than one discipline. The course may only be taken once for credit, regardless of the disciplinary designation. The disciplinary designation of the course cannot be changed once the add/drop deadline has passed for the term in which the student has enrolled in the course. The requirements for a major, concentration or minor may require a course cross-listed with one a student has already taken. In this case, the student may request that the course be deemed to fulfil subject and credit requirements of the major, concentration or minor in the other discipline. In the event the cross-listed course is required in both disciplines, the course requirement is deemed to have been met for both. However, the credits can only be counted towards one discipline. To make such a request, students must submit a completed Program Exception form to the Office of the Registrar.

COURSE CYCLING

The cycling of courses may change subject to budget approval.

ALL THINGS CONSIDERED

ATC 200 - All Things Considered: Tradition
TBA 3(3-1.5-0)

Who do you think you are? Where do you come from? What is your story? In this year's All Things Considered we will consider the theme tradition, the beliefs and practices that shape our understandings of self, community, church, and society. We live in a resolutely anti-traditional culture; yet, recognized or not, traditions shape the way we see the world and our identities as persons, as Christians, as citizens, as scholars. We examine tradition in an interdisciplinary context, drawing perspectives from arts and letters, social sciences, and natural sciences. What stories and traditions already shape us, for good or ill? What stories and traditions should shape us?

ART

Visual Art at King's provide students in all programs opportunities to enrich their general education with courses in the history of visual art and design in our society, and in practical studio courses by which they can grow as visual artists. As we create, select, present, and enjoy works of visual art we do so with these purposes: to respond to God's creation (which includes human art) with thanksgiving, to interpret with Christian critical insight, and to bless others with our gifts.

ARTH 200 - The Story of Art: An Introduction to Art History I
2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Art History 200 introduces the visual art and architecture of early world civilizations until the Late Medieval period (14th century). Students discover artistic trends through time and across various cultures, learning to "read" and interpret the visual arts. The focus is on Western art and architecture's roots in ancient Egypt, Greece, and Rome through to the Middle Ages in Western Europe, but students will also see art of non-Western cultures, including but not limited to India, China, Japan, Africa, and the Middle East. By examining world cultures, students appreciate the histories, beliefs, and artistic productions of each culture individually, while forming an over-arching understanding of the meaningful contributions each makes to the discipline of art history as a whole.

ARTH 201 - The Story of Art: An Introduction to Art History II
2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Art History 201, a continuation of Art History 200, starts with the traditional transition in Western art, the Late Medieval period to the "rebirth" of art (as claimed by the artists of that time) in The Renaissance, and continues to art of the present day. The language of art is further developed and students will learn some keys to decoding that language. As with Art History 200, Western art and architecture will receive the greatest focus, however, non-Western cultural productions from the Late Medieval period to the present day will also be explored. Such cultures may include India, China, Japan, Africa, and indigenous arts of North America. The exploration of non-Western world cultural productions alongside those of Western cultures informs students of their continuing interactions throughout history, allowing them to form a more integrated world view.

ARTS 210 - Mixed Media
Every Year, Fall 3(0-0-6)

This studio course explores the principles of three-dimensional design, and develops skills in a variety of media and techniques: papier mache, assemblage, carving and modelling in various materials, and scale maquette. A wide range of painting and finishing techniques are employed. The use of found and recycled materials is emphasized. Students are expected to invest about $25.00 in their basic tools. Materials are provided.

ARTS 211 - Illustration
Every Year, Winter 3(0-0-6)

This studio course explores the principles of two-dimensional design and develops skills in a variety of media and techniques. The final project - the complete design and illustration of a handmade storybook - is approached through weekly exercises in aspects of page design and illustration, including composition, typography, drawing in pencil and in ink, painting in water colours and in acrylics, simple printmaking, and collage. Students are required to purchase materials and equipment for this course, estimated at $50.00.

ARTS 398 - Individual Projects in Visual Arts

Every Year, 1 to 3(Varies)

This course provides an opportunity to do more advanced and independent work in a visual art medium chosen by the student. The student will work closely with a member of the visual art faculty in setting the goals of the project, and be mentored by that faculty member through to project completion-normally public exhibition. Students should apply early to the co-operating faculty member and present a portfolio of visual artwork.

Prerequisites: Nine credits of ARTH 200, 201, ARTS 210, 211 and consent

ARTS 399 - Special Topics in Studio Art

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the studio arts faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisite: Three credits of ARTS at the introductory level; some topics may have more specific prerequisites

ASTRONOMY

Astronomy focuses on the history and practice of studying motion in the heavens. Appreciate God's vast creation order through the telescope.

ASTR 200 - Introduction to Astronomy I

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-3)

An introduction to the science of astronomy for non-science majors. The course will focus on the historical roots of astronomy and its relation to other sciences. Emphasis will be given to the practical aspects of observational astronomy, motion in the heavens, modern astrophysical theories of stars - their formation and evolution - as well as experimental techniques in astronomy. The course has both daytime and occasional evening lab components.

ASTR 201 - Introduction to Astronomy II

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-3)

A continuation of Astronomy 200, the course will focus on galactic astronomy as well as a discussion of major ideas in cosmology. Topics will include structure and formation of the galaxy, experimental techniques in astronomy and the Big-Bang cosmology and possible alternative models. The course concludes with a return to the earth-sun system and the question of origins. The course has both daytime and occasional evening lab components.

ASTR 210 - Introduction to Astronomy I

2013-14, Fall 3(3-1-3)

An introduction to the science of astronomy for science majors. The course will focus on the historical roots of astronomy and its relation to other sciences. Emphasis will be given to the practical aspects of observational astronomy, motion in the heavens, modern astrophysical theories of stars - their formation and evolution - as well as experimental techniques in astronomy. The course has both daytime and occasional evening lab components.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 30-1 either Physics 30 or Science 30

ASTR 211 - Introduction to Astronomy II

2013-14, Winter 3(3-1-3)

A continuation of Astronomy 210, the course will focus on galactic astronomy as well as a discussion of major ideas in cosmology. Topics will include structure and formation of the galaxy, experimental techniques in astronomy and the Big-Bang cosmology and possible alternative models. The course concludes with a return to the earth-sun system and the question of origins. The course has both daytime and occasional evening lab components.

Prerequisites: ASTR 210 or Physics 30 and consent of instructor

ASTR 300 - Introduction to Astronomical Methods

Subject to demand, 3(0-1-3)

This course is intended as an introduction to astronomical methods of data acquisition and analysis with an emphasis on participation in faculty research projects. Use of the telescope and CCD photometer and appropriate techniques of data reduction and analysis will form the major content of the course. The course will culminate in the presentation of a research project. Students will be required to conduct evening research at The King's University College Observatory or other suitable facilities.

Prerequisites: ASTR 211, MATH 205, or PHYS 243

ASTR 399 - Special Topics in Astronomy

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the astronomy faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisite: ASTR 210, 211; some topics may have more specific requirements

BIOLOGY

Biology seeks to describe the architecture of the living world. The origin, growth, reproduction, structure, function and interrelationships of living organisms are explored. Human stewardship of living and non-living matter is emphasized together with an appreciation of God's wonderful creative power.

BIOL 200 - Human Anatomy and Physiology

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-3)

An introductory study of the human body which includes anatomy and physiology. The relationship between structure and function is emphasized.

This course meets the natural science (with lab) breadth requirement for the B.A., and it may meet biology major/concentration requirements. Same as PHED 200.

BIOL 204 - Insects and Humanity

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-3)

Insects are often hated, sometimes loved, but seldom ignored. These minute creatures provide a window into the complexities of the biological world. This course offers a survey of the varied habitats and peculiar habits of insects, including their competition with humans for food and fiber and their role as disease agents.

This course meets the natural science (with lab) breadth requirement for the B.A. but does not meet major/concentration requirements in biology.

BIOL 210 - Cellular Introduction to Biology

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-3)

An introduction to the structure and function of cells in organisms. Topics include the origin of life, the development of prokaryotic and eukaryotic cells, biological energy conversions, compartmentation of biochemical functions within the cell, inter- and intra-cellular communications. Molecular genetic analysis will be used to examine the control of cellular activities and their application in genetic engineering and biotechnology will be discussed.

Students with credit in BIOL 261 or BIOL 262 cannot receive credit in BIOL 210.

Prerequisites: Biology 30 or Science 30 (Students who intend to use Science 30 as a prerequisite must consult with and have the consent of the instructor.)

BIOL 211 - Organisms in their Environment

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-3)

Organisms of all the major groups are affected by their environment and exert their influence on their environment and on each other. Topics will include a description of these relationships, of their development over time, and of theories of evolutionary development of these organisms.

Students with credit in BIOL 261 or BIOL 262 cannot receive credit in BIOL 211.

Prerequisites: Biology 30 or Science 30 (Students who intend to use Science 30 as a prerequisite must consult with and have the consent of the instructor.)

BIOL 320 - Introduction to Genetics

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-3)

The cellular and molecular basis of heredity. Mendelian genetics and its chromosomal basis, linkage and genetic mapping in prokaryotes and eukaryotes, and changes in chromosome number will be studied. DNA as genetic material, the genetic code, replication, control of protein synthesis, the governance of gene action, and recombinant DNA techniques will receive emphasis.

Prerequisites: BIOL 210, 211

BIOL 330 - Ecology

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-3)

Relationships among animals, plants and the non-living environment, energy flow, nutrient cycles, ecological succession, communities, populations; application of ecological principles to the modern world. Laboratory work focuses on using basic techniques of ecological investigation. Participation in a three-day, overnight field trip on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the last weekend of September is required.

Prerequisites: BIOL 210, 211, CHEM 200, 201

BIOL 340 - Plant Diversity

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-3)

A study of all the major plant groups. Representative organism of each group will be examined in terms of their anatomy, morphology, and life cycle. Classification and adaptation will receive special attention.

Prerequisites: BIOL 210, 211

BIOL 342 - Vertebrate Zoology

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-3)

The biology of vertebrate animals. The diversity, reproductive patterns, adaptations of structure and of function in all the vertebrate classes will be studied.

Prerequisites: BIOL 210, 211

BIOL 344 - Invertebrate Zoology

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-3)

An introductory survey of the comparative anatomy, ecology, classification and behavior of the invertebrates. Emphasis is placed on non-parasitic organisms. Laboratory exercises are designed to demonstrate the basic morphological specializations of representative phyla.

Prerequisites: BIOL 210, 211

BIOL 346 - General Microbiology

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-3)

The organization, morphology and cell structure of microorganisms with emphasis on bacteria and fungi. Microbial growth and its control, aspects of medical and applied microbiology and microbial ecology are discussed. Laboratory exercises are designed to demonstrate basic microbiological techniques as well as relevant microbial activities and functions.

Prerequisites: BIOL 210, 211, CHEM 200, 201

BIOL 352 - Physiology of the Vertebrates

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-3)

The physiological processes, from molecular- to organism-level, that allow animals to live in their environments are examined. Systems studied include gas exchange, circulation, hematology, digestion and excretion, sensory systems, osmoregulation, thermoregulation, and control mechanisms involving the endocrine system and the nervous system (CNS, PNS, and ANS). Themes of integration and homeostasis, the maintenance of a stable internal environment are also examined. Lab exercises illustrate the experimental study of physiological mechanisms with an emphasis on human physiology.

Prerequisites: BIOL 210, 211

BIOL 356 - Plant Physiology

Subject to demand, Winter 3(3-0-3)

Basic principles of plant physiology including water relations, mineral nutrition, xylem and phloem transport, gas exchange, photosynthesis, respiration, growth and development. The influence of the environment on these processes will receive special attention.

Prerequisites: BIOL 210, 211, CHEM 200, 201

BIOL 362 - Ethology

2014-15, Fall 3(3-2-0)

An overview of the evolution, function and development of animal behavior. Evolutionary processes (e.g. selection and adaptation), physiological processes (e.g. the nervous system and behavior), the behavior of individuals (e.g. development, learning, mating), and the ecology of behavior (e.g. foraging) are discussed.

Same as PSYC 370. This course does not meet the natural science (with lab) breadth requirement.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251, and PSYC 301 and 302 or BIOL 210 or BIOL 211

BIOL 364 - Brain and Behavior

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-0)

A study of the relation between biology and behavior in humans. Topics include mind/brain issues, brain development, genes and behavior, structure and function of the nervous system, brain disorders, biopsychology of motivated disorders, drug abuse and lateralization. Foundational issues as well as biological details will be emphasized.

Same as PSYC 375. This course does not meet the natural science (with lab) breadth requirement.

Prerequisites: One of BIOL 200, 210, 211, PSYC 250 or 251

BIOL 391 - Experimental Methods in Biology

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-3)

An introduction to the design of experiments and analysis of data collected from field and laboratory studies in biology. Statistical software will be used extensively.

Prerequisites: BIOL 320, 330, STAT 300

BIOL 395 - Biology Seminar

Every Year, Full Year Course 1(0-1-0)

A weekly seminar through the entire academic year, exploring the contexts for the discipline of biology, including historical, methodological, ethical and societal dimensions, as well as current biological topics of interest in basic research, industrial and environmental settings. Ethical and professional responsibilities for biologists in industrial, research and academic settings will be addressed, as well as other topics that explore the interface between biology and society. Students, faculty and visiting speakers will give presentations. This course will meet concurrently with BIOL 495, and from time to time with CHEM 395/495. It is required for third-year biology majors. First and second year students are strongly encouraged to attend presentations. Mark for the course will be pass/fail.

Prerequisites: Six credits in biology at the 300 level

BIOL 399 - Special Topics in Biology

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the biology faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: BIOL 210, 211; some topics may have more specific prerequisites

BIOL 422 - Molecular Cell Biology I

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-3)

A detailed examination of the molecular basis of cell structure and function. Topics included are: cell culture, DNA replication and recombination, regulation of transcription, gene control in development, membrane structure and function, organelle biogenesis, cell-to-cell signaling, nerve cells, cytoskeleton, extracellular matrix, multicellularity, control of the cell cycle, cancer, and immunity. Special emphasis is placed on the tools of molecular genetic analysis. The laboratory work is designed to provide hands-on experience with current molecular genetics techniques.

Prerequisites: BIOL 210, 211, 320 Corequisite: CHEM 350

BIOL 423 - Molecular Cell Biology II

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-3)

A continuation of BIOL 422.

Prerequisites: BIOL 422 Corequisite: CHEM 351

BIOL 432 - Limnology

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-3)

Discussion of the chemical, physical and biological characteristics of inland waters including lakes, wetlands and streams. Topics include phytoplankton dynamics, biogeochemical cycles, and results of natural and cultural alterations. Participation in one field trip is required.

Prerequisites: BIOL 330, CHEM 200, 201

BIOL 434 - Population Ecology

Subject to demand, Fall 3(3-0-3)

The principles of population ecology in plants and animals including: the population consequences of variation among individuals; habitat and population structure; habitat selection and foraging theory. Exploration of demographic tools for population dynamics (life tables and other models), the evolution of life histories, population dynamics, and population regulation through organism interactions (competition, predation, mutualisms).

Prerequisites: BIOL 330, and either MATH 200 or STAT 300

BIOL 436 - Conservation Biology

2014-15, Winter 3(3-1.5-0)

A discussion of the principles of conservation biology with applications to sustainable human society and biosphere integrity. This course develops the theoretical and applied basis for maintaining plant and animal populations considered endangered, threatened or at risk. It explores the complex factors contributing to the decline, extinction, or recovery of species. The course develops a stewardship perspective rooted in biological principles, and ethical, historical and economic considerations. Local, regional and global conservation strategies are discussed.

This course does not meet the natural science (with lab) breadth requirement.

Prerequisites: BIOL 330

BIOL 438 - Plant Ecology

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-3)

Topics covered in Plant Ecology include ecophysiology, population biology, the structure and dynamics of plant communities, ecosystems, and landscapes, and climate and vegetative interactions. Field methods and analysis techniques for studying plant ecology will be covered.

Prerequisites: BIOL 330 and STAT 300

BIOL 466 - Evolution, Genes, and Behavior

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course examines how evolutionary psychology and behavior genetics can illuminate our embodied nature, and explores the strengths, limitations and implications of these approaches for understanding the human cycle. This course also examines how research and theorizing in these two areas are influencing culture, via the media.

Same as PSYC 477.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251, and PSYC 301 or at least 6 credits in biology at the senior level

BIOL 470 - Biochemistry I

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-3)

This course is designed to introduce students to biochemistry. The focus of the lectures is on the structure and function of the chemical constituents of living organisms. The lectures cover such topics as the energetics of biochemical reactions, amino acids and peptides, protein structure and function, enzyme kinetics, bioenergetics, carbohydrates and carbohydrate metabolism.

Same as CHEM 400.

Prerequisites: CHEM 351

BIOL 471 - Biochemistry II

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-3)

This course is a continuation of BIOL 470. The topics covered include electron transport and oxidative phosphorylation, lipids and lipid metabolism, amino acid metabolism, nucleic acids and their metabolism, photosynthesis, the chemical structure of genes and chromosomes, protein synthesis, and the structure and function of biological membranes.

Same as CHEM 401.

Prerequisites: BIOL 470 or CHEM 400

BIOL 474 - Chemistry of Ecological Relationships

Subject to demand, Winter 3(3-1.5-0)

An introduction to the chemical basis and mechanisms fundamental to the interaction between organisms. Topics included are: plant biochemical adaptation to the environment, chemistry of pollination, plant toxins, hormonal interactions between plants and animals, chemical basis for insect feeding preferences and vertebrate feeding preferences, animal pheromones, and chemical interactions between plants.

This course does not meet the natural science (with lab) breadth requirement.

Prerequisites: CHEM 351, BIOL 330

BIOL 478 - Modeling In Biology
2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-3)

An introduction to techniques and software programs used to model biological, chemical, physical or environmental phenomena. Laboratory work will be tailored to students' interests and needs.

Same as ENVS 478.

Prerequisites: BIOL 320, 330, MATH 200

BIOL 480 - History and Theory of Biology
Every Year, Fall 3(3-1.5-0)

The history of biology from early times to the present. Ideas influencing the study of biological phenomena, and the effects of biological developments upon human ideas and culture are discussed.

This course does not meet the natural science (with lab) breadth requirement.

Prerequisites: At least 9 credits in biology at the 300-level

BIOL 486 - Evolutionary Biology
Subject to demand, Winter 3(3-1.5-0)

Exploration of evolutionary processes, including the theoretical and experimental basis for the evolution of organisms. A survey of the fossil record, population genetics, variation, natural selection, adaptation and the mechanisms of species formation. Special attention will be given to the history of evolutionary theory and its place in biology.

This course does not meet the natural science (with lab) breadth requirement.

Prerequisites: BIOL 320, 330

BIOL 494 - Senior Independent Project
Every Year, Fall and Winter 2(0-1-3)

In this course students conduct an independent project, designed in consultation with the instructor. This project may be an independent research project in the laboratories at the University College, a cooperative project with a public agency, or a biological literature research project. Other ventures are possible. Before the work commences, the student is required to submit a detailed proposal. Upon completion of the project, the results must be presented in the form of a paper and a seminar.

This course is only open to students registered in the 3-year B.A. or B.Sc. biology degree program and students in the environmental studies biology degree program.

Prerequisites: Six credits in biology at the 300-level

BIOL 495 - Biology Seminar
Every Year, Full Year Course, 1(0-1-0)

A weekly seminar through the entire academic year, exploring the contexts for the discipline of biology, including historical, methodological, ethical and societal dimensions, as well as current biological topics of interest in basic research, industrial and environmental settings. Ethical and professional responsibilities for biologists in industrial, research and academic settings will be addressed, as well as other topics that explore the interface between biology and society. Students, faculty and visiting speakers will give presentations. This course will meet concurrently with BIOL 395, and from time to time with CHEM 395/495. It is required for fourth-year biology majors. First and second year students are strongly encouraged to attend presentations. Mark for the course will be pass/fail.

Prerequisites: Six credits in biology at the 300-level

BIOL 497 - Senior Thesis
Every year, Full Year Course 4(0-0-4)

Independent full-year research project carried out under the mentorship of a faculty member. This project may be an independent research project in the laboratories at the University College or a cooperative project with another laboratory or agency. Upon completion of the project, the results are presented in the form of a senior thesis and a seminar. The BIOL 497 thesis research can also be carried out in a summer of full-time research work at The King's University College laboratories or as an intern.

Prerequisites: Consent of the instructor

BIOL 499 - Directed Studies in Biology
Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

An opportunity to do advanced study of a special topic of particular interest to a student. Students work with a member of the biology faculty. Students must apply in advance to a member of the biology faculty.

Prerequisites: Six credits in biology at the 300-level, and consent of instructor

BUSINESS

Business courses explore a wide array of areas including marketing, sales, small business/new technology entrepreneurship, organizational practices, ethics, and the history of Western business. While studying Commerce or Business Administration, you will discover how the Christian faith affects all of these subjects.

BUSI 200 - Introduction to Business

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

With a program focusing on Entrepreneurship, this course provides an introductory overview of Canadian business, both as an area of study and as a potential career choice. After an introduction to basic concepts, it explores the nature of business from a Christian world-view, as well as the many opportunities and challenges of starting and operating your own business. The main functional areas of business will be highlighted. Current trends in business will be addressed. The course will end with a critical assessment of business from a macro perspective. We will address the role of business in the context of our larger social systems.

BUSI 253 - Introductory Financial Accounting

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-2)

This course is about financial accounting - the preparation and reporting of financial information to users who are outside of a firm (e.g., creditors, shareholders, and tax authorities). This information is usually communicated through the preparation of a set of financial statements. This course will provide an understanding of how financial statements are prepared, and how the financial information they contain can be used and interpreted by various external decision makers. At the same time, the student will gain an understanding of assumptions and conventions that underlie accounting in general, and various financial statement components in particular.

BUSI 320 - Statistics for Business

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-1.5)

This course has two elements: first, an introduction to the use of statistical methods, descriptive statistics, frequency distributions, regression and correlation, inference on means and proportions, sampling distributions, and analysis of variance. Second, the application of these tools to business decision-making is demonstrated throughout. A hands-on experience in using a computerized statistical analysis software package is also provided.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 30-2

BUSI 339 - Organizational Behavior And Management

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course will examine the relationship between human behaviour, managerial practices, and organizational outcomes. Theoretical and practical aspects of organizational behaviour will be explored from both micro and macro perspectives. Topics covered include self-awareness, perceptions and emotions, motivation, group dynamics, leadership, power and conflict, organizational structure and culture, decision-making, and organizational change. The overall objective of this course is to enable students to develop the foundational skills necessary to be an effective employee as well as manager.

Prerequisites: BUSI 200

BUSI 341 - Small Business Start-up and Management

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

An introduction to the process of setting up, developing and operating a small business in Canada, particularly in the West. The emphasis is on the managerial and strategic problems existing during the early years of business formation and growth, including sound business planning. This includes creation of a business plan, securing finance, selecting a site, developing products/services, marketing, and legal, ethical, and environmental aspects of setting up a firm. The responsibilities inherent in each of these activities, as well as the resources required, are also reviewed.

Prerequisites: BUSI 200, 253

BUSI 343 - Managing Public, Non-Profit and Voluntary Organizations

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course will study approaches to managing in the non-profit sector, particularly the unique programs and policies that are required for effective management practices. These practices will be contrasted with the approaches utilized in the private for-profit sector.

Prerequisites: BUSI 339

BUSI 344 - Human Resource Management

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-0)

As organizations move rapidly into a knowledge-based economy, the strategic importance of effective human resource management become increasingly evident. This course aims to familiarize students with the key functions, concepts, and practices which characterize modern HRM. Issues examined include staffing, work design, reward systems, training and development, performance evaluation, union-management relationships, workplace health and safety, and legal concerns.

Prerequisites: BUSI 200

BUSI 345 - Cross-Cultural and Diversity Management

Subject to demand 3(3-0-0)

As the network of globalized operations expand and the diversity in workplaces increases, individuals will need to become more culturally competent and responsive in order to effectively address issues, challenges, and opportunities that arise. This course will explore the implications of culture and diversity on managerial and leadership approaches, business practices, communication and interpersonal relations, organizational and individual performances as well as overall workforce management - in both international and domestic settings.

Prerequisites: One of BUSI 200, THEO 250, ENGL 204, EDUC 251, PHIL 230, POLI 205, or SOCI 200

BUSI 346 - Family Business

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Family owned enterprises present unique management issues which will be explored in this course, including: family vs. business value sets, integration of non-family managers, taxation and inheritance, generational transition, exit strategies, governance structures and conflict management issues

BUSI 348 - Operations Management

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course explores the primary concepts of operations including: logistics, scheduling, lay-out, work flow, project management. Emphasis will be placed on service sector applications, technology, communications, stewardship, and applications in the small and medium enterprise sector.

Prerequisite: BUSI 200

BUSI 353 - Intermediate Financial Accounting

Every Year, Fall 3 (3-0-3)

This course focuses on elements of the Balance Sheet, Capital Assets, Current and Long-term Liabilities, Partnerships, Shareholders Equity, Investments and Cash Flow generated, and Taxes on Corporation Income. This course is available to first year B.Com. students.

Prerequisites: BUSI 253

BUSI 355 - Management Accounting

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-2)

This course teaches cost terms, cost behaviour, costing systems, product costing, cost allocation, relevant costs for decision-making, budgeting and capital budgeting.

Prerequisites: BUSI 253

BUSI 359 - Business Computer Applications

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-2)

Managers are constantly in need of timely information for decision making. This course will focus on the Computer Technology applications used in the identification of business data and the application of such information to Management processes. Selected functional areas will be examined such as product costing, payroll, taxation and supply chain management. A computer laboratory will introduce and develop skills in specific Business application programs, including a student project.

Prerequisite: BUSI 355

BUSI 365 - Business, Society and the Environment

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Modern business operates within a complex web of relations with governments (at various levels), the rest of society and the natural environment. These interactions are mediated presently by a set of regulations, laws and voluntary programs with an uncertain (and contested) effect. Increasingly it is realised though, that business is embedded in and cannot exist without sound relations with society and nature. But this realisation is only slowly becoming an essential and integral part of both the internal decision logic of business and of its evolving relations with governments and other stakeholders in society. This course provides an overview of the unfolding an evolution of these relations. It also examines the options for making earthkeeping and sustainable livelihood basic elements of healthy business and its functioning in its broader context. Resources for keeping abreast of this evolving and increasingly relevant field of action for business will be surveyed and evaluated.

Prerequisites: BUSI 200 and 6 credits of ECON 201, 202 or 315

BUSI 369 - Commercial Law

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course gives students a practical knowledge of business law that enables them to participate in the managerial decisions of a business and allows them to recognize problems and situations that require the help of a lawyer. The basic content of the course consists of legal concepts, principles and precedents of commercial law and their application to business situations, especially through the case-study method.

Prerequisites: BUSI 200

BUSI 370 - Introduction to Corporate Financial Management

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-2)

This course provides a general corporate framework for financial decision-making. The course examines: Introduction to Financial Management, the Canadian Financial System, and Environment; The Time Value of Money; Risk and Value; The Cost of Capital; Capital Budgeting: Certainty, Part I; Capital Budgeting: Certainty, Part II; Capital Budgeting: Uncertainty; Financing Decisions and Capital Structure; Dividend Policy and Retained Earnings; Financial Analysis and Planning; Financial Forecasting and Planning; Management of Working Capital; Sources of Long-term Capital; and Other Financial Topics: Mergers, International Financial Management, Corporate Reorganizations and Liquidation.

Prerequisites: BUSI 355, and one of STAT 300 or BUSI 320

BUSI 385 - Leadership*Every Year, Summer 3(3-0-3)*

This course includes an overview of the various approaches to leadership theory, including trait-based, skills-based, situational, contingency, path-goal, leader-member exchange, transformational and servant leadership, and others. Leadership issues examined include: leadership development, roles of followers, management vs leadership, personality, faith perspectives, personal values, group status and dynamics. The course practicum normally entails an extended outdoor trip of 3-6 days and includes activities and supports for self and group reflection. (This course is normally taught online in summer semester with the practicum at the end of August)

Same as PSYC 385.

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor

BUSI 396 - Introduction to Marketing*Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)*

This course starts with marketing vocabulary, concepts and techniques. It foregrounds the 4 P's of marketing: Product, Price, Place and Promotion. Students will also be introduced to such concepts as consumer behaviour and marketing research. We will evaluate modern marketing from a Christian worldview. Students will have an opportunity to develop critical skills through evaluating the marketing strategy of a specific product, service or concept of their choice.

Prerequisites: BUSI 200

BUSI 399 - Special Topics*Non-Recurring, 3(varies)*

A course on a topic or field of special interest to a member of the commerce faculty and offered on a non-reoccurring basis.

Prerequisites: Consent of the Instructor

BUSI 410 - Topical Issues*Subject to Demand 3(3-0-0)*

This course will give attention to the nature and impact of pressing current issues that affect all Canadian firms and which do not have easy solutions. The impact of these on various aspects of the business enterprise relevant to the particular issue will be investigated and possibilities suggested. This course will be offered in alternative years and its content will be informed by the dynamics of business as an ongoing process.

Prerequisites: Twelve credits in business at the 300- or 400-level

BUSI 411 - Accounting and Business Management*Subject to demand, 3(3-0-2)*

Provides an extension to the financial reporting and managerial accounting courses. This course melds the choice of accounting policies which impact external users and the perspective gained from approaching similar issues from an internal management perspective.

Prerequisites: BUSI 353, 355

BUSI 420 - Business Ethics*2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)*

This course will emphasize that all business decisions have significant ethical content. It will explore the varied history of incorporating ethics into or attempting to eliminate it from business. The contemporary ethical challenges in the conduct of business will be examined from a Christian viewpoint and compared with other ethical stances. It is intended to help students develop and refine an ethical framework.

Prerequisites: PHIL 230 and BUSI 339, 370, 396

BUSI 430 - E-Commerce*2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)*

In this course we will introduce a range of eCommerce opportunities and operations. This will include the structure, limitations and potential use, from a general management perspective, of information systems and networks. Exploring issues such as increasing productivity through technology, marketing in the electronic environment, and regulatory concerns will equip managers to direct business development while optimizing the human use of technology.

Prerequisites: BUSI 355

BUSI 439 - Marketing Research*TBA 3(3-0-0)*

Marketing research is the systematic planning, collecting, analyzing and reporting of data relevant to marketing decision-making. In this course students will: a) gain familiarity with the tools and ethics of marketing research; b) learn by doing; ie. Design and execute a significant research project; and c) interpret and present the research results in a manner that allows the decision-maker to address his/her marketing problem or opportunity.

Prerequisites: BUSI 320 and BUSI 396 and ECON 201

BUSI 461 - Opportunities and Issues in Globalization*2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)*

This course creates awareness of the nature, development and implications of the powerful spread of trade and finance flows across the modern world. It analyses the positive and negative aspects of globalization and alerts students to the opportunities for responsible extension of economic activities (trade in particular) to countries, regions and parts of the world very different from Canada. The ethical, developmental and environmental dimensions of globalization will be integrated with the business aspects and options.

Same as ECON 461.

Prerequisites: ECON 202

BUSI 471 - Business Strategy

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course examines the tools of strategic management, including ethical considerations and responsibilities, for the formation of business strategy for the small to medium-sized business in the Canadian environment. It also examines corporate strategy and how it differs from business strategy. This course integrates core management principles and ethics with strategic analysis through the use of business cases. Students are required to register for both Business Core courses, BUSI 471 and BUSI 496, in the same school year. They are required to register for BUSI 471 in the Fall semester and BUSI 496 in the Winter semester of that school year.

Prerequisites: BUSI 339, 369, 370, 396 and 9 additional business credits

BUSI 489 - Internship Preparation

Every Year, Fall 1(1.5-0-0)

This course provides students with the preparatory tools, guidance, knowledge and skills to successfully seek, secure, and engage in their internships. Students will develop their internship learning plans and internship search portfolio. As well, students will attend industry forums and interview field practitioners to familiarize themselves with opportunities and challenges of working in various industries and professional fields. Students will use these knowledge and skills to seek, secure, and engage in internships that will enhance their business/management skills as well as provide them with genuine career opportunities.

Prerequisites: Successful completion of the first 2 years of the Commerce Program and permission from the Internship Coordinator or Academic Supervisor.

BUSI 490 - Internship Placement

Every Year, 2(160 Hours)

The internship allows students to apply in a work setting, the knowledge, tools and skills gained from a combination of theoretical and practical business/management training facilitated by the Commerce program. It consists of a 160-hour work placement with either a for-profit or non-profit organization. Grading will be based on employer evaluation and student's performance on mandatory activities and reports. Mark for the placement will be pass/fail. Students may complete their internships in either Winter or Spring semester only. No Fall placements will be accepted.

Prerequisites: BUSI 489 and permission from the Internship Coordinator or Academic Supervisor.

BUSI 496 - Senior Business Project

Every Year, Winter 3(0-3-0)

This course provides students who expect to graduate with a first concentration in business administration with the opportunity to work closely with faculty members on a project, either a research project or a practicum, which will allow them to pursue some facet of their business studies in a more concentrated way. Students are required to register for both Business Core courses, BUSI 471 and BUSI 496, in the same school year. They are required to register for BUSI 471 in the Fall semester and BUSI 496 in the Winter semester of that school year.

Prerequisites: BUSI 471

BUSI 499 - Directed Studies in Business

Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

This course gives an opportunity to do intensive study of some area of business of particular interest to the student. Students work closely with a member of the business or economics faculty in tutorials. Students must apply in advance for directed studies to the faculty member involved.

Prerequisites: Six credits in business at the 300- or 400-level, and consent of instructor

CHEMISTRY

Chemistry is a science that deals with the composition, structure, and properties of substances and the transformations substances undergo. It also provides a link between the world of atoms and molecules and the architecture of complex living systems. In our study of chemical theories, we place them in the context of their historical origins and development.

CHEM 200 - Introductory Chemistry I

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-3)

Chemical bonding and structure; the gaseous, liquid and solid states; solution chemistry, kinetics; thermochemistry and equilibria; electrochemistry; coordination chemistry, the relationship between electronic structure and reactivity; with emphasis on inorganic compounds.

Prerequisites: Chemistry 30 or Science 30 (Students who intend to use Science 30 as a prerequisite must consult with and have the consent of the instructor.)

CHEM 201 - Introductory Chemistry II

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-3)

A continuation of CHEM 200.

Prerequisites: CHEM 200

CHEM 290 - Concepts of Chemistry

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-3)

A survey of fundamental concepts central to chemistry, with emphasis on demonstrating the importance of chemical phenomena to the everyday experiences of the student. Examples will be drawn from the chemistry of the environment, the marketplace and living systems.

This course meets natural science (with lab) breadth requirements for the B.A. but does not meet major/concentration requirements in chemistry.

CHEM 310 - Analytical Chemistry I

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-3)

This introduction to quantitative analytical chemistry particularly emphasizes the modern instrumental techniques of spectroscopy and chromatography important to both chemistry and biochemistry. Spectrophotometry, solvent extraction, liquid chromatography, high-pressure liquid chromatography, gas-chromatography, and potentiometry utilizing ion-selective electrodes are among the methods studied. An introduction to questions of precision, accuracy and sampling will also be given.

Prerequisites: CHEM 201

CHEM 311 - Analytical Chemistry II

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-3)

A continuation of CHEM 310, this course focuses on the fundamental chemistry underlying quantitative analysis. Particular emphasis is given to the response of a chemical system at equilibrium to changes in various parameters and to the proper collection and treatment of analytical data. The focus in the laboratory is on gravimetric and volumetric techniques.

Prerequisites: CHEM 310

CHEM 330 - Inorganic Chemistry I

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-3)

This course discusses the chemistry of the main group (non-transition metal) elements of the periodic table. It deals with the structure and bonding of non-molecular solids, stereochemistry and bonding of main group compounds including electron deficient compounds as well as the systematic study of the chemistry of the main group elements and compounds.

Prerequisites: CHEM 201

CHEM 350 - Organic Chemistry I

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-3)

The chemistry of carbon compounds. Structure-reactivity relationships, mechanism, stereochemistry, and spectroscopy are emphasized in the study of the main classes of organic compounds. Particular attention is paid to compounds of importance to biology and the chemical industry.

Prerequisites: CHEM 201

CHEM 351 - Organic Chemistry II

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-3)

A continuation of CHEM 350.

Prerequisites: CHEM 350

CHEM 370 - Physical Chemistry I

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-3)

This course introduces the various aspects of modern physical chemistry. Introductory notions of both macroscopic (e.g. thermodynamic) and microscopic (quantum mechanics) are introduced as is their connection through statistical mechanics. This is followed by a detailed examination of thermodynamics of chemical systems, including both reacting and non-reacting systems, electrochemistry, and of the factors which affect the rates of chemical reactions.

Prerequisites: CHEM 201, MATH 205; PHYS 241, 243 are recommended

CHEM 371 - Physical Chemistry II

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-3)

A continuation of CHEM 370.

Prerequisites: CHEM 370

CHEM 395 - Chemistry Seminar

Every Year, Full Year Course 1(0-1-0)

A weekly seminar through the entire academic year, exploring the contexts for the discipline of chemistry, including historical, methodological, ethical and societal dimensions, as well as current chemical topics of interest in basic research, industrial and environmental settings. Ethical and professional responsibilities for chemists in industrial, research and academic settings will be addressed, as well as other topics that explore the interface between chemistry and society. Students, faculty and visiting speakers will give presentations. This course will meet concurrently with CHEM 495, and from time to time with BIOL 395/495. It is required for third-year chemistry majors. First and second year students are strongly encouraged to attend presentations.

Prerequisites: Six credits in chemistry at the 300-level

CHEM 399 - Special Topics in Chemistry

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the chemistry faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: CHEM 200, 201; some topics may have more specific prerequisites

CHEM 400 - Biochemistry I

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-3)

This course is designed to introduce students to biochemistry. The focus of the lectures is on the structure and function of the chemical constituents of living organisms. The lectures cover such topics as the energetics of biochemical reactions, amino acids and peptides, protein structure and function, enzyme kinetics, bioenergetics, carbohydrates and carbohydrate metabolism.

Same as BIOL 470.

Prerequisites: CHEM 351

CHEM 401 - Biochemistry II

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-3)

This course is a continuation of CHEM 400. The topics covered include electron transport and oxidative phosphorylation, lipids and lipid metabolism, amino acid metabolism, nucleic acids and their metabolism, photosynthesis, the chemical structure of genes and chromosomes, protein synthesis, and the structure and function of biological membranes.

Same as BIOL 471.

Prerequisites: BIOL 470 or CHEM 400

CHEM 431 - Inorganic Chemistry II

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-3)

This course, a continuation of CHEM 330, introduces the chemistry of the transition metal, lanthanide and actinide elements of the periodic table. Following discussions of theories of chemical bonding and reactivity as well as stereochemistry, the chemistry of representative elements is considered in depth with particular emphasis on organometallic and biological chemistry.

Prerequisites: CHEM 330

CHEM 440 - Environmental Chemistry (Atmosphere/Environmental Organic)

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-3)

This course is an introduction to the chemistry of the environment and chemical toxicology. A study of chemical processes occurring in the atmosphere, natural and wastewaters, and soils. Mechanisms for the introduction of pollutants to the environment and methods for the removal of pollutants are studied. The focus is on anthropogenic sources of pollutants and their speciation, transport, and interaction with natural processes.

Prerequisites: CHEM 201, 351 (pre- or corequisite)

CHEM 441 - Environmental Chemistry (Soils/Water/Waste)

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-3)

This course is an introduction to the chemistry of the environment with an emphasis on water, soil and waste. Natural and contaminated surface and ground water will be covered as well as oceans. Soil chemistry will include a discussion of the chemical and physical properties of soil and will include discussion of the fate of and transport of both inorganic and organic pollutants. Chemical aspects of the generation, fate and disposal of wastes including domestic, industrial and nuclear will also be included.

Prerequisites: CHEM 350

CHEM 442 - Industrial Chemistry

2013-14, Fall 3(3-1.5-0)

An introduction to the major industrial chemical processes and chemicals. Emphasis will be given to processes and chemicals important in western Canada such as: heavy inorganic chemicals, petrochemical, forestry, agricultural, metallurgical, electronics and polymer industries. Resource persons from industrial research and development departments will participate extensively in the course and field trips to various facilities will be included.

Prerequisites: CHEM 351

CHEM 450 - Advanced Organic Chemistry

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-3)

The correlation between structure and reactivity of complex organic molecules is studied through reaction mechanisms. Concepts important to theoretical organic chemistry are introduced and applied. Laboratories focus on synthetic organic chemistry and physical organic techniques. Microscale organic techniques are utilized in the laboratory, as well as computer modelling of organic structures.

Prerequisites: CHEM 351

CHEM 460 - Synthesis, Purification, and Characterization

2013-14, Winter 3(2-0-4)

An advanced, integrated laboratory course utilizing synthetic methods from organic, inorganic and biochemistry. Students will perform a series of multi-step syntheses, followed by product purification and characterization, using chromatographic and spectroscopic methods extensively.

Synthetic techniques will include solid-phase synthesis and work with air-sensitive materials.

Prerequisites: CHEM 351, CHEM 431 (pre- or corequisite)

CHEM 470 - Advanced Physical Chemistry

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-1.5)

Classical theories of physics are incapable of dealing adequately with the properties of atoms and molecules and it is necessary to utilize quantum mechanical approaches. This course will commence with an introduction to the ideas underlying quantum mechanics and will lead to the development of seminal ideas such as uncertainty principle, wave mechanics, and Schrodinger's equation. The Schrodinger equation will be solved for a number of simple and simplified systems, including a hydrogen atom, a harmonic oscillator, and a rigid rotor. Applications to more complex atomic and molecular systems will also be explored, using a variety of tools including modeling and computer algebra systems.

Prerequisites: CHEM 371 and MATH 300. PHYS 300 is recommended.

CHEM 494 - Senior Independent Project

Every Year, Fall and Winter 2(0-1-3)

In this course students conduct an independent project, designed in consultation with the instructor. This project may be an independent research project in the laboratories at the University College, a cooperative project with a public agency, or a chemical literature research project. Other ventures are possible. Before the work commences, the student is required to submit a detailed proposal. Upon completion of the project, the results must be presented in the form of a paper and a seminar.

This course is only open to students registered in the 3-year B.A. or B.Sc. chemistry degree program and students in the environmental studies chemistry degree program.

Prerequisites: Six credits in chemistry at the 300-level

CHEM 495 - Chemistry Seminar

Every Year, Full Year Course 1(0-1-0)

A weekly seminar through the entire academic year, exploring the contexts for the discipline of chemistry, including historical, methodological, ethical and societal dimensions, as well as current chemical topics of interest in basic research, industrial and environmental settings. Ethical and professional responsibilities for chemists in industrial, research and academic settings will be addressed, as well as other topics that explore the interface between chemistry and society. Students, faculty and visiting speakers will give presentations. This course will meet concurrently with CHEM 395, and from time to time with BIOL 395/495. It is required for fourth-year chemistry majors. First and second year students are strongly encouraged to attend presentations.

Prerequisites: Six credits in chemistry at the 300-level

CHEM 497 - Senior Thesis

Every Year, Full Year Course 4(0-0-4)

Independent full-year research project, carried out under the mentorship of a faculty member. This project may be an independent research project in the laboratories at the University College or a cooperative project with another laboratory or agency. Upon completion of the project, the results are presented in the form of a senior thesis and a seminar. The CHEM 497 thesis research can also be carried out in a summer of full-time research work at The King's University laboratories or as an intern.

Prerequisites: Consent of the instructor

CHEM 499 - Directed Studies in Chemistry

Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

An opportunity to do advanced study of a special topic of particular interest to a student. Students work with a member of the chemistry faculty. Students must apply in advance to a member of the chemistry faculty.

Prerequisites: Six credits in chemistry at the 300-level, and consent of instructor

COMMUNICATION ARTS

Communication Arts explores how people create and sustain relationships and pursue goals by inventing, combining and interpreting systems of symbols. Studies in this highly interdisciplinary field include the formation of Christian perspectives on communication and application of those insights in spoken, written, embodied, graphic, musical, broadcast, published and wired messages. A minor or second concentration in Communication Arts is assembled from a wide array of communications-related disciplines centred on basic message-making concepts and strategies. Students of communication become purposeful, principled and versatile communicators in business, institutional, not-for-profit and cultural sectors. See the requirements for Minor/Second Concentrations for related courses.

CMNA 201 - Introduction to Communication Arts

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course introduces contemporary functional models of human communication, and proposes a Christian alternative perspective in which we are called to bless and serve society through a wide diversity of communicative forms. Guest speakers apply this perspective to a broad array of communications disciplines, and students use the model to critique communication exchanges varying from intimate interpersonal communication to mass media products.

CMNA 350 - Introduction to Motion Picture Production

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-3)

This course will examine the global film industry as both an art form and a business. Students will experience selected motion picture production activities in order to enhance their appreciation of the industry. This class will include lectures on film, viewing and discussion of film and practical experience in motion picture production. As a final project each student will produce their own short video.

Prerequisites: 3 credits of Drama or 3 credits of Communication arts or consent of the department

CMNA 395 - Journalism: Producing and Consuming "The News" in the 21st Century

Every year, Fall 3(3-0-3)

This is an applied writing course about news journalism in a variety of media, its function as business, art, and public service, and how the character of "The News" changes with new technology and social media. It examines what is included and excluded from "The News" and the impact of those choices on news consumers. Interviewing, journalistic ethics, liability, writing news stories and opinion pieces, and critical reflection on the role of "The News" in society will all be introduced. Media professionals in news-related careers will present. Students will contribute to the King's student newspaper.

Students who do not possess the prerequisite may have it waived upon demonstration of writing competence.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204 and ENGL 205

CMNA 396 - Intro To Editing & Publishing (formerly ENGL 396)

Subject to demand, 3(3-0-3)

This applied writing course introduces students to the technical aspects of the production of college student publications, including type composition, proof-reading, layout, and desktop publishing. Students will study newspaper format, design, and style, and will be introduced to the task of editing. The lab for the course involves membership on the staff of a student publication and either writing for the publication or participating in the technical production of the publication.

This course does not meet course requirements for a major/concentration in English. Students who do not possess the indicated prerequisites but who have a strong writing

Prerequisites: ENGL 204 and ENGL 205

CMNA 399 - Special Topics in Communication Arts

Subject to demand, 3(varies)

A course on a topic of special interest to a member of the communication arts faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: 3 credits of Drama or 3 credits of Communication Arts

CMNA 499 - Directed Studies in Communication Arts

Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

An opportunity to do intensive study of a special topic or applied communications project of particular interest to the student. Students work closely with a Communication Arts, Drama, or Visual Art faculty member in tutorial meetings. For directed studies in communication, students must apply in advance to the cooperating faculty member, and propose a subject of study.

Prerequisites: 6 credits in Drama or Communication Arts courses, three of which should be at the 300 level or higher

COMPUTING SCIENCE

Computing Science examines the use of algorithmic machines to solve problems, computer and software design, programming, information processing. It is inherently multidisciplinary drawing on insights from mathematics, logic, engineering, sociology and psychology. Computing contributes to nearly every area of academic pursuit, providing technique for the expansion of knowledge. Computing has moved to the core of how our society works, providing the means by which information is captured, analysed, manipulated, transmitted and stored. Given such a pivotal role for computing in our society, developing a Christian perspective is essential to examining fundamental assumptions inherent in the technology as well as to moving carefully in its further development.

CMPT 250 - Introduction to Computing Science

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-3)

An overview of computing concepts and technologies. Topics include: the history of computing, computing hardware, operating systems, application software, networks, and a discussion of the role of computing and information technologies in society.

CMPT 275 - Introduction to Programming and Problem-Solving (Formerly CMPT 300)

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-3)

An introduction to programming and a high-level, object-oriented programming language. Emphasis will be on programming as a problem-solving process which includes analysis, design, coding, testing, implementation and maintenance. Topics include: structured programming, modular design, data objects, variables, assignment, selection, iteration, procedures and functions, arrays and records. Object-oriented programming will be introduced. This course is open to first year students in the Computing Science program.

Co-Requisite: CMPT 250

CMPT 302 - Data Structures (Formerly CMPT 270)
Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-3)

The objective of this course is to introduce the basic concepts of programming data structures, including how to select and design data structures that are appropriate for particular applications. Topics include stacks, queues, lists, trees, search trees, graphs, and sets. This course provides a mixture of theoretical knowledge and practical experience. The study of data structures and algorithms is carried out within an object-oriented framework and programming language.

Prerequisites: CMPT 275

CMPT 304 - Web-Application Design (formerly CMPT 260)
2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-3)

This course includes description of Internet technologies, patterns, frameworks and best practices in the design and development of modern Web-application. The overall architecture of Internet applications will be examined. Students will use a current Internet development platform to create real-world Internet applications, involving client-side and server-side scripting, data security and dynamic connectivity. The social issues related to Internet applications will be discussed.

Prerequisites: CMPT 275

CMPT 305 - Object-Oriented Programming
Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-3)

This course will further develop object-oriented analysis, design and programming. Topics include: objects, classes, methods, messages, parameters, inheritance, encapsulation, polymorphism, reuse, algorithmic construction and distributed systems.

Prerequisites: CMPT 275

CMPT 310 - Database Management Systems (formerly CMPT 410)
2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-3)

A study of the structures and implementations of database management systems. Topics include: data models, normal forms for data relations, data description languages and query facilities.

Prerequisite: CMPT 304

CMPT 315 - Real Time Animation and Game Design
2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-3)

The objective of this course is to introduce the programming tools and techniques for creating interactive games and virtual reality simulations, and will focus primarily on programming aspects, including event loops and execution threads, rendering and animation in 3D, and multi-user games and networking. Other topics will include the history of computer/video game technology, game genres and design principles, and the social impact of games.

Prerequisites: CMPT 275, MATH 221

CMPT 320 - Software Engineering
2013-14, Winter 3(3-2-0)

This course is designed for students to work in groups on suitable projects to familiarize them with software engineering principles. This course will concentrate on Unified Software Development and Use Cases. Topics include: requirements specification, functional and object-oriented design, verification and maintenance, environments and engineering tools, the software lifecycle, human-computer interface, social and ethical issues.

Prerequisites: CMPT 370, 305

CMPT 330 - Concepts of Operating Systems
2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-3)

An overview of the major concepts of operating systems. Students will be introduced to some of the major operating systems through lectures and laboratory exercises. Topics include: operating system functions, system structure, memory management, correctness, scheduling, concurrent process co-ordination, secondary storage and file systems.

Prerequisites: CMPT 370

CMPT 340 - Programming Language Concepts
2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-3)

This course will survey the major types of programming languages. Topics include: programming language paradigms (imperative, logic, functional and object-oriented), parameter passing, control structures, data types and typing mechanisms, binding rules.

Prerequisites: CMPT 370

CMPT 350 - Computer Architecture
2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-3)

A study of the basic principles and issues of computer organization and architecture. Topics include: the Von Neumann architecture, CISC and RISC architectures, one and two pass assemblers, loaders and linkers, macro-processors, compilers, interpreters and operating systems.

Prerequisites: CMPT 275

CMPT 355 - Introduction to Computer Forensics

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-3)

Introduction to the basics of computer forensics, utilizing analytical and investigative techniques to identify, preserve, extract or collect, examine and interpret stored electronic information.

Prerequisites: CMPT 275

CMPT 360 - Discrete Mathematics

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-1.5)

An introduction to formal logical reasoning and mathematical theory in computing science. Topics include: fundamental logic, set theory, induction, relations and functions, languages, the principle of inclusion and exclusion, generating functions and recurrence.

Same as MATH 360.

Prerequisites: CMPT 275

CMPT 370 - Algorithm Analysis

2014-15, Fall 3 (3-0-3)

Introduction to algorithm analysis, asymptotic notation, and different types of algorithmic techniques (divide and conquer, greedy methods, dynamic programming, backtracking and local search methods), fundamental algorithms for searching and sorting, merging, hashing and graphing. Analysis techniques to estimate program efficiency will also be considered.

Prerequisites: CMPT 302

CMPT 399 - Special Topics in Computing Science

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the computing science faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: CMPT 250; some topics may have more specific prerequisites

CMPT 400 - Computer Networks

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-3)

An overview of the field of computer networking. Topics include architecture, layering, multiplexing, addressing and address mapping, routing, naming, network software development, distributed systems, security and the Internet.

Prerequisites: CMPT 330

CMPT 405 - Software Testing and Security

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-3)

This course addresses problems and solutions for long-term software maintenance and evolution, and for large-scale, long-lived software systems. Topics include software engineering techniques for large-scale projects, commercial-grade software testing of complex projects, legacy software systems, software evolution, software maintenance, re-use and programming efficiencies, computer systems and security from a development perspective. The social and professional issues that arise in the context of software engineering will be discussed.

Prerequisites: CMPT 305

CMPT 415 - Advanced Database Management Systems

Subject to demand, 3(3-0-3)

This course introduces advanced concepts associated with the design of databases, such as denormalization, query optimization, indexes, transaction processing and stored procedures, and database triggers. Data warehousing, data mining, distributed database topics, security and administration issues will also be discussed. The labs will examine features of a relational model database management system, and will culminate in a final project.

Prerequisites: CMPT 310

CMPT 420 - Numerical Analysis

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-3)

An introduction to numerical computation. Topics include computer arithmetic, root approximation, interpolation, numerical integration, applications to differential equations, and error analysis.

Same as MATH 420.

Prerequisites: CMPT 275, MATH 205, MATH 221

CMPT 430 - Theory of Computing

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-3)

An introduction into advanced topics in the theory of computation. Topics include: models of computers including finite automata and Turing machines, computability, computational complexity, basics of formal languages.

Prerequisites: Twelve credits in computing science at the 300-level; one of which must be CMPT 340 or 360

CMPT 440 - Computer Modelling

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-3)

An introduction to the use of computer modelling. This course will emphasize the usefulness and limitations of computer simulations and modelling in drawing inferences. Projects will be taken from a variety of topics and will be coordinated with faculty from other disciplines. Students who do not have the necessary prerequisites but can demonstrate a sufficient mathematical proficiency and computing competency can obtain consent from the instructor to enrol in this course.

Prerequisites: CMPT 420

CMPT 450 - Image Processing and Embedded Images

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-3)

This course introduces the topic of image processing, including a mathematical approach to understanding the technical aspect of how an image can be created, viewed and modified. Utilizing an image processing toolbox various images will be analyzed using standard algorithms, noisy or degraded images restored and enhanced for improved intelligibility, shapes and textures will be analyzed, and features of images will be embedded or extracted.

Prerequisites: CMPT 420

CMPT 470 - Perspectives in Computing Science

2013-14, Winter 3(0-3-0)

A senior level seminar course dealing with special topics in computing. Particular attention will be paid to computer applications, social impacts, ethical and legal issues, worldview perspectives and potential future developments in computing.

Prerequisites: Twelve credits in computing science at the 300-level and consent of instructor

CMPT 480 - Practicum I

Every Year, 3(130 hours)

This is a placement of 10 hours per week in a commercial, industrial or non-profit setting under the supervision of a computing professional. One of CMPT 480 and 481 must be in the non-profit sector. The intern will be expected to maintain a reflective journal and complete a summary paper.

Prerequisites: Twelve credits in computing science at the 300-level and consent of instructor

CMPT 481 - Practicum II

Every Year, 3(130 hours)

The second practicum placement. The requirements for this course are the same as for CMPT 480.

Prerequisites: CMPT 480 and consent of instructor

CMPT 496 - Research in Computing Science

Every Year, 3(0-1-3)

An independent project in computing science, designed in consultation with the instructor. This project may be either a software development project or a computing literature research project. Before work commences, the student is required to submit a detailed proposal. Upon completion of the project, the results are presented in the form of either a fully documented program or a research paper, and a seminar.

Prerequisites: Twelve credits in computing science at the 300-level and consent of instructor

CMPT 499 - Directed Studies in Computing Science

Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

An opportunity to do advanced study of a special topic of particular interest to a student. Students work with a member of the computing science faculty. Students must apply in advance to a member of the computing science faculty.

Prerequisites: Six credits in computing science at the 300-level, and consent of instructor

DRAMA

Drama involves the study of one's complete human resources in one medium, and is the art form that encompasses life in miniature. The University College offers introductory courses incorporating academic study, critical observation of plays and production experience. Instructors are working professionals in the theater, bringing day-to-day creative experiences to the classroom and production settings. This integrated approach to drama encourages a genuine and practical expression of faith in the learning process.

DRAM 202 - Introduction to Theater Art

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-3)

Discover how the traditions and practice of theatre in our society have developed, attend live theatre with classmates, and participate in play production projects that will inspire you to make the enjoyment of live theatre on ongoing part of your life.

DRAM 249 - Introduction to Dramatic Process

Every Year, Fall 3(0-0-6)

Develop skills for creating dramatic presentations using improvised as well as published and original scripts. This introductory course in stage acting and the play development/rehearsal process provides opportunities to become a more confident and successful team member in collaborative situations on and off the stage. Topics include story telling, play analysis, theatre appreciation, effective use of the voice and body in performance, mime and mask.

DRAM 305 - Ensemble Production I

Every Year, Fall 3(0-0-6)

Rehearsal and production of a full-length play for public performance: Students audition for production assignments in acting, stage management, and assistant directing in a play or a selection of scenes. Play analysis, scene study, rehearsal, and performance skills are practiced. Attendance at selected professional theatre productions is an aspect of this course.

Prerequisites: 3 credits in Drama or consent of the instructor

DRAM 310 - Stagecraft And Design

Every Year, Fall 3(0-0-6)

An introduction to the technical aspects of theatre: scenery design, construction, and painting, lighting and sound, properties, costume, and stage management. Students will undertake practical projects in one or more of the technical disciplines as part of a production company presenting the fall full-length play in the production studio.

Prerequisites: 3 credits in drama or permission of the instructor

DRAM 349 - Introduction to and Development of Oral Communication

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-3)

Learn to speak in public. Gain understanding of your speaking voice as physical instrument, and develop ways to make it work better for you. The life of an educated person presents many speaking opportunities: to entertain, to teach, to persuade, to negotiate, and to inspire in a wide variety of public settings. Drama 349 uses theatre-based techniques to develop public speaking skills and design effective oral presentations.

DRAM 355 - Intermediate Ensemble Production II

Every Year, Fall 3(0-0-6)

Further opportunity for rehearsal and production of a full-length play for public performance: Students audition for production assignments in acting, stage management, and assistant directing in a play or a selection of scenes. Play analysis, scene study, rehearsal, and performance skills are practiced. Attendance at selected professional theatre productions is an aspect of this course.

Prerequisites: DRAM 305

DRAM 399 - Special Topics in Drama

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic of special interest to a faculty member of the drama faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: Three credits in drama or consent of the instructor

DRAM 405 - Advanced Ensemble Production

Every Year, Fall 3(0-0-6)

Further opportunity for rehearsal and production of a full-length play for public performance: Students audition for production assignments in acting, stage management and assistant directing in a play or a selection of scenes. Play analysis, scene study, rehearsal, and performance skills are practiced. Attendance at selected professional theatre productions is an aspect of this course.

Prerequisites: DRAM 355

DRAM 499 - Directed Studies in Drama

Every Year, 1 to 3(varies)

This course gives the student an opportunity to do intensive production-related work in drama under the direction of an instructor. Prior to registering in the course, the student proposes a project focussing on a particular aspect of theatre production and takes major responsibility for that aspect. The student contracts to fulfill from 1-3 credits depending on the scope of the work undertaken.

Prerequisites: Six credits in drama and consent of the instructor

DUTCH

DUTC 200 - Beginners' Dutch I

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-2)

This course introduces the essentials of grammar, reading, and writing, and provides a working knowledge of the spoken and written Dutch language. It is not open to students with credit in grade 12-level Dutch.

DUTC 201 - Beginners' Dutch II

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-2)

This course is a continuation of DUTC 200.

Prerequisites: DUTC 200

ECONOMICS

Knowledge and understanding of economic issues enhance our political and social awareness. From a Christian perspective, the three major factors in production - labor, natural resources and capital - are treated in a distinctive manner. Labor is to be viewed not just as a factor in production, but as a creation of God deserving equity and social justice. Stewardship of natural resources is not merely the manipulation of inputs, but the responsible management of God's gifts. Consideration of capital requires going beyond the usual concerns of profit maximization or optimization under various forms of market structure to issues of social answerability with regard to both resources and labor. Evaluation of government economic policies is to take place from the broader perspective of Christian responsibility, rather than the narrower ones of either economic efficiency or political expediency.

ECON 201 - Introduction to Micro-Economics

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Economic analysis of problems and policies, mostly in the Canadian economy, with respect to the roles of consumers and firms in competitive and monopolistic markets, foreign ownership in the Canadian economy, the distribution of income, inequality and poverty, the use of the environment, and government economic policies.

This course is considered a Canadian Studies course for purposes of King's B.Ed. (AD).

Prerequisites: Mathematics 20-2 or 30-3

ECON 202 - Introduction to Macro-Economics

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Economic analysis of problems and policies, mostly in the Canadian economy, with respect to national income and monetary theory, unemployment and inflation, government monetary and fiscal policies, and international trade theory.

This course is considered a Canadian Studies course for purposes of King's B.Ed. (AD).

Prerequisites: Mathematics 20-2 or 30-3

ECON 300 - Introduction to Canadian Political Economy

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course will examine the relationship(s) between economics and politics, both as practice and theory. Central to this is the appropriate role of government in the economic life of Canadian (and other) society. The present controversies on these issues will be investigated and discussed, as well as their origins. It will be argued that the general course of economic and other development in rich and poor countries (including Canada) is decisively influenced by views taken on this issue; that various options for the future present themselves, and that options for change in political economy are linked to and will be resolved on the basis of fundamental/religious perspectives.

Prerequisites: ECON 202

ECON 301 - International Political Economy

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Analysis of the conflicting viewpoints that influence International Political Economy (IPE); tracing the structure and changing form of IPE in trade, finance, technology and information flows; analysing and evaluating the tension between states and international markets; examining the dynamics and impact of international centres of political-economic power on regions of the world that are small and vulnerable; investigation of the role of large corporations in the global political economy. Attention will also be given to the impact of the IPE on policies in Canada. Descriptive and evaluative data will be included and examined throughout.

Prerequisites: ECON 300

ECON 309 - Intermediate Applied Microeconomic Theory

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Expansion and deeper examination of the major microeconomic theories, including those related to consumer behaviour, production, market structures, and market failures. The role that these theories have played in the development of Canadian economic policies and goals will be a major focus of the course. Descriptive and evaluative data on the Canadian situation will be examined throughout.

Prerequisites: ECON 201, 202

ECON 310 - Intermediate Applied Macroeconomic Theory

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Expansion and deeper examination of the macroeconomic theoretical models for the functioning of an open macroeconomy, like that of Canada. This will include models that produce calculable estimates of the main macroeconomic variables, such as total output, the general price level and inflation, levels of employment, and causes and impact of fluctuations in the economy's performance. Descriptive and evaluative data on the Canadian situation will be included and examined throughout.

Prerequisites: ECON 201, ECON 202

ECON 315 - Ecological Economics

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course will focus on a number of aspects of the relationship between economics and the environment, including: determining the nature of and need for sustainability in economic processes; examining the linkages between development and the environment; examining the causes of and policy responses to resource and environmental degradation; introducing ways to measure the environmental impact of economic processes; and examining international and transfrontier environmental issues.

Prerequisites: ECON 201 or 202

ECON 325 - The Economics of Development

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course identifies the nature and causes of the development and underdevelopment of countries and regions, emphasizing the poor. It explores development as a multi-dimensional process of change that happens in the context of social, political, technical and cultural conditions. The focus here is how economics relates to most of these. An overview of main theories (including how they arose historically) will be given and the main current issues in development will be reviewed. Development policies in poor countries and regions as well as international efforts to assist in their development, will round off the course.

Prerequisites: ECON 201 or 202

ECON 330 - Behind the Market: Property, Value, Exchange

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course explores different understandings of the nature of and possibilities for wisely using markets by examining different approaches to some of its fundamental structures, viz. private property, value and exchange. In particular, this course seeks to "get behind" the taken-for-granted meanings of these phenomena and to question their constitutive and normative bases. It will ask such questions as: what does it mean to own something? What is the foundation of value? How do exchange relations relate to other human activities?

Prerequisites: Six credits of ECON 201, ECON 202, HIST 202, HIST 204, POLI 205

ECON 331 - History of Economic Thought

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course explores ideas and theories about economic life that have been developed from ancient times to the present, including (but not limited to) those of the major economic thinkers from Adam Smith onwards. These ideas will be analyzed in light of the economic, political, social and intellectual contexts that helped to shape them. By investigating this historical development, we will gain a better understanding of how current approaches to economics and economic policy-making came to be.

Same as HIST 304.

Prerequisite: ECON 201 or 202

ECON 399 - Special Topics in Economics

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or field of special interest to a member of the economics faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: ECON 201 or 202

ECON 461 - Opportunities and Issues in Globalization

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course creates awareness of the nature, development and implications of the powerful spread of trade and finance flows across the modern world. It analyses the positive and negative aspects of globalization and alerts students to the opportunities for responsible extension of economic activities (trade in particular) to countries, regions and parts of the world very different from Canada. The ethical, developmental and environmental dimensions of globalization will be integrated with the business aspects and options. Same as BUSI 461

Same as BUSI 461.

Prerequisites: ECON 202

ECON 499 - Directed Studies in Economics

Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

This course is designed to provide individual students with an opportunity to conduct supervised reading and research on a topic of the student's choice in consultation with a member of the economics teaching faculty. Student work in this course will be with a faculty member on a tutorial basis. Students must apply in advance to teaching faculty in economics for this course.

Prerequisites: Six credits in economics at the 300-level, and consent of instructor

EDUCATION

Each generation faces the important task of helping a new generation fulfill its calling in society. Education is an aspect of nurture that focuses on leading individuals into the system of beliefs, roles and responsibilities of a given culture. In modern post-industrial societies, the school has become the primary formal agent of education. Programs at The King's University College seek to work out concretely what the Christian faith means for education. The education courses at King's are designed to examine the role of schooling in society and to enable future teachers to develop the necessary Knowledge, Skills and Attitudes (KSA's) to qualify them for their task in the school.

EDUC 251 - Introduction to Teaching

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-3)

This course introduces the life of the professional teacher and lays the foundation to future courses in the teacher education program. The course consists of two activities: lectures exploring basic educational concepts and in-school observation of these concepts at work. Students participate in the life of classrooms and work with children at both elementary and secondary school levels.

Please see the current EDUCATION 251 PRACTICUM MANUAL for special information pertaining to the evaluation of this course.

EDUC 281 - Principles of Mathematics for Teaching

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course provides a study of foundational mathematical concepts and properties in the elementary and junior high curriculum. The course emphasizes conceptual understanding, reasoning, explaining why algorithms work, and problem solving. Topics include number systems, operations, fractional numbers, proportional reasoning, and aspects of geometry.

Same as MATH 281.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 30-2 or admission to the B.Ed (AD) program

EDUC 300 - Introduction to Western Educational Ideas

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Students receive an introduction to philosophical and ideological issues relating to educational thought and practice within the Western intellectual tradition. The course introduces the student to both traditional and contemporary theories of education as well as current efforts to develop a Christian approach to education.

Prerequisites: PHIL 230 and at least one education course

EDUC 301 - Educational Learning Theories and Applications

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Lectures and discussions focus on learning in the classroom situation: the processes by which students learn and the factors that facilitate/inhibit learning. Specifically examined are learning theories, motivational theories, cognitive styles, discipline practices and assessment approaches.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) program.

EDUC 303 - The Philosophy and Design of Curriculum Planning

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-1.5)

This course examines a variety of curriculum orientations and their implications for shaping educational goals, pedagogy, student evaluation, and school structure at the elementary and secondary levels. Students will also be introduced to the rigors of curriculum design; they will be required to construct an integral unit plan as the culmination of weekly lab exercises. This course accentuates the correlation between lesson planning, assessment and unit goals.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed (AD) program. Students with credit in EDUC 503 cannot receive credit in EDUC 303.

Corequisites: EDUC 300

EDUC 305 - Selected Elementary Teaching Methods and Materials

Every Year, Winter 10(0-5-0)

In this course students will learn about the methods and materials used in teaching subjects or topics such as: Biblical Studies, English as a Second Language, Science, Art, Social Studies, Physical Education and Health, Music and First Nations/Metis/Inuit Studies. Each curricular area is taught by a master elementary teacher who is currently teaching the subject under consideration. The course components are offered in one week modules of instruction with the exception of Curriculum Planning which runs for two weeks. The intent of each module is to help students acquire basic familiarity with the methods and materials of teaching these subject areas. The course is coordinated with the Introductory Practicum (EDUC 351). Credit for this course is awarded on a pass/fail basis.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) Elementary program.

EDUC 306 - Elementary School Language Arts

Every Year, Fall 3(3-1-0)

The focus of this course is the language arts curriculum in elementary grades. Topics include: language acquisition, the oral language base of reading and writing, as well as theories, methods and materials related to the teaching of listening, speaking, reading and writing. This course also addresses appropriate approaches to assessment. A weekly seminar period will be used to have students engage in micro-teaching opportunities. This course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) programs.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) programs.

EDUC 307 - Issues and Methods in Elementary Mathematics Teaching

Every Year, Fall 3 (3-0-1)

This course examines foundational and methodological issues in teaching elementary mathematics. It provides an overview of the elementary mathematics curriculum, both in content and theories of instruction. Using problem solving in context, this course explores the development of children's understanding of key ideas in mathematics and examines the role of mathematical discussion, the development of flexible mathematical reasoning and the use of assessment for learning.

This course is open only for students in the B.Ed. (AD) Programs.

EDUC 309 - Teaching with Literature for Children and Adolescents

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

In this course, students are introduced to a representative selection of contemporary children's authors and literary genres with a view to using children's literature in elementary language arts programs and across the elementary curriculum.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) programs.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205

EDUC 310 - Strategies for Teaching and Learning in Secondary Education*Every Year, Fall 3 (3-0-0)*

This is an introductory course on skill development in basic teaching and learning at the secondary level (primarily junior high). The course will focus on appropriate pedagogy, curriculum planning, classroom management. Special attention will be paid to assessment strategies for these age groups in relation to the Alberta Teaching Quality Standards.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) Secondary Program

EDUC 315 - Selected Secondary Teaching Methods and Materials*Every Year, Winter 3(0-5-0)*

In this course students learn about the methods and materials used to address themes in secondary education such as: English Language Learners, First Nations/Metis/Inuit Studies, and Assessment. Each topic is taught by an experienced master teacher. The course components are offered in one week modules of instruction. The intent of each module is to help students acquire basic familiarity with the challenges, methods and materials used to teach these topics. The course is coordinated with the Introductory Practicum (EDUC 353). Credit for this course is awarded on a pass/fail basis.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) Secondary Program.

EDUC 320 - Curriculum and Instruction in Secondary Mathematics and Sciences I*Every Year, Winter 4 (4-0-0)*

This curriculum and instruction course provides an in-depth study of the methods and materials used in the teaching of junior and senior high school mathematics and science with a special focus on the Alberta curriculum guides for subjects. This course helps Math and Science pre-service teachers to understand both the theoretical and pedagogical underpinnings of their major and minor teaching area. Topics covered include subject integration, planning, instruction and classroom management. Assessment issues will receive special attention throughout the course, this emphasis includes a dedicated Master Teacher module on Assessment.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) Secondary program.

EDUC 330 - Curriculum and Instruction in Secondary English Language Arts, Social Studies, Physical Education and Fine Arts I*Every Year, Winter 4 (4-0-0)*

This curriculum and instruction course provides an in-depth study of the methods and materials used in the teaching of junior and senior high school English language arts and social studies. Pre-service teachers in physical education and fine arts will also study the methods and materials used for teaching their subjects. Special focus will be given to Alberta curriculum guides for the relevant core and non core subjects. This course helps English language arts, social studies, physical education and fine arts pre-service teachers to understand both the theoretical and pedagogical underpinnings of their major and minor teaching area. Topics covered include subject integration, planning and instruction, with special attention given to assessment issues.

EDUC 341 - Psychology of Exceptional Children*Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-1)*

This course provides an overview of the major intellectual, academic, emotional, behavioural, sensory and physical exceptionalities that are encountered in classroom settings. Course participants will learn about the challenges and joys these exceptionalities pose for teaching and learning. Students will also examine such topics as the identification and diagnosis of these exceptionalities and the preparation of appropriate Individualized Educational Programs (I.E.P.s). Through the seminar component, participants will become familiar with learners with exceptionalities through credited volunteer activities. This course is open only to students in the B. Ed. (AD) Elementary and Secondary Programs.

his course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) programs.

Prerequisites: EDUC 351 or 353

EDUC 351 - Elementary Practicum I*Every Year, Winter 5(7 Weeks)*

This course provides students in the B. Ed. (AD) program with a reflective practicum experience that is coordinated with EDUC 305. Selected Elementary Teaching Methods and Materials. Students will spend approximately 40 hours in actual classroom instruction under the supervision of a certificated teacher and a faculty supervisor. During this time, students will also be required to assemble a teaching portfolio including detailed lesson and unit plans The concluding seminar will focus on student presentations of teaching experiences as well as analyses of these experiences in the light of the theory and methods course taken previously. Only students who pass EDUC 351 will be allowed to continue into the second year of the B.Ed. (AD) program. Credit for this course is awarded on a pass/fail basis. Please see the current EDUCATION 351 PRACTICUM MANUAL for additional information pertaining to the evaluation of this course.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed (AD) Elementary Program.

Prerequisites: EDUC 303, 305

EDUC 353 - Secondary Practicum I

Every Year, Winter 6(7 weeks)

This course includes a 6 week practicum experience in a junior or senior high school classroom plus a one week concluding seminar. The pre-service teacher will be given significant classroom teaching responsibilities. All participants will present a teaching portfolio during the concluding seminar. Details about the practicum requirements and evaluation criteria are provided in the EDUC 353 Practicum Manual. Only students who pass EDUC 353 will be allowed to continue into the second year of the B.Ed. Secondary Program. Credit for this course is awarded on a pass/fail basis.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) Secondary Program.

EDUC 363 - Childhood and Adolescence

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course examines the psychology of human development and change from the prenatal period to late adolescence. Specifically, development is considered chronologically in the sequence of infancy, early childhood, middle childhood, early, middle and late adolescence. The dimensions of development to be investigated include the physical, cognitive, emotional, social, academic, moral and religious aspects.

Same as PSYC 351. Students with credit in EDUC 263 or PSYC 350 cannot receive credit in EDUC 363.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251

EDUC 393 - Movement Activities for Children

Every Year, Fall 3(1-0-2)

Students will study movement activities for children in elementary school within a developmental framework. Special emphasis is placed on games, gymnastics and dance for children ages five to twelve years. The course combines theory, practical teaching experiences with children and critical reflection on these experiences in the context of children's physical development. This will include the study of free play and organized physical activities in recreational, educational, and sport environments.

Students with credit in EDUC 203 cannot receive credit in EDUC 393. Same as PHED 393.

EDUC 399 - Special Topics in Education

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the education faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: Some topics may have specific prerequisites.

EDUC 401 - Educational Administration

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course provides an historical perspective concerning issues in educational law and administration, diverse theoretical approaches to these issues, the interaction of these issues with schooling in the current context, and specifically, the impact such issues have on the classroom teacher. This course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) program.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) programs.

Prerequisites: EDUC 351

EDUC 403 - Advanced Curriculum Design

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

In this course, students will examine curriculum design principles that pertain to year long program planning. Major topics will include: use of the Alberta Program of Studies, cross curricular themes, essential questions, big ideas, learning activities, subject integration and assessment. Consideration will also be given to the variety of teaching and learning styles, cultural diversity, special needs and classroom management as these impact curriculum development. Students will design a scope and sequence for year-long plans as well as reflect on their learning through other assignments.

This course is open only to student sin the B.Ed (AD) programs.

Prerequisites: EDUC 303

EDUC 408 - Corrective Reading

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-2)

This course focuses on holistic diagnostic and corrective approaches for elementary grade students with reading problems. In addition to classroom based lectures and demonstrations, students develop their corrective reading teaching skills through campus-based, computer assisted instruction followed by work with an elementary pupil in a school setting and by preparing a major case study of their work.

This course is only open to students in the B.Ed. (AD) programs.

Prerequisites: EDUC 301, 306

EDUC 409 - Cross Curricular Literacy

Every Year, Fall 3 (3-1-0)

This course familiarizes secondary education students with the diverse literacy needs of the adolescent learner. Emphasis on the learning of teaching strategies that will help students comprehend expository texts in a variety of subject specializations. Students will explore reading and writing beyond the acquisition of skills, as well as, engage in discussions about critical, technological and media literacies.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) Secondary Program.

EDUC 410 - Classroom Management

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Theories of classroom management practices in the elementary and secondary school are explored. There is an emphasis on practical applications of those theories which are congruent with a Christian view of the child, authority, learning and responsibility.

This course is only open to students in the B.Ed. (AD) programs.

Prerequisites: EDUC 351 or 353

EDUC 412 - Socio-cultural Influences in Jr./Sr. High School

Every Year, Winter 2 (2-0-0)

This course examines the impact of contemporary culture on the adolescent educational experience. Utilizing a collaborative pedagogy, the course will challenge students to investigate how Canadian culture shapes school structure and the teaching/learning experience as well as its influence on adolescent self-perceptions and their views of others. The course examines issues such as ethnic, linguistic, socio-economic and religious diversity, gender, class, sexual orientation, home school interactions, and adolescent popular culture. Finally, the course encourages participants to consider how teachers might create a community of learners out of a diverse group of adolescent students.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) Secondary program.

EDUC 414 - Educational Technology

Every year, Fall 3(3-0-1)

This course explores the appropriate use of common information technology tools in teaching and learning. The course examines the foundational, theoretical, and practical issues of using technology in K - 12 classrooms.

In the event of enrolment pressures, preference is given to B.Ed. (AD) students.

EDUC 420 - Curriculum and Instruction in Secondary Mathematics and Sciences II

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course continues the examination of the main currents at play in mathematics and science education begun in EDUC 320. The nature of mathematics and science-both in terms of its formal outcomes as well as what it is to "do math" or science-will be explored. This will lead to a careful scrutiny of how curricula portray mathematics and science and how pedagogical practices can enable effective teaching in both disciplines. Students will also be exposed to current trends in educational technology and be challenged to see mathematics and science teaching within a broader cultural and religious framework. The course is closely coordinated with the EDUC 453 12 week practicum.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed. (AD) Secondary program.

Prerequisites: EDUC 320 or 330

EDUC 430 - Curriculum and Instruction in Secondary English Language Arts, Social Studies, Physical Education and Fine Arts II

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course focuses on the teaching of English language arts and social studies, at the Senior High level (grades 10-12). Pre-service teachers in physical education and fine arts will also focus on their respective subject areas. The programs of study of the Alberta government are studied and pre-service teachers are introduced to learning strategies, assessment theories and practices, and instructional management issues appropriate for Senior High students. The course is closely coordinated with the EDUC 453 12week practicum. Pre-service teachers are encouraged to be intentional about the strategies they use and reflective about their philosophy of education, view of human nature, and assumptions they employ. Finally, pre-service teachers have the opportunity to begin planning for the courses they will teach in their practicum.

This course is open only to students in the B.Ed (AD) Secondary program.

Prerequisites: EDUC 320 or 330

EDUC 451 - Elementary Practicum II

Every Year, Winter 15(12 Weeks)

This is the major practicum in the B. Ed. Elementary (AD) program. The student is assigned to a certificated teacher and is required to do a substantial amount of teaching on a graduated scale culminating in at least four weeks at the full-time level. Students need to earn a minimum B- on the Alpha 4.00 scale for EDUC 451 to be recommended for Interim Professional Certification. This course is only open to students in the B.Ed. (AD) Elementary program.

Details regarding evaluation criteria, grade appeals, and fees associated with long distance practica are provided in the EDUC451 Practicum Manual.

Prerequisites: EDUC 351

EDUC 453 - Secondary Practicum II

Every Year, Winter 12(12 weeks)

This course includes a 11 week practicum experience in a secondary level classroom plus a one week concluding seminar. The course is integrally connected with EDUC 420 and EDUC 430. The instructors of these curriculum and instruction courses, the faculty supervisor, and at least one mentor teacher will support the pre-service teacher and enhance teacher induction of new staff at the school where possible. Students need to earn a minimum B- on the alpha 4.00 scale for EDUC 453 to be recommended for Interim Professional Certification. This course is open only to students in the B. Ed. (AD) Secondary Program.

Details regarding evaluation criteria, grade appeals, and fees associated with long distance practica are provided in the EDUC453 Practicum Manual.

Prerequisites: EDUC 353

EDUC 499 - Directed Studies in Education

Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

This course provides an opportunity to do intensive study of a special topic of particular interest to the student. Students work closely with a faculty member in tutorial meetings. Students must apply in advance for special studies to the faculty member with whom they wish to work.

Prerequisites: Open to students in both the pre-B.Ed. and B.Ed. (AD) who have completed at least two senior-level Education courses.

EDUC 503 - Advanced Curriculum Design for the Classroom Teacher

Subject to demand, Summer 3(40 Hours)

This course aims at assisting teachers in the field and students enrolled in the B.Ed. (AD) (upon special approval), who have some curriculum development background and who wish to develop advanced skills in this area. Three elements make up the bulk of the course workload. First, participants will review the historical and philosophical context that shapes current curricular theory in both the Christian and public school. Secondly, participants will further develop specific curriculum writing skills. Finally, participants will complete a curriculum project (year plan, unit plan, etc.). The project will be evaluated in terms of its relevance to the participant's actual or anticipated teaching situation, its consistency with the participant's educational philosophy and its demonstration of the skills identified in the course. The significance of provincial programs of study, provincial curriculum guides and the utilization of thematic units will receive special attention in all three elements.

Students with credit in EDUC 303 cannot receive credit in EDUC 503.

Prerequisites: Experience as an in-service teacher or special permission to students enrolled in the TKUC B.Ed. (AD) program. In the latter case, EDUC 300 is also a prerequisite.

EDUC 505 - Selected Elementary Teaching Methods and Materials in Language Arts

Subject to demand 1(5-0-10)

In this mentoring course, participants will develop their proficiency in the methods and materials used in the teaching of elementary school Language Arts under the supervision of an inservice, elementary master teacher. Special attention will be paid to teaching language arts to ESL students. The course components are offered in a one week module of instruction/experience. Normally, instruction will take place in the master teacher's own classroom. The course is primarily designed to meet the needs of foreign trained teachers who want to learn up-to-date teaching methodology for language arts in a faith-based school setting. Neophyte teachers from Canada will also find the course useful. Credit for this course is awarded on a pass/fail basis. This course is not available to students in the B.Ed (AD) program.

Prerequisites: Canadian B.Ed. Degree or equivalent foreign teaching degree.

EDUC 506 - Selected Elementary Teaching Methods and Materials in Bible Studies

Subject to demand 1(5-0-10)

In this mentoring course, participants will develop their proficiency in the methods and materials used in the teaching of elementary Bible studies under the supervision of an inservice, elementary master teacher. The course components are offered in a one week module of instruction/experience. Normally, instruction will take place in the master teacher's own classroom. The course is primarily designed to meet the needs of teachers based in foreign countries who want to learn up-to-date teaching methodology for language arts in a faith-based school setting. Neophyte teachers from Canada will also find the course useful. Credit for this course is awarded on a pass/fail basis. This course is not available to students in the B.Ed. (AD) program.

Prerequisites: Canadian B.Ed. Degree or equivalent foreign teaching degree.

EDUC 507 - Selected Elementary Teaching Methods and Materials in Science

Subject to demand 1(5-0-10)

In this mentoring course, participants will develop their proficiency in the methods and materials used in the teaching of elementary school science under the supervision of an inservice, elementary master teacher. Participants will discuss the challenges surrounding a Christian perspective on science, evaluate current trends in science education, and observe practical ways to organize and manage a classroom. The course components are offered in a one week module of instruction/experience. normally, instruction will take place in the master teacher's own classroom. The course is primarily designed to meet the needs of foreign trained teachers who want to learn up-to-date teaching methodology for science in a faith-based school setting. Neophyte teachers from Canada will also find the course useful. Credit for this course is awarded on a pass/fail basis. This course is not available to students in the B.Ed. (AD) program.

Prerequisites: Canadian B.Ed. Degree or equivalent foreign teaching degree.

EDUC 508 - Selected Elementary Teaching Methods and Materials in Math

Subject to demand 1(5-0-10)

In this mentoring course, participants will develop their proficiency in the methods and materials used in the teaching of elementary school mathematics under the supervision of an inservice, elementary master teacher. Participants will discuss the challenges surrounding a Christian perspective on mathematics, evaluate current trends in math education, and observe practical ways to organize and manage a classroom. Prerequisites: Canadian B.Ed. Degree or equivalent foreign teaching degree.

ENGLISH

As a discipline, English has two aims. First, it seeks to increase students' appreciation and understanding of what makes a written text "literary" and why readers return to great literary works to provide pleasure and insight into the human condition. Second, it seeks to teach students, through the writing of critical essays, how to analyze and communicate effectively. The study of literature is largely the study of story and figures of speech and forms of language which are most brilliantly and extravagantly employed by poets, playwrights and writers of fiction. They also play a crucial role in other less obviously literary kinds of writing, like history, philosophy and science. The study of literature should therefore increase the students' awareness of the wondrous power of language to shape and illuminate (or when improperly used, to misshape and obscure) our place in creation. For journalism courses see the Communication Arts section.

ENGL 204 - Reading to Know, Writing to be Known: An Introduction To Literature I

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Through story we come to know ourselves and our world. An understanding of the structure and influence of stories can make us more discerning of our culture and more aware of our Christian assumptions. In this course, we focus on the narrative genres of the short story and the novel. As well as becoming more proficient and appreciative readers, students will, through integrated writing instruction, become more adept writers.

Students with credit in ENGL 210 cannot receive credit in ENGL 204.

ENGL 205 - Reading to Know, Writing to be Known: An Introduction to Literature II

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-0)

In this course we will explore language and literature with a study of poetry and drama. Through both lecture and discussion, we will challenge ourselves to relate the projects of reading with discernment, and writing with precision, to our Christian responsibilities as followers of "The Word".

Students with credit in ENGL 211 cannot receive credit in ENGL 205.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204 suggested

ENGL 304 - Stories of Becoming I: Literature from the Middle Ages to the 18th Century

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

To understand the stories that we tell, we must first understand the stories that precede us. To discover for ourselves how the past shapes the process of our becoming, we will consider the heritage of English literature from its earliest forms until the beginning of the 19th Century.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205

ENGL 305 - Stories of Becoming II: Literature from the 19th Century to the Present

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

A continuation of ENGL 304, this course will carry us forward to our own time. From the Romantics and Victorians, on through to the Modernists and Postmodernists, our readings will invite us to explore the relationship between individual works and the cultural contexts of which they are a part.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205, 304

ENGL 320 - The Play's The Thing: Shakespeare Today

2013-14, Winter 3(3-2-0)

Shakespeare's plays have enjoyed increasing popularity in the modern age, thanks to innovative stage and film interpretations. In this course, we will study representative tragedies, comedies and histories. Also, because Shakespeare was a working playwright, creating drama not for the classroom but for the stage, we will view contemporary film versions of the various plays in order to understand and evaluate the interpretive nature of dramatic production.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205

ENGL 327 - Between Science And Fiction: The Intersection of Psychology and Literature

2014-15, Winter 3 (3-0-0)

Human being, whether explored through themes of identity, self, or character, is a constantly evolving narrative we construct of ourselves and others. This course examines the intersection of psychological and literary narratives as they construct human being, and emphasizes how storytelling is a vital yet undervalued notion in contemporary society. We will question how human identity is created and communicated, while exploring the fringes of socially accepted behaviour to examine how norms are established, upheld, and challenged both in literature and psychology.

Same as PSYC 327.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205 and one of PSYC 250 or 251

ENGL 329 - Stranger than Fiction: Literature And Film

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course will examine the relationship between film and literature by studying films that have been adapted from literary texts. Like literature, films are narratives that can be examined and discussed using similar methodologies. However, film has its own distinct techniques and terminology. This course will augment our understanding of both art forms, as well as their complementary themes such as identity, memory, and violence.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205

ENGL 340 - Reason and Nature in 18th Century Literature

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

It is commonly assumed that writers in the historical period known as The Enlightenment see their primary responsibility to be the reasoned investigation of humanity and the natural world. In their preoccupation with rational thought, they limit introspection and circumscribe the concept of the Divine. In this course, we will investigate representative authors of "The Age of Reason" in order to evaluate the extent to which these preconceptions are true. We will consider both the artistry of their works and the cultural dimensions of their age.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205

ENGL 352 - Images of the Divine and the Human Imagination: Romantic Poetry

2015-16, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Descriptions of the Romantic period include such statements as, "God is in the trees and in the earth and in me." "God is in the sky." "Poetic inspiration is totally a product of the human mind." How are we to respond to these evaluations? This course will focus on Romantic poetry which expresses poets' intense interest in and expression of their engagement with questions about the relationship between the human mind and the mysteries of the Divine.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205

ENGL 356 - Writing the Empire: An Introduction to 19th Century Literature

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

In this course we will acquaint ourselves with the major genres and authors of the Victorian period. Through a chronological study of the literature, we will look at the ways writing during this era is shaped by social and political factors: the poverty and stress of the early industrial years, the excitement and promise of the mid-century, and the disillusionment of the later period. We will monitor the ways in which the various literary forms reflect in their stylistics the philosophical and theological concerns of 19th-Century British Imperialism.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205

ENGL 358 - The Sun never Sets: Introduction to Postcolonial Literature

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Although the field of postcolonial studies is relatively new, it has already produced an impressive body of literature and criticism for examining how British colonialism and imperialism have shaped the modern world. This course is intended to introduce the student to the key English literary texts and theoretical concerns in this ongoing discourse, including questions about race, nation, gender, and cultural identity. We will also address the historical role Christian theology played in colonialism, as well as its place in recuperative strategies of nationhood and equality. We will study novels, films and other media, from sources as varied as Canada, India, the Caribbean, Africa, and Great Britain.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205

ENGL 360 - Sabotaging Certainty: Modernist Literature

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

From the beginning of the 20th Century onward, many writers experienced and expressed skepticism about cultural mainstays. Since the great religions and philosophies of the world had not been successful in preventing two world wars, what validity did they have? We will engage the literature of this period bearing in mind the crucial role such questions play as writers express hope that art might assume the function of structuring reality.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205

ENGL 366 - Women's Words in the 20th Century

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Why do we need a course devoted exclusively to writing by women? Is such a focus divisive or even irrelevant in the context of contemporary culture? Is there something unique about women's writing? In this course we will address these and other questions by exploring poetry, stories, essays and diaries written by women. We will also consider whether gender plays a role in the way readers respond to women's writing.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205

ENGL 370 - Carving out a Nation: Canadian Literature Pre- 1970

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Canada is a nation carved out by words just as it is one hewn from stone and soil. This course will explore our emerging national identity through a diversity of voices in poetry and prose. We will follow the progression of Canadian literature from our colonial roots to the early postmodern period, investigating questions of literary, historical, and cultural significance.

This course is considered a Canadian Studies course for the purposes of King's B.Ed. (AD).

Prerequisites: ENGL 204 and 205

ENGL 371 - Mapping our Mental Geography: Canadian Literature Post- 1970

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Tracing our literary landscape reveals that contemporary Canada is constantly changing. This course will explore our shifting national identity through a diversity of voices in poetry and prose. We will follow the progression of Canadian literature from the early postmodern period forward, investigating questions of literary, historical, and cultural significance.

This course is considered a Canadian Studies course for the purposes of King's B.Ed. (AD).

Prerequisites: ENGL 204 and 205

ENGL 380 - The Once and Future King: Arthurian Legend and Literature

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Arthur of Britain has figured in legend from the 6th Century to the present day. What accounts for his enduring appeal and influence? In our quest for the answer, we will investigate the origins and interpretations of King Arthur and his Knights of the Round Table. Beginning with the earliest allusions to an historical Arthur, we will trace the creation and impact of the Arthurian legend from its medieval roots to its contemporary realization.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205

ENGL 385 - North American Short Stories: Bite-Sized Reading

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

In 1842, Edgar Allan Poe famously declared the short story to be fiction that conveys a single impression and can be read in a single sitting; since then, critics and authors have debated this definition. Meanwhile, perhaps surprisingly, the genre retains its popularity with the contemporary reading public - an audience whose time-demands dictate the brevity of that "single sitting" and whose culture is an increasingly visual one. In this course, we will examine the development of American and Canadian short stories from the late nineteenth-century to the present, including short story theories, definitions, and the tendentious story cycle. What does the short story reveal to the contemporary reader about past, current and possibly even future North American societies?

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205

ENGL 391 - Creative Writing: Short Story and Poetry

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course will provide an introduction to the writing of short stories and poetry. We will read and discuss literary models of each form, but the critical focus will be on students' own work. Writing throughout the course, students will explore and experience the writer's task, role, and creative process

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205, submission of a portfolio, and permission of instructor

ENGL 398 - Student Publications I

Every Year, Full Year Course 3(0-0-6)

This course, designed for editors of student publications, gives the student an opportunity to do extensive work on student publications under the supervision of a faculty advisor, and thus learn in an applied context the complex function of a publication. This involves editorship of either the student newspaper, "The Chronicle", or the annual creative arts publication, Ballyhoo. Students should expect to spend 100 hours per term on the publication and must attend applicable College workshops and keep a log of time and activities. Mark for the course will be pass/fail. The maximum enrollment for this course is two students per publication.

Prerequisites: Consent of publication advisor

ENGL 399 - Special Topics

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the English faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: ENGL204, 205

ENGL 404 - Anxiety to Apotheosis: Literary Theory from Plato to Pater

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Are fictional stories harmful lies, or are they the embodiments of sacred inspiration? The debate over the nature and worth of imaginative literature has oscillated between the extremes of anxiety over its negative powers to euphoria over its apothecotic potential. In this course we will conduct a chronological study of some of the most influential statements in literary theory from the classical period to the conclusion of the 19th century. Theoretical approaches have become central to literary discussions in the 20th century, and they promise to maintain their dominant position into the new millennium. A sound understanding of contemporary theoretical practice is dependant upon an awareness of, and a familiarity with, the major historical discussions that inform it. This course will investigate the issues and assumptions that characterize the theory of the earlier periods, and in so doing, it will prepare students grapple with the theoretical concerns of our own era.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205 and at least three credits in English at the 300-level.

ENGL 405 - Unpacking the Text: 20th-Century Literary Theory

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

The 20th Century saw an explosion of theory, prompting us to rethink our understanding of literary texts and contexts. Viewing these against the backdrop of early 20th-century criticism, we will examine and apply the approaches taken by recent schools of theory such as Reader Response, Deconstructionist, Feminist, and Post-Colonial.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205 and at least three credits in English at the 300-level.

ENGL 410 - Negotiating the Past: The Literature of the Middle Ages

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

How are we to understand literature which remains distant from us in time, space, and even language? Although we may be able to appreciate the artistry of early writing, only by placing it within its cultural context can we fully value the achievement of the past. We will therefore consider the political, social and religious climate of the Middle Ages in our investigation of the rich literary tradition represented by authors of the 13th and 14th Centuries.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205 and at least three credits in English at the 300-level.

ENGL 430 - Milton and the 17th Century

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

In this survey of 17th-Century literature, we will explore the ways that writers of this era both register and precipitate the changes that take place during the period. We will also investigate the tensions that exist between the old and the new as early modern thoughts about society, science and the sacred take shape.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205 and at least three credits in English at the 300-level.

ENGL 480 - Am I that I Am? The Search for Self in the Novel

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

The search for self is a recurrent theme that raises a number of questions regarding both identity and the way writers grapple with this concept. This course examines novels from the 19th and 20th Centuries. We will investigate how writers have confronted the idea of the self as well as how this problematic issue affects such strategies as omniscient narration, narrative voice and relationship between writer, reader and text.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205 and at least three credits in English at the 300-level.

ENGL 489 - Special Studies in Literature

Subject to demand 3(3-0-0)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the English faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205 and at least three credits in English at the 300-level.

ENGL 495 - Senior English Seminar

Every Year, Winter 3(0-3-0)

This course is designed to help graduating English literature students to explore in depth foundational questions in the discipline. Students study basic methods of research with special attention to problems in scholarship in English literature. The course involves a research project leading to a scholarly critical essay.

Prerequisites: Six credits in English at the 300-level

ENGL 498 - Student Publications II

Every Year, Full Year Course 3(0-0-6)

This course allows students to do a second year of work on a student publication, as described in ENGL 398 above.

Prerequisites: ENGL 398

ENGL 499 - Directed Studies in English Literature

Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

This course gives an opportunity to do intensive study of a special topic or writer of particular interest to the student who will work closely with a member of the English faculty in tutorial meetings. Students must apply well in advance to a member of the English faculty in order to undertake a Directed Study. ENGL 499 is normally taken by students who are majoring in English.

Prerequisites: Six credits in English at the 300-level, and consent of instructor

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIESENVS 200 - Introduction to Sustainability

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course introduces the concept of sustainability, including its environmental, social and economic dimensions. Students will trace the history of sustainable development and explore how humans can take action to reverse harm and improve sustainability. Particular attention will focus upon sustainability in Edmonton.

ENVS 300 - Humankind and the Biosphere

Every Year, Fall 3(3-2-0)

This course is a discussion of humankind's place in nature and of its responsibility for other organisms, the environment and resources.

Prerequisites: Three credits of natural science

ENVS 399 - Special Topics In Environmental Science

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the environmental science faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: ENVS 300; some topics may have more specific prerequisites

ENVS 410 - Resource Planning and Environmental Management

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Study of decision processes used to conserve, develop and manage environmental resources. Consideration of approaches to the evaluation of resources, including economic, environmental and social assessment techniques. Selected Canadian and Alberta case studies of resource management issues and problems.

This course is considered a Canadian Studies course for purposes of King's B.Ed. (AD).

Prerequisites: ENVS 300 and GEOG 310

ENVS 450 - Environmental Impact Assessment

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Examination of the EIA process from both institutional and scientific perspectives. Consideration of legislative and policy aspects. Survey of EIA methods. Contemporary issues in EIA, including cumulative effects and post-auditing. Monitoring of, or participation in, contemporary Canadian or Alberta cases.

This course is considered a Canadian Studies course for purposes of King's B.Ed. (AD).

Prerequisites: ENVS 300, GEOG 310

ENVS 470 - Ecopsychology

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

An exploration of the psychological dimensions of our dependence on God's creation and our responsibility to care for it. The psychological contributions to and consequences of environmental problems, and the potential for psychological intervention, will be examined from a Christian perspective.

Same as PSYC 470.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251, and ENVS 300 or nine credits in psychology at the 300- or 400-level including PSYC 301.

ENVS 478 - Environmental Modeling

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-3)

An introduction to techniques and software programs used to model biological, chemical, physical or environmental phenomena. Laboratory work will be tailored to students' interests and needs.

Same as BIOL 478.

Prerequisites: MATH 200 or STAT 300 or BUSI 320; GEOG 350 recommended

ENVS 490 - Internship

Every Year, Summer 3 (0-3-0) (pass/fail)

A 13-week placement in the workplace, normally between years three and four. Student interns, with University College assistance, will be placed in government, industry or nongovernment agencies to apply their environmental skills and gain valuable employment experience. Students are eligible for an environmental internship if they have satisfactorily completed an interview with the Director of the Environmental Studies Program to assess progress in their program of study, ascertain preparation and readiness for an internship, and evaluate ability and commitment to completion of year four of the degree program.

Prerequisites: Admission to year four of ENVS program with an overall GPA of 2.50

ENVS 491 - Internship Reflections and Issues

Every Year, Fall 3(0-3-0)

Student presentations on their internships. Seminar discussion, readings and assignments on reports, experiences and issues arising from internships.

Prerequisites: Completed internship in Environmental Studies

ENVS 499 - Directed Studies In Environmental Science

Subject to demand 1 to 3 (varies)

An opportunity to do advanced study of a special topic of particular interest to a student. Students work with a member of the environmental studies faculty. Students must apply in advance to a member of the environmental studies faculty.

Prerequisites: consent of instructor

GEOGRAPHY

GEOG 201 - Physical Geography

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-3)

An introduction to the earth's major planetary components, including geological, hydrological, global climate systems and land forms. The origins of these features and the processes that influence the characteristics of landforms, vegetation and soils are discussed.

This course meets the natural science (with lab) breadth requirement for the B.A.

GEOG 310 - Landscapes and Human Settlements

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-3)

The relationship between the natural environment and development of settled landscapes from a geographic perspective. Spatial distribution of biophysical landscapes and location analyses of agricultural, urban and industrial systems in Canada and elsewhere. Introduction to landscape interpretation using maps and aerial photographs.

This course is considered a Canadian Studies course for purposes of King's B.Ed. (AD).

Prerequisites: One of POLI 205, ECON 201, 202, GEOG 201

GEOG 350 - Geographical Information Systems

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-3)

An introduction to the principles and applications of GIS. Hands-on lab assignments focus on data input and manipulation, spatial problem solving, and map presentation using GIS software on micro-computers. Students complete a GIS-based project.

Pre- or Corequisite: Three credits in computing science or STAT 300 or consent of instructor

GEOG 399 - Special Topics In Geography

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the geography faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: GEOG 201; some topics may have more specific prerequisites

GEOG 450 - Advanced Geographic Information Systems

Every Year, Fall 3(3-3-0)

This course provides an advanced investigation into the principles and applications of geographic information systems. Hands-on lab assignments focus on geo-databases, metadata, data input, relational databases, advanced map design, and advanced techniques using GIS software. Students mentor introductory students, complete a paper and complete an advanced project.

Prerequisites: GEOG 350

GREEK

GREK 205 - Elementary Greek

Subject to demand, Full Year Course 6(3-0-2)

This course is an introduction to classical Greek with emphasis on grammar and on building basic vocabulary. It includes the reading of simple texts and, in the second term, the reading of Xenophon's Anabasis.

GREK 207 - Introductory Koine Greek I

Subject to demand 3(3-0-1)

An introduction to essential grammar and vocabulary to give students a reading knowledge of Koine Greek, the language of the New Testament.

GREK 208 - Introductory Koine Greek II

Subject to demand 3(3-0-1)

This course continues to introduce students to New Testament (Koine) Greek. Students will continue learning the basic Greek grammar and vocabulary while translating selections from the Greek New Testament.

Prerequisites: GREK 207

GREK 305 - Readings in the Greek New Testament

Subject to demand, Full Year Course 6(3-0-0)

This course begins with a review of Greek grammar. It continues with extensive and intensive readings in the Greek New Testament. Students will build on the Greek grammar and vocabulary learned in GREK 205, and increase their ability to read the text of the New Testament. Students will begin to learn linguistic exegetical skills.

Prerequisites: GREK 205

HISTORY

Courses in history seek to introduce students to a Christian understanding of the nature of history. The primary objective is to achieve a clear Christian perspective on the development of western civilization so that students may become more sensitive to the nature of cultural formation and grow in their understanding of the times in which they live and work.

HIST 202 - Western Civilization: European History from the Classical Age to 1648

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course surveys the history of western civilization from the classical age of Greece and Rome to the period of the Counter-Reformation and the age of religious wars in the 17th century. It deals with the rise of Christianity, the broad sweep of medieval history, and the eras of the Renaissance and Reformation.

HIST 204 - The West and the World, 1500-Present

Every Year, Winter 3 (3-0-0)

This course seeks to introduce students to the broad contours of world history since 1500. Although aspects of the history of the "West" and the "World" will be treated as discrete entities, a particular concern will be to explore the complex interactions between the two. The course will begin with the period from the European encounter with the Americas and conclude with an examination of war and terrorism in the 21st century Middle East.

Students with credit in HIST 203 cannot receive credit in HIST 204.

HIST 304 - History of Economic Thought

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course explores ideas and theories about economic life that have been developed from ancient times to the present, including (but not limited to) those of the major economic thinkers from Adam Smith onwards. These ideas will be analyzed in light of the economic, political, social and intellectual contexts that helped to shape them. By investigating this historical development, we will gain a better understanding of how current approaches to economics and economic policy-making came to be.

Same as ECON 331.

Prerequisites: ECON201 or 202

HIST 308 - A History of Modern Social Thought

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course deals with some of the major political, social and economic ideas and movements since the Enlightenment. Among the topics covered are: classical democratic liberalism, conservatism, marxism, democratic socialism, the development of the social sciences and the role of ideology.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 309 - Reformation Europe, 1348-1648

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course deals with the breakdown of medieval Christendom and the emergence of the Renaissance and Reformation movements. It also deals with the major intellectual, political, social and economic developments until the end of the Thirty Years' War. Among the topics covered will be the age of "discovery," the wars of religion, witchcraft, science, and the new state systems and cultures that emerged in early modern Europe.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 314 - Nineteenth Century Europe

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course deals with the major intellectual, political, social and economic changes during the 19th century in the period from the French Revolution to the eve of World War I. Among the topics covered are: the impact of the French Revolution; the nature of romanticism; social classes and reform; revolutionary movements; liberalism, nationalism, imperialism, and socialism; the new state systems.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 316 - Europe in the Age of Enlightenment
2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course deals with the major political, social, and intellectual movements from the late 17th century to the eve of the French Revolution. Among the topics covered are: science and philosophy in the 18th century, political theory and practice in the age of democratic revolutions, political economy, philosophies and the propaganda of the Enlightenment and religion in an age of reason.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 317 - Christian Social and Political Movements
2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course examines the development of Christian social and political ideas and movements within Roman Catholic and Protestant traditions since the French Revolution (1789). It explores the context in which these movements arose, their distinctive ideas and strategies, as well as the practical changes they advocated. Special attention will be given to the way these movements tackled several key contemporary issues and the eventual outcomes of these efforts.

Same as POLI 317 and SOCI 317.

Prerequisites: HIST 204 or POLI 205 or three credits in sociology at the introductory level.

HIST 318 - Twentieth Century Europe
2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course deals with the major intellectual, political, social and economic changes since World War I. Among the topics covered are: the legacy of the Great War, the Great Depression, democracy and totalitarianism, World War II, the Cold War, decolonization, European unification, and major trends in thought, sciences and religion.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 321 - World History, 1500-1800
2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course will consider in depth major themes in World History from 1500-1800 and help students think analytically about the interaction between the Western and non-Western worlds during this time period.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 322 - World History, 1800 - Present
2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course will consider in depth major themes in World History since 1800 and help students think analytically about the interaction between the Western and non-Western worlds during this time period.

Prerequisites: HIST202 or 204

HIST 324 - Global Christianity Since 1500
2015-16, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course will explore the global growth of Christianity since 1500, a process that raises pressing historical and theological questions. Why did Christianity "succeed" in some times and places, but not in others? How has Christianization been implicated in processes of Western imperialism and conquest? And what cross-cultural processes or transferences occur when Christianity infuses a new culture? We will examine these questions in depth by examining the global spread of Christianity to the Americas, Asia and Africa after 1500.

Same as THEO 360.

Prerequisites: HIST 204

HIST 325 - The Cold War
2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course examines the Cold War from its origins to its denouement. It examines the escalation of the conflict from the end of the Second World War through the ERP, the Korean War, Cuba and Vietnam, up to and including the collapse of communism and the fall of the Berlin Wall. This course explicitly focuses upon key hotspots (Cuba, Vietnam), the main protagonists (Kennedy and Khrushchev, Reagan and Gorbachev) and social, cultural and economic aspects of the Cold War (including music, film, literature) to build an integrated view of the Cold War by examining it from different disciplinary perspectives. It includes a sustained engagement with both the historiography of the Cold War, and the relevant primary sources from the period.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 344 - Tudor Britain
TBA 3(3-0-0)

This course consists of a study of the life of Britain and her peoples from the late 15th to the early 17th century. Primary attention will be given to England. Topics to be covered include: the essence of the English Reformation, Tudor rebellions, Edwardian Protestantism and Marian reaction, the Elizabethan Settlement and the origins of Puritanism.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 345 - Stuart Britain
2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course is designed to give students an appreciation for the basic themes of British history from 1603 to 1688. A concluding survey covering the period from the Glorious Revolution to 1714 is included. Some prominent topics are:

Anglicans and Puritans, Cromwell and the Holy Commonwealth, radical social thought and foreign relations.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 346 - Medicine and Society in the Atlantic World: 1660-1918

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course seeks to explore the role which medicine has played in the shaping of North Atlantic societies from the Great Plague of London in the mid-17th century to the Spanish Influenza epidemic of the early 20th. Topics to be discussed include physicians and surgeons, quacks and "irregulars", disease and diseases, hospitals, the practice of medicine, the changing nature of surgery, women and medicine, and medicine and empire.

Prerequisites: 3 credits in history

HIST 347 - Britain in the 18th Century

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course seeks to provide an introduction to British history in the long eighteenth century. It will consist of a combination of lectures by the instructor and seminar discussions based on readings in the most recent historical literature. While the primary focus is on English history, there will be some consideration of Ireland, Scotland and the 18th century Empire.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 348 - Victorian Britain and Empire

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

A study of British domestic and foreign issues during the Victorian and Edwardian eras. Topics for consideration include: Victorian thought and society; the era of Gladstone and Disraeli; the Irish problems; and the nature of the Church of England and the rise of evangelicalism.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 351 - The Civil War: The United States to 1865

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

The main purpose of this course is to answer the question: why did Americans fight the Civil War (1861-1865)? Understanding the origins of this most destructive of American conflicts requires a long view of American history. Topics include: European and African migrations during the colonial period; contact and conflict with Native peoples; development of religious and political institutions; the American Revolution; slavery and sectionalism; westward expansion and "Manifest Destiny."

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 352 - American Empire: The United States, 1865-Present

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Is the United States an empire? This course examines America's movement from isolationism to imperialism and sole world superpower, especially during the 20th century. This course offers an introductory survey of the history of the United States from the aftermath of the Civil War to the aftermath of 9/11. Topics include: Reconstruction; race relations and the rise of the Civil Rights movement; immigration; religious and political culture; and pivotal conflicts such as the Spanish-American War, the world wars, and the Cold War. We also will consider the economic, military, cultural and religious dimensions of the global assertion of American power over the past century.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 353 - Political History of the United States, 1776-present

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course in American government examines the history of political institutions in the United States from Independence in 1776 to the present day. This course explores the origins of the Constitution, the functions and historical evolution of the three branches of the federal government (executive, legislative, judiciary) as well as the roles of political parties, interest groups, public opinion, and the media. It also studies important historical case studies (over issues such as race, slavery and civil rights; civil and religious liberties; family and privacy law; and economic and environmental policy) that demonstrate how American political culture has changed over time. This course is decidedly interdisciplinary in approaching the subject using the methodologies of history and political science.

Same as POLI 353

Prerequisites: one of HIST 202, HIST 204, POLI 205

HIST 359 - Environmental History of the Americas

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course is designed to do two things. First, we will ask the question "What is environmental history?" as a way to introduce the students to the theoretical and disciplinary issues that drive this emerging academic field. Second, we will explore the history of our relationships with the environment and the Americas since the arrival of humans; particular comparisons will be made between aboriginal and Euro-American ideas and practices. The goal is to show that nature, too, has a history, and to provide historical context for our current concerns about environmental degradation.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 360 - A History of Canadian Civilization:
1500-1867

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course examines significant events, themes and personalities in the Canadian past from the European explorations to the movement toward Confederation. Particular attention is given to the formative intellectual and cultural currents of this period, in order to help develop an adequate foundation for both the study of recent Canadian history and the understanding of contemporary Canadian society.

This course is considered a Canadian Studies course for purposes of King's B.Ed. (AD).

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 361 - A History of Canadian Civilization: 1867-Present

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course deals with the major themes of Canadian history from the time of Confederation to the present. Among the topics covered are: the development of cultural communities, the Confederation era, social and economic developments, regionalism, political traditions, immigration and multiculturalism.

This course is considered a Canadian Studies course for purposes of King's B.Ed. (AD).

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 364 - Futures in the Past: Historical Theology

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

A study of important stages in the development of Christian doctrine and some of the major figures in the history of Christian theology. We will examine the influence of social, political and cultural contexts on doctrine and theology, and ask the question whether and how a study of the Christian past might give shape to the church, theology and Christian faithfulness in the present and future.

Same as THEO 364.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 371 - Historical Methods

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course is intended to provide history and PHE majors with a hands-on, practical introduction to historical methods and the art, craft, and science of historical reconstruction and writing. It will consider various types of evidence which historians use, the questions they ask of the past and ways in which they attempt both to reconstruct and to explain what happened.

Prerequisites: 6 credits in History

HIST 372 - Historiography And Theory

2013-14, Winter 3(0-3-0)

In this course we will address this question: what is history? We will consider the history of history writing (historiography) largely as it has developed in Western culture. We will also explore the meanings of contemporary critical theory (postmodernism, deconstruction, post-structuralism, feminists theory) for history as a discipline, and analyze alternative forms of history - film, fiction, and theme parks, for example - that make truth claims about the past. Finally, we will also discuss history through the lens of a Christian worldview, asking what differences Christian perspectives make in understanding the past.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 373 - War and Peace

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Blessed are the peacemakers, said Jesus, and this course offers an interdisciplinary inquiry into the issues of war and peace in the Western tradition. The course will mix philosophical and theological approaches (just war theory, humanitarian intervention, and Christian non-violence, for example) with historical case studies (especially the Crusades and the Second World War but also reaching to contemporary conflicts such as the "War on Terror"). This will be a seminar-style course based on weekly discussion of a common set of readings. The goal is to provide students with a heightened awareness of the range of perspectives on war and peace both in the past and in our world today.

Same as POLI 373.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 and 204 or POLI 205

HIST 380 - A History of Modern Russia

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course is designed to develop an understanding of the rise of Russia to world prominence. The course emphasizes political, social, and economic forces and institutions, the motives behind the Russian Revolution, the establishment of the Communist order, and Russia's role as a world power in the 20th century.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 382 - Stalinism: Terror, Progress and Belief

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course examines the contours of the Stalinist period of modern Russian history. It provides a comprehensive and detailed appraisal of the system that emerged in the USSR in the 1930s until the year of Stalin's death in 1953. This course includes sustained engagement with the historiography of Stalinism, and uses a variety of different sources - texts, newspapers, memoirs, posters, films, literature, music - to explore different aspects of the Stalinist system in order to understand what Stalinism was, how it emerged and how it worked in practice. It also appraises how Stalinism has been remembered East and West, and examines the treatment of Stalin in recent biographies.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 390 - The Second World War
2013-14, Winter 3(3-00)

This course examines the history of the Second World War, adopting a thematic and a comparative approach in order to explore some of the contested issues in our understanding of this key moment in twentieth century history, and of subsequent ways in which this war has been interpreted and represented by historians, commentators and politicians. This course examines a range of different source material as it explores some of these questions - visual, textual, official - and seeks to understand the forces which continue to shape our world today. Throughout the course we will debate and reflect upon what it means to study the past as Christians, and seek to develop a Christian perspective on key issues and developments.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 399 - Special Topics in History
Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the history faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

HIST 460 - History of Christianity in Canada
2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course seeks to examine various aspects of the religious culture of British North America and Canada from the 18th century to the present. It will consist of a combination of lectures by the instructor and seminar discussions based on extensive readings in the most recent literature. Among the topics to be considered are Protestant-Catholic relations, evangelicalism, ultramontanist, the Victorian crisis of belief, the social gospel, secularization, fundamentalism, and popular religious culture. Readings in English, Scottish, Irish and American religious history are intended to provide a transatlantic and comparative perspective on the Canadian scene.

Prerequisites: HIST 360 or HIST 361

HIST 497 - Research Project
Every Year, Fall 3(0-0-3)

Students will carry out an independent research project under the supervision of one of the professors in the department.

Prerequisites: Completion of 84 credits and consent of the instructor

HIST 498 - Research Project
Every Year, Winter 3(0-0-3)

Students will carry out an independent research project under the supervision of one of the professors in the department.

Prerequisites: Completion of 84 credits and consent of the instructor

HIST 499 - Directed Studies in History
Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

This course is designed to provide students with an opportunity to conduct supervised research on a topic which they choose in consultation with a member of the history department. An emphasis will be placed on research methods, problems of interpretation and the art of writing.

Prerequisites: Six credits in history at the 300-level, and consent of instructor

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

Interdisciplinary Studies courses examine worldviews, the interrelation between academic disciplines and cultural issues. The goal of these courses is to discover how all of creation works together to the glory of God the Creator.

INST 200/210/300/310/400/410 - Interdisciplinary Perspectives I/II/III/IV/V/VI
Every Term, 0.5(0-1-0)

This course is offered in the form of a two-day conference each term. Each student carrying at least 9 credits must register for this Interdisciplinary Short-course Conference each term up to a total of 3 credits, and must complete a follow-up assignment each term which may include attendance at subsequent seminars. These Short-course Conferences with provocative outside speakers are designed to introduce students to foundational issues, including the nature of scholarship at a Christian liberal arts college such as King's, the unity of created reality, and the ambivalent relationship Christians have with our society, and also to cultivate students' consideration of complex issues. Mark for the course will be pass/fail.

Students with credit in INST 495 cannot receive credit in INST 200 and 210.

Prerequisite: Student's must follow the sequence of INST 200, 210, 300, 310, 400, 410.

INST 499 - Directed Studies in Interdisciplinary Studies
Every term, 0.5 to 3 (varies)

An opportunity to do advanced study of a special topic of particular interest to a student. Students work with a member of faculty. Students must apply in advance to the Director of Interdisciplinary Studies. Enrollment in this course is restricted to those presenting exceptional circumstances. No more than one INST 499 course may be applied to the degree.

Corequisites: INST 200, 210, 300, 310 or 400

MATHEMATICS

Mathematics uses deductive reasoning to explore the numerical and spatial aspects of creation. Abstracting particular attributes of empirical phenomena, it describes the properties and relationships that apply to all situations exhibiting a shared set of characteristics. As such, mathematics provides a quantitative framework for many disciplines, and forms "the language of science". A Christian perspective acknowledges and utilizes its immense analytical power, while realizing its subtle limitations and restrictions.

MATH 200 - Introductory Calculus I

Every Year, Fall and Winter 3(3-0-1.5)

Review of analytic geometry; functions, limits, derivatives, and applications; integration and applications.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 30-1

MATH 205 - Introductory Calculus II

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-1.5)

Continuation of MATH 200. Transcendental and hyperbolic functions; methods of integration; sequences, series and applications.

Prerequisites: MATH 200

MATH 221 - Linear Algebra I

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

An introduction to linear algebra including solving linear equations, matrix algebra, determinants, vector spaces and linear transformations.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 30-1

MATH 281 - Principles of Mathematics for Teaching

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course provides a study of foundational mathematical concepts and properties in the elementary and junior high curriculum. The course emphasizes conceptual understanding, reasoning, explaining why algorithms work, and problem solving. Topics include number systems, operations, fractional numbers, proportional reasoning, and aspects of geometry.

Same as EDUC 281.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 30-2 or admission to the B.Ed (AD) program

MATH 300 - Intermediate Calculus I

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Series, power series and applications. Plane curves, polar coordinates and three dimensional analytic geometry. Partial differentiation and Lagrange multipliers.

Prerequisites: MATH 205

MATH 305 - Intermediate Calculus II

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Multiple integrals, integrals in rectangular and polar coordinates. Introduction to vector calculus and Gauss', Green's and Stoke's theorems. Introduction to first- and second-order linear differential equations with applications.

Prerequisites: MATH 300

MATH 360 - Discrete Mathematics

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-1.5)

An introduction to formal logical reasoning and mathematical theory in computing science. Topics include: fundamental logic, set theory, induction, relations and functions, languages, the principle of inclusion and exclusion, generating functions and recurrence.

Same as CMPT 360.

Prerequisites: CMPT 275

MATH 420 - Numerical Analysis

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-3)

An introduction to numerical computation. Topics include computer arithmetic, root approximation, interpolation, numerical integration, applications to differential equations, and error analysis.

Same as CMPT 420.

Prerequisites: CMPT 275, MATH 205, 221

MATH 434 - Differential Equations

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

First, second, and higher order ordinary differential equations; power series methods of solution; Laplace transforms; linear systems of equations; numerical methods of solution. Applications to the physical sciences will be emphasized.

Prerequisites: MATH 205, 221

MATH 448 - Complex Analysis

2013-14, Fall 3 (3-0-0)

An introduction to complex analysis. The course will cover properties of the complex plane, differentiation and integration with complex variables, Cauchy's Theorem, Taylor series, Laurent series, poles and residues.

Prerequisites: MATH 300

MATH 499 - Directed Studies in Mathematics

Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

An opportunity to do advanced study of a special topic of particular interest to a student. Students work with a member of the mathematics faculty. Students must apply in advance to a member of the mathematics faculty.

Prerequisites: Six credits in mathematics at the 300-level, and consent of instructor

MUSIC

Courses in music are designed not only to familiarize the student with the physical aspects of the art (including theory and performance techniques) and its aesthetic qualities, but also to seek answers to philosophical questions concerning its nature, origin and development. As music is a reflection of all aspects of reality (from numerical, spatial, kinematic, etc., to the ethical and religious), an interdisciplinary, integrated approach is followed from a Christian perspective.

Notes:

- Auditions (for first enrolment only) for individual instruction in all instruments and voice are held the last week of April for returning students and the last week of August for new students.
- Corequisite: All full-time students who are not music majors and taking a practical 200- and 300-level credit course in applied music must enroll in one of the following: Choral Ensemble, Chamber Choir or Instrumental Ensemble (maximum 6 terms). Students in Applied Voice may start fulfilling the choir requirement in their second year. For music major students, see special ensemble requirements under 3- and 4-year B.A. (Music) and B.Mus. program.
Applications to fulfill the choral ensemble corequisite requirement outside the University College will be considered only for non-music majors in exceptional circumstances, provided that the work is clearly comparable in scope and of the same academic and professional standing.
Instrumental Ensemble requirements are met through enrolment in a University of Alber instrumental ensemble course (e.g. University Orchestral Winds, Wind Ensemble or Jazz Band) or in a comparable university-level orchestra or ensemble.
- The applied credit courses in bassoon, cello, clarinet, classical accordion, classical guitar, double bass, flute, French horn, harp, harpsichord, oboe, organ, percussion, piano, recorder, saxophone, trombone, trumpet, tuba, viola, violin and voice include weekly 80 minute repertoire classes.

- The Bachelor of Music degree requires performance proficiency in the applied field and is open to students in a number of applied fields. See description and listing under MUSI 313, 363, 413, 463, 513, 563 or 214, 264, 314, 364, 414, 464, 514, 564. Other applied areas will be opened as required.
- Canadian content requirement: Students in the 5xx Applied courses must include some 20th century Canadian music in their repertoire.

Please note that, for convenience, courses in the music section have been organized by type.

APPLIED MUSIC (PRIVATE MUSIC INSTRUCTION)

All applied credit courses in music are term courses with a final exam in December and April. Courses with a middle digit of 1 (e.g., 211, 214, 311, etc.) indicate first term; those with a 6 (e.g., 261, 246, 361, etc.) indicate second term. Numbers starting with a digit of 2 indicate first year; those with a 3, second year; those with a 4, third year; and those with a 5, fourth year.

All music majors will have a common track in their first year of applied lessons. Those with advanced training will register in 214 first their first term and 264 for their second term. During the last week of April those students wishing to pursue the performance track for subsequent year may audition. Only students who are highly qualified and gifted in performance will be considered for the performance track (e.g., 313, 363, 413, 464, 513, 563) The performance track requires a junior (non-juried) and senior (juried) recitals.

Tracks constitute different expectation levels in performance which are indicated by the last digit in the course number.

Course numbers ending with a digit of 1 indicates a second (non-major) applied subject. They are half courses involving one half-hour of instruction per week and are offered in the first, second, and third year (211, 261; 311, 361; 411, 461) and constitute 1.5 credits each term. (Note: Arrangements for one-hour instruction per week can be made by the Music Department in consultation with the instructor and the University College administration.)

Course numbers ending with a digit of 4 indicate an applied subject which is taken as main, or first, practical subject but not as specialization subject in the field of music (e.g., specialization in music theory with piano as principal instrument) in the first, second, third, and fourth year (MUSI 214, 264; 314, 364; 414, 464; 514, 564). They are full courses, comprising one hour of instruction per week and constitute three credits per term.

Course numbers ending with a digit of 3 indicate an applied subject as a performance track subject and as subject of specialization in the second, third, and fourth year (313, 363; 413, 463; 513, 563). They are full courses, comprising one hour of instruction per week, and constitute three credits per term.

MUSI 108 - Applied Music Non-Credit Course

Every Year, Fall or Winter 0(.5-0-0)

Individual instruction (one-half hour per week) offered in bassoon, cello, clarinet, classical accordion, classical guitar, double bass, flute, French horn, harp, harpsichord, oboe, organ, percussion, piano, recorder, saxophone, trombone, trumpet, tuba, viola, violin and voice.

Prerequisites: Audition

MUSI 109 - Applied Music Non-Credit Course

Every Year, Fall or Winter 0(1-0-0)

Individual instruction (one hour per week) offered in bassoon, cello, clarinet, classical accordion, classical guitar, double bass, flute, French horn, harp, harpsichord, oboe, organ, percussion, piano, recorder, saxophone, trombone, trumpet, tuba, viola, violin and voice.

Prerequisites: Audition

MUSI 211/261/311/361/411/461 - Second Practical Subject

Every Year, Fall or Winter 1.5(.5-0-0) for each course

These courses are open to students in the music program and are available in bassoon, cello, clarinet, double bass, classical guitar, flute, French horn, harp, harpsichord, oboe, organ, percussion, piano, recorder, saxophone, trombone, trumpet, tuba, viola, violin and voice.

Prerequisites: MUSI 211 requires the passing of an auditioning test, the remaining courses require the previous course as the prerequisite or an equivalent

MUSI 313/363/413/463/513/563 - First Practical, Specialization Subject

Every Year, Fall or Winter 3(1-0-0) for each course

The courses MUSI 313, 363 are open to students in the music program and are available in bassoon, cello, clarinet, classical guitar, double bass, flute, French horn, harp, harpsichord, oboe, organ, percussion, piano, recorder, saxophone, trombone, trumpet, tuba, viola, violin and voice. The 413, 463, 513, 563 courses are open in clarinet, classical guitar, flute, French horn, harp, harpsichord, oboe, organ, percussion, piano, recorder, saxophone, trumpet, violin and voice. Senior courses in other applied fields will be developed as required. For MUSI 463 and 563 a public solo recital is required (Junior, Senior recital).

Prerequisites: MUSI 313 requires MUSI 264 or equivalent, or the passing of an auditioning test; the remaining courses require the previous course as the prerequisite or an equivalent

MUSI 214/264/314/364/414/464/514/564 - First Practical, Non-Specialization Subject

Every Year, Fall or Winter 3(1-0-0) for each course

The courses MUSI 214, 264, 314, 364 are open to students in the music program and are available in bassoon, cello, clarinet, classical guitar, double bass, flute, French horn, harp, harpsichord, oboe, organ, percussion, piano, recorder, saxophone, trombone, trumpet, tuba, viola, violin and voice. The 414, 464, 514, 564 courses are open in clarinet, classical guitar, flute, French horn, harp, harpsichord, oboe, organ, percussion, piano, recorder, saxophone, trumpet, violin and voice. Senior courses in other applied fields will be developed as required.

Prerequisites: MUSI 214 requires MUSI 261 or equivalent, or the passing of an auditioning test; the remaining courses require the previous course as the prerequisite or an equivalent

MUSI 488 - Directed Studies: Diction and Vocal Literature

Every Year, 3(0-0-1)

Directed study in the field of specialization involving one-hour p.w. of coaching or tutorial work.

Prerequisites: MUSI 463/464 and consent of the instructor

MUSI 489 - Directed Studies: Pedagogy

Every Year, 3(0-0-1)

Directed study in the field of specialization involving one-hour p.w. of coaching or tutorial work.

Prerequisites: MUSI 463/464

PHILOSOPHY

It was Socrates who said, "The unexamined life is not worth living". This statement is especially true for the educated Christian who seeks to apply his or her faith to all areas of study and inquiry. A central task of philosophy is to criticize and examine the foundations of all disciplines, and a central task of Christian philosophy is to perform this task from a Christian point of view. For this reason, an introduction to philosophy is a necessary ingredient of a Christian liberal arts program. Philosophy also has a unique area of inquiry which involves subjects such as metaphysics, epistemology, logic, and the history of philosophy as a contribution to human culture. For this reason, philosophy takes its place in a Christian liberal arts curriculum along with the other disciplines as an area to be studied for its own sake.

Prerequisites: PHIL 230

PHIL 345 - Philosophy from Descartes to Kant

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course is a survey of the origins and development of philosophy from Descartes to Kant. Special attention is paid to the relationship between epistemological ideas and political, ethical and religious thought.

Prerequisites: PHIL 230

PHIL 347 - Late European Modern Philosophy

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course is an attempt to lead students into an understanding and critical engagement of the central 19th Century debate among European philosophers between the idealists (represented most importantly by G.W.F. Hegel) who advocated an understanding of the world as a rational system, and their critics (of whom S. Kierkegaard is the most vivid example) who, in the name of an otherwise lost individuality, advocated an "irrational," personal basis for understanding and life. This course will engage this philosophical issue and period with an eye toward the ongoing implications of the debate for philosophy, but also for theology, and for the human sciences.

Prerequisites: PHIL 230

PHIL 351 - The Philosophy Of Friedrich Nietzsche

2013-14, Fall 3 (3-0-0)

This course will introduce students to the major themes of Nietzsche's philosophy. The course will focus on Nietzsche's account of morality and religion. This course includes basic instruction in basketball. Content will include the theory and practice of the fundamental skills with an overview of history, strategies, training rules and regulations. Emphasis is divided equally between skill acquisition and the pedagogy of skills as required by the National Coaching Certification Program (NCCP).

PHED 216 - Introduction to Volleyball

2013-14, Winter 3(0-0-3)

This course includes basic instruction in volleyball. Content will include the theory and practice of the fundamental skills with an overview of history, strategies, training rules and regulations. Emphasis is divided equally between skill acquisition and the pedagogy of skills as required by the National Coaching Certification Program (NCCP).

Students with credit in PHED 263 cannot receive credit in PHED 216.

PHED 222 - Strength Training and Conditioning

2014-15, Fall 3(0-0-3)

This course is intended as an introduction to the basic principles of strength training and cardiovascular conditioning. Emphasis is placed on fitness testing and evaluation, training techniques, program design, methods of training and implementation. Students will learn to administer and interpret fitness assessments, develop training programs, and monitor training.

PHED 223 - Introduction to Martial Arts

2014-15, Winter 3(0-0-3)

This course offers basic elementary instruction in the martial arts. Content will vary based on the style practiced by the instructor. The focus of the course will be on the theory and practice of the fundamental skills of the martial arts. Emphasis will be placed on participation and skill acquisition with an overview of basic movement strategies and principles of training. Certification and progression to a yellow belt/sash are attainable. (Note: The purchase of a traditional outfit of the style practiced by the instructor is recommended but not required.)

Students with credit in PHED 283 or PHED 221 cannot receive credit for PHED 223.

PHED 237 - Introduction to Badminton

2013-14, Fall 3(0-0-3)

This course includes basic instruction in badminton. Content will include the theory and practice of the fundamental skills with an overview of history, strategies, training rules and regulations. Emphasis is divided equally between skill acquisition and the teaching of basic skills as required by the National Coaching Certification program (NCCP). Students who successfully fulfill these requirements will receive certification as an NCCP Community Coach.

PHED 255 - Personal Physical Fitness and Wellness

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-2)

This introductory course examines many of the determinants of total wellness and is intended to assist students in developing an awareness of lifestyle issues, to provide them with information about a positive, healthy lifestyle and ultimately to encourage them to adopt healthy practices. Emphasis will be placed upon knowing and understanding basic concepts of fitness, nutrition, elementary first-aid, stress and disease control and applying these in the lab. A holistic approach will provide students with a deeper understanding of their responsibility for personal wellness as part of God's creation.

PHED 300 - Fundamentals of Coaching

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Introduction to the multifaceted field of coaching sports and physical activities. Topics include motivation and communication, skill analysis, training, ethics and sport management.

Prerequisites: 3 credits of PHED 205, 210, 211, 221, 216, 236 or permission of the instructor.

PHED 348 - Socio-cultural Aspects of Sport

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course examines how socio-cultural factors influence sport, and how sport has become a socializing agent of society and culture. Historical and sociological dimensions are explored. Aspects include the industry of sport, gender and sport, ethics and sport, and sport phenomena such as the Olympics.

Same as SOCI 348.

Prerequisites: 3 credits of physical education or sociology

PHED 393 - Movement Activities for Children

Every Year, Fall 3(1-0-2)

Students will study movement activities for children in elementary school within a developmental framework. Special emphasis is placed on games, gymnastics and dance for children ages five to twelve years. The course combines theory, practical teaching experiences with children and critical reflection on these experiences in the context of children's physical development. This will include the study of free play and organized physical activities in recreational, educational, and sport environments.

Students with credit in EDUC 203 cannot receive credit in PHED 393. Same as EDUC 393.

PHED 399 - Special Topics in Physical Education

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: 6 credits of PHED; some topics may have more specific requirements

PHYSICS

The field of physics concerns itself with the description of the laws and relationships which govern the physical interaction and behavior of matter and energy. For example, it deals with forces and resultant motion, phenomena of electro-magnetic interaction and radiation, wave motion and heat, and the structure and behavior of physical systems found in the universe, ranging from nuclei and atoms to stars and galaxies. The study of physics enhances our understanding of the orderly structure of God's creation as it pertains to physical systems. It has also resulted in technological advances which have radically changed our world, especially in the last 100 years.

PHYS 241 - Mechanics

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-3)

Kinematics, particle dynamics, work and energy, linear momentum, rotational kinematics, rotational dynamics, equilibrium of rigid bodies.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 30-1 and either Physics 30 or Science 30 (Students who intend to use Science 30 as a prerequisite must consult with and have the consent of the instructor.) Corequisite: MATH 200

PHYS 243 - Wave Motion and Electricity

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-3)

A calculus based course concerned with gravitational fields and potentials, oscillations and wave motion including an introduction to Wave Mechanics and Quantum Theory.

Prerequisites: PHYS 241 Corequisite: MATH 205

PHYS 300 - Introduction to Electromagnetism and Physical Optics

2014-15, Fall 3(3-1.5-0)

A first course in electricity and magnetism with emphasis on the electric and magnetic properties of matter, development of the Biot-Savart Law, Ampere's Law and the laws of magnetic induction. Course will introduce Maxwell's equations and conclude with an application of these ideas to physical optics. The rudimentary ideas of vector calculus will be developed in the weekly seminar accompanying this course.

Prerequisites: MATH 205 and PHYS 243; MATH 300 is strongly recommended

PHYS 395 - God, Physics and the Human Prospect

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course is intended for students in their senior year of study and will focus on the dialogue between scientific and other ways of knowing. Topics will be drawn from Physics, Theology and Sociology that will illuminate such motivating questions as 1) How can Science and Theology engage in a conversation of mutual understanding and transformation? 2) How, or in what ways, has science changed our ideas about what it means to be human? and 3) Given these changes, how then ought we to live our lives?

Same as SOCI 395 and THEO 375.

Prerequisites: Six credits in one or more of Physics, Sociology or Theology

PHYS 399 - Special Topics In Physics

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the physics faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: PHYS 241, 243; some topics may have more specific prerequisites.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

Political science studies the governance of public communities. It deals with political institutions such as the state, executive, courts and legislatures, and it examines the role of citizens, public officials, interest groups and political parties within the political system as a whole. Courses are designed to equip students to critically understand modern politics and political science in light of the Bible's creational and redemptive call to pursue justice, equity, stewardship and peace. The aim of political science is to help students develop the insight and desire to serve their neighbors through political thought and action.

POLI 205 - Invitation to Politics and Government

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

An introduction to the main problems, concepts and ideologies at play in political life and an analysis of the processes and institutions by which these are realized in the Canadian political system.

Students with credit in POLI 200 or POLI 201 cannot receive credit for POLI 205.

POLI 310 - History of Political Thought I: Classical and Medieval Political Thought

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Examines major developments in the history of Western political thought from the ancient Greeks and Romans through the Christian period up to the Renaissance, with particular attention given to key writings by Plato, Aristotle, Augustine and Aquinas. Examines themes such as the justice, the state, politics, plurality, constitutionalism, power, war and the individual.

Same as PHIL 310.

Prerequisites: PHIL 230 or POLI 205

POLI 311 - History of Political Thought II: Modern Political Thought

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Examines the major social and political ideas developed in the modern era, focusing on select writings of major political philosophers such as Machiavelli, Hobbes, Locke, Rousseau, Marx and Nietzsche.

Same as PHIL 311.

Prerequisites: PHIL 230 or POLI 205

POLI 317 - Christian Social and Political Movements

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course examines the development of Christian social and political ideas and movements within Roman Catholic and Protestant traditions since the French Revolution (1789). It explores the context in which these movements arose, their distinctive ideas and strategies, as well as the practical changes they advocated. Special attention will be given to the way these movements tackled several key contemporary issues and the eventual outcomes of these efforts.

Same as HIST 317 and SOCI 317.

Prerequisites: HIST 204 or POLI 205 or three credits in sociology at the introductory level.

POLI 318 - Democracy in Politics and Society

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course considers the idea and ideal of democracy through a consideration of its history, theoretical justifications, and concrete practices in contemporary politics and society. Since democracy concerns authority and decision making, the course also considers the applicability of the ideal of democracy to other societal structures, such as, the family, the classroom, the business enterprise, labour unions, the economy, and the church.

Prerequisites: POLI 205

POLI 319 - Human Rights

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course seeks to explore the origins, nature and limitations of the human rights paradigm in politics and law. We will consider the historical development of the human rights paradigm, philosophical (and theological) discussions about its meaning and validity, and engage in concrete examination of the ways in which it shapes legal and political practice particularly in Canada and internationally.

Prerequisites: POLI 205

POLI 320 - Canadian Government and Politics

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course examines the relationship between Canada's federal and provincial governments, and the place of French Canada, regionalism, multiculturalism, Canadian nationalism, and aboriginal nations within the Canadian state. It examines the history of Canada's constitutional evolution, including the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

This course is considered a Canadian Studies course for purposes of King's B.Ed. (AD).

Prerequisites: POLI 205

POLI 327 - Public Policy Analysis

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course is an introduction to themes and methods in policy studies. The course examines the practical and normative problems facing Canadian governments in initiating, formulating, enacting, and implementing public policies.

Special attention will be given to several contemporary policy issues.

This course is considered a Canadian Studies course for purposes of King's B.Ed. (AD).

Prerequisites: POLI 205

POLI 353 - Political History of the United States, 1776-present

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course in American government examines the history of political institutions in the United States from Independence in 1776 to the present day. This course explores the origins of the Constitution, the functions and historical evolution of the three branches of the federal government (executive, legislative, judiciary) as well as the roles of political parties, interest groups, public opinion, and the media. It also studies important historical case studies (over issues such as race, slavery and civil rights; civil and religious liberties; family and privacy law; and economic and environmental policy) that demonstrate how American political culture has changed over time. This course is decidedly interdisciplinary in approaching the subject using the methodologies of history and political science.

Same as HIST 353.

Prerequisites: one of HIST 202, HIST 204, POLI 205

POLI 373 - War and Peace

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Blessed are the peacemakers, said Jesus, and this course offers an interdisciplinary inquiry into the issues of war and peace in the Western tradition. The course will mix philosophical and theological approaches (just war theory, humanitarian intervention, and Christian non-violence, for example) with historical case studies (especially the Crusades and the Second World War but also reaching to contemporary conflicts such as the "War on Terror"). This will be a seminar-style course based on weekly discussion of a common set of readings. The goal is to provide students with a heightened awareness of the range of perspectives on war and peace both in the past and in our world today.

Same as HIST 373.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 and 204 or POLI 205

POLI 380 - World Politics

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course is an introduction to international politics, law and organizations and focuses on major international issues of conflict and cooperation related to war, economics, poverty, and the environment.

Prerequisites: POLI 205

POLI 399 - Special Topics In Political Science

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the political science faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: POLI 205; some topics may have more specific prerequisites.

POLI 499 - Directed Studies in Political Science

Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

An opportunity to do intensive study of a special topic of particular interest to the student. Students work closely with a faculty member in tutorial meetings. Students must apply in advance for special studies to a political science faculty member.

Prerequisites: Six credits in political science at the 300-level, and consent of instructor

POLITICS, HISTORY AND ECONOMICS

PHES 201 - Engaging the World: Faith and Public Life

Every Year, Winter 3(3-2-0)

Through experience and reflection, this course explores a number of fundamental issues, problems and opportunities that shape public life. Topics may include: poverty, the environment, multiculturalism, religious pluralism, and the relationship between economy and politics. The aim is to understand the nature and limits of public life and to examine the distinctive understanding and voice that Christian faith can bring to public debate on, and resolution of, these topics.

Prerequisites: Three credits of ECON 201, ECON 202, HIST 202, HIST 204, POLI 205

PHES 495 - Senior PHES Seminar

Every Year, Winter 3(0-3-0)

All students graduating from the PHE program are required to take this course. The course is designed to integrate the perspectives and practical implications of the different courses encountered in the program. It intends to prepare students for the practical application of their knowledge by an interdisciplinary and in-depth engagement with the Canadian public context in comparison to other national contexts and its relationships to a globalized world. In a seminar setting, it will use guided written research inputs from students, as well as topical inputs from the instructor, to hone analytical, rhetorical and presentation skills.

Prerequisites: Nine credits in at least one of the three constituent disciplines at the 300 or 400 level or consent of the instructor. Course can only be taken in the final year of the degree.

PHES 498 - Special Topics In Politics, History and Economics

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

A course on a topic of special interest to members of the PHE program (or a guest presenter) and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: Six credits in any of the constituent disciplines in the PHE program at the 300 or 400 level.

PHES 499 - Directed Studies in Politics, History and Economics

Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

This course is designed to provide individual students with an opportunity to conduct supervised reading and research on a topic of the student's choice, in consultation with a member of the PHES program. Work will be on a tutorial basis and students must apply in advance to teaching faculty in the program before registering for this course.

Prerequisites: Six credits in any of the constituent disciplines in the PHE program at the 300 or 400 level and consent of the instructor.

POST-SECONDARY ENGLISH AT KING'S

PEAK 100 - University ESL Fundamentals Level 1

Every Year, Fall and Winter 0(28-0-0)

This is an intermediate level Post-Secondary English course, covering skills in reading, writing, speaking and listening. By the completion of this course students should be able to read long texts of 1000 to 1500 words, including literature, and identify main ideas, paraphrase those ideas, guess the meaning of vocabulary from context, build vocabulary strategies, answer comprehension and detail questions, use reasoning to express personal opinion, make inferences, and analyse literary conventions of plot, character and setting, write four short essays, demonstrating the abilities to develop essay a variety of content types (classification, cause, effect, compare, contrast, expository), to organise essay structure using introduction and conclusion paragraphs, to use correct grammatical structures, to use correct writing mechanics (punctuation, capitalisation, spelling), to choose words and word forms and use them appropriately (levels of formality), to use quotations, to paraphrase, and to develop a resource list, make presentations and listen to lectures, demonstrating the abilities to search for information through a variety of means, to select and record information, to produce evidence to support arguments, to take notes, to demonstrate creativity in the use of non-verbal and non-textual aids, to think critically and analytically, to work co-operatively and individually, to present information formally and informally, to pronounce correctly, and to speak with little hesitation.

Prerequisites: Consent

PEAK 105 - University ESL Blended Level 1

Every Year, 0(9-0-0)

This is an intermediate level Post-Secondary English course, covering skills in reading, writing, speaking and listening. By the completion of this course students should be able to demonstrate the same levels of skill in each area as outlined in PEAK100. It is expected, however, that these students have sufficient English Language skills to carry 9.5 credits of university courses at the same time.

Prerequisites: Consent

PEAK 110 - University ESL Fundamentals Level 2

Every Year, Fall and Winter 0(28-0-0)

This is an advanced level Post-Secondary English course, covering skills in reading, writing, speaking and listening. By the completion of this course students should be able to read long texts of over 2000 words, including literature, and identify main ideas, paraphrase text, use context to determine the meaning of vocabulary, use vocabulary development strategies, answer comprehension and detail questions, express personal opinion using detailed supporting arguments, make inferences, and analyse literary conventions of plot, character, setting and figures of speech, write five or more essays and a short research paper, demonstrating the abilities to develop a variety of essay content (cause, effect, compare, contrast, argumentative, persuasive), to narrow and choose topics, to organise essay structure using introduction and conclusion paragraphs, to use correct grammatical structures, to use correct writing mechanics (punctuation, capitalisation, spelling), to choose words and word forms and use them appropriately (levels of formality), to use appropriate citation style, to paraphrase and summarise research material, to understand plagiarism, to collect research data from the library, and to develop a bibliography, make presentations, listen to lectures, and participate in formal debates, demonstrate the abilities to research data through a variety of means, to select and record research data, to produce evidence and give rationales to support ideas and theories, to take effective notes, to demonstrate creativity in the use of non-verbal and non-textual aids, to think critically and analytically, to work both co-operatively and individually, to present information formally and informally, to pronounce correctly, to speak fluently and to rephrase.

Prerequisites: Completion of PEAK100 or adequate placement assessment.

PEAK 115 - University ESL Blended Level 2

Every Year, Fall and Winter 0(9-0-0)

This is an advanced level Post-Secondary English course, covering skills in reading, writing, speaking and listening. By the completion of this course students should be able to demonstrate the same levels of skill in each area as outlined in PEAK110. It is expected, however, that these students have sufficient English Language skills to carry 9.5 credits of university courses at the same time.

Prerequisites: Completion of PEAK105 or adequate placement assessment.

PEAK 199 - Directed Studies in University English

On demand, non-credit

This course gives an opportunity to do intensive study of University ESL by a student working closely with a member of the ESL faculty in tutorial meetings. Students must apply well in advance to a member of the ESL faculty in order to undertake a Directed Study. PEAK 199 is normally taken by students who are in the PEAK program but cannot participate in normal PEAK courses.

Prerequisites: consent of the Registry and instructor

PSYCHOLOGY

A major objective of courses in psychology is to develop a Christian approach to psychology based on a view of humanity that is scripturally directed and theoretically articulated. You develop this approach as you learn to (1) evaluate major trends in psychological thought; (2) benefit from significant contributions by non-Christian psychologists; and (3) derive insight from alternative Christian approaches to psychology.

PSYC 250 - Basic Psychological Processes

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Principles and development of perception, motivation, learning and thinking and their relationship to the psychic functioning of the person. Initial attempt to evaluate various approaches to psychology.

Students with credit in PSYC 255 cannot receive credit in PSYC 250.

PSYC 251 - The Person in Society

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Introduction to the study of human individuality, personality, normal and abnormal human development, psychological assessment and treatment and the psychic processes of social relationships. Evaluation of various approaches to these psychological issues.

Students with credit in PSYC 256 cannot receive credit in PSYC 251.

PSYC 301 - Exploring the Human Experience:
Methods and Statistics for Psychology I
Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-1.5)

In this course, students will acquire a working knowledge of research design, data collection and analysis, and will critically examine foundations and assumptions of scientific psychology. This will be achieved through lectures, exercises, and projects. Students will have opportunities to develop statistical skills while learning about the psychological research contexts in which these statistical tools are used. Topics will include epistemology, ethics, hypothesis development, descriptive statistics, measurement, probability, and naturalistic methods. Both qualitative and quantitative methods will be explored.

Students with credit in SSC1 309 cannot receive credit in PSYC 301.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251

PSYC 302 - Exploring the Human Experience:
Methods and Statistics for Psychology II
Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-1.5)

As the second of a two-course sequence, PSYC 302 continues PSYC 301. In this course students are introduced to experimental and quasi-experimental methods and parametric and non-parametric statistics. Discussion of external validity, and continued application of foundational concepts introduced in PSYC 301 will continue and students will be equipped with knowledge and skills to attain social scientific literacy, thoughtful engagement with research, and an ability to design, conduct, and analyze psychological research.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 30-2 or the successful passing of an algebra competency test, and PSYC 301

PSYC 327 - Between Science And Fiction: The Intersection of Psychology and Literature
2014-15, Winter 3 (3-0-0)

Human being, whether explored through themes of identity, self, or character, is a constantly evolving narrative we construct of ourselves and others. This course examines the intersection of psychological and literary narratives as they construct human being, and emphasizes how storytelling is a vital yet undervalued notion in contemporary society. We will question how human identity is created and communicated, while exploring the fringes of socially accepted behaviour to examine how norms are established, upheld, and challenged both in literature and psychology.

Same as ENGL 327.

Prerequisites: ENGL 204, 205 and one of PSYC 250 or 251

PSYC 333 - Psychology of Religion
2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

An introduction to religion viewed from psychological perspectives. In this course the student will gain: 1. An acquaintance with religious themes as exemplified in myths, rituals, and diverse practices of different religions, 2. An introduction to a variety of psychological approaches to religion (naturalistic, humanistic, phenomenological, comparative, psychoanalytic), and 3. A critical appreciation of the ethically sensitive and methodologically difficult issues involved with the study of religion and religiosity (such as ethnocentrism and reductionism) from a Christian faith perspective. The reading of primary text(s) will be an essential part of the course.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251

PSYC 336 - Community Psychology
2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Community psychology is concerned with the ways society impacts upon individual and community functioning and how psychological, mental health, and crime problems, for example, are often created and maintained by poverty, social injustice, marginalization, and other forms of oppression. Issues of diversity, multiculturalism and racism, of primary prevention and of mobilizing and empowering communities to bring about social change are discussed in a Canadian context. Group projects and various guest speakers will provide relevant experience in community psychology.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251

PSYC 340 - Social Psychology
Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

An introduction to the relationship between individuality and social context. The course covers the history of the field and its relationship to disciplines such as sociology and anthropology. 'Classic' social psychological experiments will be reviewed and experimental, evolutionary, and cross-cultural approaches compared. Other topics include: social cognition and perception, authority and obedience, conformity, depersonalization and institutionalization, attitudes and prejudice, attraction and aggression, normatively, ideology, and socialization and enculturation.

Same as SOCI 340.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251 or three credits in sociology at the introductory level.

PSYC 341 - Psychology of Exceptional Children and Adolescents

TBA 3(3-0-1)

This course provides an overview of the major intellectual, academic, emotional, behavioural, sensory and physical exceptionalities that are encountered in classroom settings. Course participants will learn about the challenges and joys these exceptionalities pose for teaching and learning. Students will also examine such topics as the identification and diagnosis of these exceptionalities and the preparation of appropriate Individualized Educational Programs (I.E.P.'s). Through the seminar component, participants will become familiar with exceptional children and/or adolescents through credited volunteer activities.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251

PSYC 351 - Childhood and Adolescence

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course examines the psychology of human development and change during infancy, early, middle and late childhood, and early and late adolescence. The dimensions of development to be investigated include the physical, cognitive, emotional, social, academic, moral and religious aspects.

Students with credit in EDUC 263 or PSYC 350 cannot receive credit in PSYC 351. Same as EDUC 363.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251

PSYC 352 - Adult Development and Aging

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course examines the psychology of human development and change from early adulthood to death. Specifically, development is considered chronologically in the sequence of early, middle and late adulthood. Along with the physical, cognitive, social, emotional, moral and religious changes that occur in these years, we will also examine developmental responses to the challenges of changing careers, family structures, social tasks, psychological functions and faith commitments.

Students with credit in PSYC 350 cannot receive credit in PSYC 352.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251

PSYC 363 - Cognition

Every year, Winter 3(3-0-0)

An exploration of the activities of the mind, using a variety of approaches. Topics include attention, pattern recognition, language development and perception, problem-solving, concept formation, judgment and decision-making. Basic concepts will also be applied to issues such as dyslexia, deafness, primate language, artificial intelligence and creativity.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251

PSYC 370 - Ethology

2014-15, Fall 3(3-2-0)

An overview of the evolution, function and development of animal behavior. Evolutionary processes (e.g. selection and adaptation); physiological processes (e.g. the nervous system and behavior); the behavior of individuals (e.g. development, learning, mating), and the ecology of behavior (e.g. foraging) are discussed.

Same as BIOL 362.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251, and PSYC 301 and 302 or BIOL 210 or BIOL 211

PSYC 375 - Brain and Behavior

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-0)

A study of the relation between biology and behavior in humans. Topics include mind/brain issues, brain development, genes and behavior, structure and function of the nervous system, brain disorders, biopsychology of motivated disorders, drug abuse and lateralization. Foundational issues as well as biological details will be emphasized.

Same as BIOL 364.

Prerequisites: One of BIOL 200, 210, 211, PSYC 250 or 251

PSYC 385 - Leadership

Every Year, Summer 3(3-0-3)

This course includes an overview of the various approaches to leadership theory, including trait-based, skills-based, situational, contingency, path-goal, leader-member exchange, transformational and servant leadership, and others. Leadership issues examined include: leadership development, roles of followers, management vs. leadership, personality, faith perspectives, personal values, group status and dynamics. The course practicum normally entails an extended outdoor trip of 3-6 days and includes activities and supports for self and group reflection. (This course is normally taught online in summer semester with the practicum at the end of August)

Same as BUSI 385.

Prerequisites: Consent of instructor

PSYC 390 - Psychology of Personality

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

A survey of classical and contemporary theories of personality with reference to the personal histories of their originators and to the structure, dynamics and function of the theories within their cultural context.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251

PSYC 395 - Abnormal Psychology

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

A survey of the various psychological disorders, their clinical description, developmental background and treatment approaches. Included are the anxiety and mood disorders, psychosomatic, dissociative, eating and sleep disorders, sexual, substance use and personality disorders, schizophrenia developmental and cognitive disorders. Mental health policy and social issues will also be discussed.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251; PSYC 390 recommended

PSYC 398 - Contemporary Issues in Psychology

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Theoretical, ethical and methodological foundations of psychology are explored through reading, discussion and development of a research question, with emphasis on understanding these foundations as relevant to contemporary issues. Integrating a Christian faith perspective to psychology as a discipline, interdisciplinarity, and practical applications are themes foregrounded for discussion and explicit treatment. All students graduating from the 3-year psychology program are required to take this course in the final year of their degree; all students in the 4-year psychology program are required to take this course in the third year of their degree.

Prerequisites: PSYC 301. Course normally taken in third year of degree.

PSYC 399 - Special Topics in Psychology

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

An introduction to particular topics or figures of special interest to a member of the Psychology faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis. This course is intended for students in any year of study.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or PSYC 251

PSYC 420 - History of Psychology

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

A study of the main concepts and major schools of psychology in their historical development. This course traces the development of psychology from its earlier status as a branch of philosophy to its present status as a special science.

Prerequisites: PHIL 230 and six credits in psychology at the 300-level

PSYC 465 - Learning and Memory

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-3)

This course examines how behavior is affected by experience (learning) and how organisms retain those experiences so that they can affect behavior in the future (memory). Theories of learning, such as classical conditioning, operant conditioning, and imitation, are discussed as well as mechanisms for storing and retrieving learned information. Through lectures and laboratory experiences, students will engage in and challenge the methods and logic of these areas of psychology.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251, and PSYC 301 Corequisites: PSYC 302

PSYC 470 - Ecopsychology

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

An exploration of the psychological dimensions of our dependence on God's creation and our responsibility to care for it. The psychological contributions to and consequences of environmental problems, and the potential for psychological intervention, will be examined from a Christian perspective.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251 and ENVS 300 or nine credits in psychology at the 300- or 400-level including PSYC 301

PSYC 473 - Sensation and Perception

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-3)

An examination of the processes by which humans receive, select, analyze and interpret sensory information, and the factors which influence what is ultimately perceived. Topics include psychophysical methods, the visual system, the auditory system, the chemical senses, skin senses and perceptual development. Laboratory exercises include demonstrations of perceptual phenomena, application of psychophysical methods and the development of scientific report-writing skills.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251, and 301 Corequisites: PSYC 302

PSYC 477 - Evolution, Genes and Behavior

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course examines how evolutionary psychology and behavior genetics can illuminate our embodied nature, and explores the strengths, limitations and implications of these approaches for understanding the human cycle. This course also examines how research and theorizing in these two areas are influencing culture, via the media.

Same as BIOL 466.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251, and PSYC 301 or at least 6 credits in biology at the senior level

PSYC 490 - Communication and Counselling Skills
Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-3)

An introduction to and practical application of basic communication and counselling skills. Students will learn to use the various skills in lab sessions. Acquisition of these skills will allow students to improve communication in their relationships and enable them to facilitate client communication in a counselling setting.

Prerequisites: Nine credits in psychology at the 300- or 400-level including PSYC 395

PSYC 492 - Clinical Psychology
2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course examines the scientific foundations and theoretical orientations that guide clinical psychologists. Topics covered include contemporary methods of assessing, diagnosing and treating those with psychological, relational and mental health problems. The importance of developing good clinical judgment and the value of working with clients in a community context is highlighted.

Prerequisites: Nine credits in psychology at the 300- or 400-level including PSYC 395

PSYC 493 - Psychology of Testing and Measurement
2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-3)

PSYC 494 - Advanced Topics in Psychology
Every Year, Fall or Winter 3(3-0-0)

In-depth examination and discussion of a specific topic in psychology. Specific topic(s) for the year will be posted prior to the spring registration period, and earlier if possible. This course is intended for students in the third or fourth year of a four-year psychology program and will build on previous courses in the program.

Prerequisites: PSYC 250 or 251, and 301, 302; some topics may have more specific prerequisites

PSYC 495 - Senior Psychology Seminar
Every Year, Winter 3(0-3-0)

All students graduating from the 4 yr Psychology program are required to take this course. The course integrates philosophical and theoretical foundations with practical implications of the different courses encountered in the program through the development of and reflection upon student research projects. It will build on research questions initiated in PSYC 398.

Prerequisites: PSYC 398. Course normally taken in final year of degree.

PSYC 497 - Research Practicum in Psychology
Every Year, Fall and Winter 3(0-0-3)

This course is designed for students with an interest in conducting an independent research project in psychology. This project may be an independent study conducted at the University College, a cooperative project with a community group or agency, or a collaborative project with a senior investigator. Each student is required to submit a proposal for a project, and receive approval for the project, before being enrolled in the course.

Students with credit in PSYC 496 cannot receive credit in PSYC 497.

Prerequisites: A minimum of 18 credits in psychology at the 300- and 400-level including PSYC 301, 302 and consent.

PSYC 499 - Directed Studies in Psychology
Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

An opportunity to do intensive study of a special topic of particular interest to a student. Students work closely with a faculty member in tutorial meetings. Students must apply in advance to the faculty member.

Prerequisites: Six credits in psychology at the 300-level, and consent of instructor

SOCIAL SCIENCE

SSCI 300 - Field Course in International Development

Every Year, Spring 3(4 days pre-field lectures/seminars; 3 weeks on field; 3 days post-field seminar

First-hand observation of, and active participation in, a selected rural or urban community development project in Africa, Asia or Latin America. Projects focus on basic human needs in subsistence economies. All students complete a field-based research assignment. Pre- and post-field classes, readings and assignments emphasize Christian perspectives on development, methods of community development, and cross-cultural skills.

The offering of this course is depending on enrollment, availability of a host partner agency and financial support.

Prerequisites: Three credits in economics, geography, political science or sociology; or consent of instructor. Participants must also present a medical letter of good health, and sign a waiver of liability.

SSCI 301 - Field Course in Transformational Development (East Africa)

Subject to demand 3(3-0-1)

This field course is designed for students who wish to gain an understanding of the principles and practices of Christian community development in an East African context. Through readings, lectures, and week long field visits students will be able to observe and understand the complex nature of poverty in East Africa and the manner in which faith-based development programs attempt a holistic response. This course will emphasize Christian perspectives on development, methods of community development, and cross-cultural skills.

The time and venue for this course are determined by the East Africa Studies Program partners and is subject to change. Also see East Africa Studies Program.

Prerequisites: Three credits in ECON, GEOG or POLI at the senior level; or one of BUSI 343, 461, THEO 371; or consent of instructor. SSCI 300, 302 or 303 highly recommended. Enrolment is by application and participants must sign a waiver.

SSCI 302 - Internship in Development (3 months)

Subject to Demand, 3(3 months)

This field course is designed for students who wish to gain an understanding of the principles and practices of community development in the context of an impoverished community. Through a guided internship the student will participate in the day to day activities of a community development program which will include exposure to a wide variety of issues and developmental approaches. By working alongside development practitioners the student will be able to observe and understand the complex nature of poverty and other social issues and the manner in which development agencies attempt a holistic response. The course will emphasize experiential learning of methods and practices of development, the formation of Christian perspectives on community development, as well as cross-cultural skills, depending on the location of the internship.

Prerequisites: 9 credits of any of the following: THEO 371; SSCI 300; POLI 380; ECON 325; ECON/BUSI 461

SSCI 303 - Internship in Development (6 months)

Subject to Demand, 6(6 months)

This field course is designed for students who wish to gain an understanding of the principles and practices of community development in the context of an impoverished community. Through a guided internship the student will participate in the day to day activities of a community development program which will include exposure to a wide variety of issues and developmental approaches. By working alongside development practitioners the student will be able to observe and understand the complex nature of poverty and other social issues and the manner in which development agencies attempt a holistic response. The course will emphasize experiential learning of methods and practices of development, the formation of Christian perspectives on community development, as well as cross-cultural skills, depending on the location of the internship.

Prerequisites: 9 credits of any of the following: THEO 371; SSCI 300; POLI 380; ECON 325; ECON/BUSI 461

SSCI 309 - Methods of Inquiry and Analysis in the Social Sciences

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-2)

Introduction to methods of research design, data collection and data processing techniques used by social scientists. Includes an examination of the relationship between theory and method, research values and ethics and measurement issues as they pertain to experimentation, survey research, field research, content analysis and historical/comparative analysis.

(SSCI 309 must normally be taken in the 2nd year of study) Students with credit in PSYC 301 cannot receive credit in SSCI 309. Same as SOCI 309.

Prerequisites: Three credits of a designated social science course

SSCI 495 - Senior Social Science Seminar

Every Year, Winter 3(0-3-0)

All students with social science as a first subject of concentration in the B.A. program are required to take this course. The seminar is designed to engage students in clarifying the common ground of traditionally distinct social science disciplines. Emphasis is placed on interdisciplinary concerns.

Prerequisites: Six credits in a designated social science discipline at the 300-level

SSCI 499 - Directed Studies in Social Science

Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

An opportunity to do intensive study of a special topic in the social sciences of particular interest to the student. Students work closely with a social science faculty member in tutorial meetings or other agreed upon arrangements. A student must apply in advance to the faculty member.

Prerequisites: Six credits in a social science discipline at the 300-level, and consent of instructor

SOCIAL WORK

SOWK 200 - Introduction to Social Work

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Students in this course will learn about the history of social work and social welfare in Canada. The course will focus on helping students to understand the social movements, sociocultural practices, and ethics that have contributed to development of Social Work as a profession, as well as the values that inform the profession. The course is designed to help students recognize the relationships between history, theory, and praxis in social interventions, with the goal of contemplating the various ways in which a society can ethically respond to human need and social suffering. Students also will gain some perspective on research in Social Work, as well as the role of social workers and their practice around the globe.

SOCIOLOGY

Sociology studies the social character and systematic organization of human interaction. By bringing critical analysis to bear on social interaction, sociological thinking often disturbs and even challenges taken-for-granted beliefs and practices. Sociology therefore invites us to engage in a disciplined critique of our own lives, the society to which we belong, and societies distinct from our own. Informed by a Christian perspective, sociology enables us to reflect on social life in a positive, redemptive manner.

SOCI 200 - Introductory Sociology

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

An examination of the theory, methods and substance of sociology. The course also gives an overview of the major systems of thought vis-a-vis questions about social order, social change and social institutions.

SOCI 201 - Canadian Society

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course will explore the development of Canadian society in the context of a variety of national and international level issues, including: French-English-Aboriginal relations, regionalism, multiculturalism, business/labor relations, criminal justice, and class and gender inequalities.

This course is considered a Canadian Studies course for purposes of King's B.Ed. (AD).

SOCI 301 - Sociology of Gender

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Comparative study of gender roles and relations with an emphasis on Canada; a review of theories explaining sex-specific perspectives and behaviors; recent sociological research on the interpersonal, cultural, and structural significance of changing roles for women and men in contemporary societies.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 302 - Men and Masculinities

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course will involve an exploration of the developmental, relational and structural conditions of men's lives in their diversity, with particular emphasis on Canada. The course will examine the interpersonal, cultural and structural dimensions of boys and men's lives in the context of recent theoretical and research-related developments in men's studies.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 309 - Methods of Inquiry and Analysis in the Social Sciences

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-2)

Introduction to methods of research design, data collection and data processing techniques used by social scientists. Includes an examination of the relationship between theory and method, research values and ethics and measurement issues as they pertain to experimentation, survey research, field research, content analysis and historical/comparative analysis.

(SOCI 309 must normally be taken in the 2nd year of study) Students with credit in PSYC 301 cannot receive credit in SOCI 309. Same as SSCI 309.

Prerequisites: Three credits of a designated social science course

SOCI 316 - Aboriginal Issues in Canada

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

An introduction to current social issues and developments involving First Nations, Metis and Inuit peoples in Canada. Issues surrounding family, education, justice, gender, health, urbanization, leadership, youth and Elders will be examined in light of the history of European colonization as well as current initiatives that promote a positive way forward.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 317 - Christian Social and Political Movements

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course examines the development of Christian social and political ideas and movements within Roman Catholic and Protestant traditions since the French Revolution (1789). It explores the context in which these movements arose, their distinctive ideas and strategies, as well as the practical changes they advocated. Special attention will be given to the way these movements tackled several key contemporary issues and the eventual outcomes of these efforts.

Same as HIST 317 and POLI 317.

Prerequisites: HIST 204 or POLI 205 or three credits in introductory sociology.

SOCI 318 - Race and Ethnic Diversity

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Canada encompasses a wide diversity of cultures and ethnic groups. It is often described as having two founding nations even though Aboriginal peoples predated the settling of the French and the English and are a vibrant element in Canadian society. Numerous ethnic groups have also become part of what is often termed "the Canadian mosaic". In this course we will examine these issues from a variety of sociological perspectives.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 319 - Sociology and the Environment

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Understanding society requires understanding both the collective impact of humans on the environment and the natural world on humanity. This course will address the role of social structures as cause, impediment and solution to environmental problems. Topics include the social construction of nature, sustainable societies, environmental justice and environmental movements.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology or human geography

SOCI 321 - Community and Place

2014-15, Fall 3 (3-0-0)

This course will examine the role of community in human social life in an age of globalization. Topics will include community development, diversity, social exclusion/inclusion, community resilience, and rural and urban communities. The course will also examine different types of communities including: radical Christian communities, cooperatives, intentional communities, and current initiatives in support of developing sustainable communities.

Pre-requisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 324 - Sociology of Deviance

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

The sociology of deviance addresses the questions "What is social deviance?" and "What does the process of someone or some group becoming deviant imply?". Every day each person is involved in the making, breaking and enforcing of rules. This course therefore examines what each student thinks about the various aspects of anyone, including oneself, becoming an outsider.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 325 - Criminology

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Examination and application of theories of criminal and delinquent behavior. Also examined is the relationship between laws and morality and the social processes leading to criminal behavior.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 332 - Classical Sociological Theory

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

A survey of the origin and the development of classical sociological theory, with particular emphasis on the perspectives and concepts articulated by Comte, Spencer, Martineau, Marx, Durkheim, and Weber.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 333 - Contemporary Sociological Theory

Subject to demand 3(3-0-0)

A survey of the contributions of modern sociological theorists, particularly those who contributed to the development of functionalist, symbolic interactionist, and critical schools of thought. Contemporary contributions from feminist, modernization, and other theorists will also be examined.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 340 - Social Psychology

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

An introduction to the relationship between individuality and social context. The course covers the history of the field and its relationship to disciplines such as sociology and anthropology. 'Classic' social psychological experiments will be reviewed and experimental, evolutionary, and cross-cultural approaches compared. Other topics include: social cognition and perception, authority and obedience, conformity, depersonalization and institutionalization, attitudes and prejudice, attraction and aggression, normatively, ideology, and socialization and enculturation.

Same as PSYC 340.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 347 - Film and Contemporary Culture

2013-14, Winter 3(3-2-0)

Beginning with the assumption that films function as sophisticated and significant "texts" that inform us about our society and culture, we will attempt to measure the current "temper of the times" through cinematic eyes. The course will critically examine the defining themes of postmodern culture (e.g., enchantment with technology, hyperreality, spiritual yearning, individualism, alienation, and pluralism) with focus on a number of "popular" films.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 348 - Socio-cultural Aspects of Sport

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course examines how socio-cultural factors influence sport, and how sport has become a socializing agent of society and culture. Historical and sociological dimensions are explored. Aspects include the industry of sport, gender and sport, ethics and sport, and sport phenomena such as the Olympics.

Same as PHED 348.

Prerequisites: 3 credits of physical education or sociology

SOCI 360 - Social Inequality in a Global Age

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

Social Class Inequality and Justice. An introduction to theories of social stratification and class inequality as well as examination of local, national and international responses that have been informed by a commitment to social justice. Particular attention will be given to issues of class inequality as they relate to race/ethnicity, religion, and gender.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 362 - Science and Society

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

An exploration of the place of science in contemporary Western societies. The complex relationship between science and our social and natural environments is examined in the context of culture, major social institutions and people's everyday lives.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 370 - Marriage and Family

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

A study of the structures and forms of marriage and family as they developed historically and culturally in various societies. The course analyzes the contemporary functioning of marriage and family.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 376 - Sociology of Religion

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Examining the social significance of religion in societies, tribes, organizations and individual lives. Religious myths, rituals, symbols, beliefs and organizations are studied as aspects of the social environments in which they emerge, are maintained and/or are challenged. Also analyzed is the role of religion in relation to social integration and social change.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 395 - God, Physics and the Human Prospect

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course is intended for students in their senior year of study and will focus on the dialogue between scientific and other ways of knowing. Topics will be drawn from Physics, Theology and Sociology that will illuminate such motivating questions as 1) How can Science and Theology engage in a conversation of mutual understanding and transformation? 2) How, or in what ways, has science changed our ideas about what it means to be human? and 3) Given these changes, how then ought we to live our lives?

Same as PHYS 395 and THEO 375.

Prerequisites: Six credits in one or more of Physics, Sociology or Theology

SOCI 399 - Special Topics in Sociology

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the sociology faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

Prerequisites: Three credits in introductory sociology

SOCI 495 - Senior Sociology Seminar

Every Year, Winter 3(0-3-0)

All students with sociology as a first subject of concentration are required to take this course. The seminar will engage students in clarifying the relationship between a Christian understanding of the human condition and the discipline of sociology.

Prerequisites: Six credits in sociology at the 300-level

SOCI 499 - Directed Studies in Sociology

Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

An opportunity to do intensive sociological study on a special topic of figure of particular interest to the student. Students work closely with a member of the sociology faculty in tutorial sessions. A student must apply in advance to the faculty member.

Prerequisites: Six credits in sociology at the 300-level, and consent of instructor

SPANISH

SPAN 200 - Introduction to Spanish

Subject to Demand 3(3-0-2)

This course will provide students who have no prior experience with Spanish with an introduction to spoken, aural and written language at a university level.

SPAN 499 - Directed Studies In Spanish

Subject to demand 1 to 3 (varies)

An opportunity to do intensive study of a special topic of particular interest to a student. Students work closely with a faculty member in tutorial meetings. Students must apply in advance to the faculty member.

Prerequisites: Consent of the instructor

STATISTICS

STAT 300 - Introduction to Statistics

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-1.5)

An introduction to the use of statistical methods. Descriptive statistics, frequency distributions, regression and correlation, inference on means and proportions, sampling distributions, analysis of variance, hypothesis testing.

Prerequisites: Mathematics 30-2 or the successful passing of an algebra competency test.

THEOLOGY

Theology serves students by making available the biblical, historical, and theological resources required for shaping Christian identity and living. It serves by engaging in the disciplined, scholarly study of Christian scriptures, creeds, communities, and traditions, and by asking how these do and ought to affect Christian living in our time.

Courses in theology introduce students to tools for biblical interpretation, study the rich variety of biblical literature, open up the biblical vision of the triune God and his creation, bring biblical and theological wisdom to bear on current personal and social issues, and study the attempts of Christians, past and present, to faithfully articulate Christian truth in life and thought.

THEO 250 - Entering the Story: Introduction to the Bible

Every Year, Fall and Winter 3(3-0-0)

An exploration of the genres, storylines, themes and theological patterns within the Bible. We shall engage the biblical text both as ancient literature and as Christian scripture which reveals the truth of God, the world and humanity.

THEO 310 - Bringing the Text to Life: Biblical Theological Themes

Every Year, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course is a close study of selected biblical theological themes and their social-ethical implications for contemporary society. Themes investigated may include Christian political responsibility, war and peace, gender and sexuality, environmental stewardship, etc.

Prerequisites: THEO 250

THEO 342 - Facing the Darkness: Evil as Experience and Challenge

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course will address the experience of evil in our world by examining the biblical literature about evil and its relation to the central biblical confession of a good creation. How did biblical authors respond to the experience of evil in their day? How did their responses relate to the cultural climate of their times? The course will then survey prominent theological and philosophical options for thinking about evil today. Finally it will struggle to articulate a faithfully Christian response to the reality of evil in our time.

Prerequisites: THEO 250

THEO 349 - Southern Exposure: Reading The Bible With the Two-Thirds World

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

"When the colonists arrived here, they had the Bible and we had the land. Now we have the Bible and they have the land. I wonder who got the better deal?" (Desmond Tutu) The Bible has been characterized as a "foreign" text imposed on subject peoples, legitimizing colonial and neo-colonial ideologies. However, the Bible is currently being read and appropriated in the Two-Thirds world in fresh, liberating, and transforming ways. What are the implications of the new ways of reading for the global Christian community? What can North Americans learn from these reading strategies? How can they help us hear the challenging Word anew?

This course does not fulfill theology foundations requirements.

Prerequisite: THEO 250

THEO 351 - God in Flesh and Blood: Jesus Christ in Scripture and Confession

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course examines: Jesus' life, teachings and ministry in the religious, social, cultural and political context of first century Palestine; the nature and purposes of the New Testament Gospels as historical and theological documents and the relationship of history and theology; core issues in the development of Christology from the New Testament to the early creeds and christological definitions.

Prerequisites: THEO 250

THEO 353 - Prophet to the Nations: Paul's Epistles and Theology

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

A detailed study of the life, letters and theology of the apostle Paul in the context of his time and mission. Special attention will be paid to past and present paradigms for understanding Paul, as well as to his contribution to a variety of current issues in theology, ethics, church life and Christian mission.

Prerequisites: THEO 250

THEO 360 - Global Christianity Since 1500

2015-16, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course will explore the global growth of Christianity since 1500, a process that raises pressing historical and theological questions. Why did Christianity "succeed" in some times and places, but not in others? How has Christianization been implicated in processes of Western imperialism and conquest? And what cross-cultural processes or transferences occur when Christianity infuses a new culture? We will examine these questions in depth by examining the global spread of Christianity to the Americas, Asia and Africa after 1500.

This course does not fulfill theology foundations requirements. Same as HIST 324.

Prerequisites: HIST 204

THEO 361 - The Lord, the Church, and the Nations: Contemporary Political Theology

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Just as within contemporary philosophy there is a new interest in the meaning of theology for political life, so within contemporary theology there is a new engagement of the political as mapped within the discourse and practices of the historic church. This course will explore this engagement, examining the retrieval of classical and medieval sources into a post-modern context, African and Latin American liberation theologies, and European and American political theologies.

This course does not meet theology foundations requirements.

Prerequisites: THEO 250

THEO 364 - Futures in the Past: Historical Theology

2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

A study of important stages in the development of Christian doctrine and some of the major figures in the history of Christian theology. We will examine the influence of social, political and cultural contexts on doctrine and theology, and ask the question whether and how a study of the Christian past might give shape to the church, theology and Christian faithfulness in the present and future.

Same as HIST 364.

Prerequisites: HIST 202 or 204

THEO 369 - Saving God? Contemporary Theology

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

This course will present historical background to and engagement with selected themes and theologians of importance in contemporary Christian discussion, with special emphasis on North American theology. Topics may include feminist theology; evangelicalism, post-liberalism, and post-modernism; and current trinitarian theology, represented by contemporary theologians.

This course does not fulfill theology foundations requirements.

Prerequisites: THEO 250

THEO 370 - All Things: Theology of Creation

Every Year, Fall 3(3-0-0)

A study of the Christian theology of creation which addresses the issues of: the integrity of the universe as God's creation; humankind's place and task in creation; the honouring and care of creation as intrinsic to knowledge of God as Creator and the world as God's creation. Special attention will be paid to how the central Christian doctrines of the Trinity, Christology, the imago dei and the eucharist shape the theology of creation, and to how such a theology influences and is influenced by the aims and practices of environmental stewardship.

Prerequisites: THEO 250

THEO 371 - A Conspiracy of Goodness: Studies in Christian Mission

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

A close examination of some central issues in Christian mission. Students will study key Biblical passages that inform the nature and scope of mission, explore contemporary images of mission, consider the nature of mission in the contemporary world, and examine topics such as the role of the church in urban renewal, the biblical nature of evangelism, the relationship of theology and development, liberation theology, inter-religious dialogue and others.

Prerequisites: THEO 250

THEO 373 - Christian Theology Engages Other Religions

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

What about "other religions"? This course engages issues that are raised by the encounter of the Christian faith with other religions. We explore biblical and theological perspectives on the reality of multiple religions, addressing such questions as revelation, truth, pluralism, salvation, mission, tolerance and politics.

Prerequisites: THEO 250 and PHIL 230

THEO 374 - Micah's Challenge

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

The Hebrew prophet Micah summarized the calling of God's people in the simple yet powerful verse: "What does the Lord require of you? To do justice, to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God." This ancient but succinct statement is a powerful summons for the people of God to be engaged in the quest for justice today. In this course students will examine the biblical and theological principles guiding the church's understanding of Justice and its missional responsibilities to pursue justice in the context of economic inequality, violence, poverty and hunger, HIV/AIDS, war and famine.

This course does not fulfill theology foundations requirements.

Prerequisites: THEO 250

THEO 375 - God, Physics and the Human Prospect

2014-15, Winter 3(3-0-0)

This course is intended for students in their senior year of study and will focus on the dialogue between scientific and other ways of knowing. Topics will be drawn from Physics, Theology and Sociology that will illuminate such motivating questions as 1) How can Science and Theology engage in a conversation of mutual understanding and transformation? 2) How, or in what ways, has science changed our ideas about what it means to be human? and 3) Given these changes, how then ought we to live our lives?

Same as PHYS 395 and SOCI 395.

Prerequisites: Six credits in one or more of Physics, Sociology or Theology

THEO 376 - Jubilate: Studies In Christian Worship

2013-14, Full Year Course 3(1.5-0-0)

A study of Christian worship which includes biblical principles for worship, the historical development of liturgy, cultural dynamics in contemporary worship, and explores the rich and varied resources with the ecumenical Christian community. Themes to be studied include praise and lament, confession and proclamation, use of the lectionary, sacraments, liturgical dance, the use of art in worship, the relationship of worship and justice, and more. There will be a strong emphasis on the music of worship. Students will have an opportunity to attend various worship services as well plan, lead, and participate in worship. This course meets the senior level foundation theology requirement only for students with music as their major/first concentration. Same as MUSI 376

This course meets the senior level foundation theology requirement only for students with music as their major/first concentration. Same as MUSI 376

Corequisites: THEO 250

THEO 378 - The Gospel According to Hollywood: Religion and Popular Culture

2013-14, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Using case studies taken from film, television, music, and other media, this course will examine the presentation of religion and religious topics in popular culture as well as how popular cultural texts and practices have influenced the beliefs, structures, and practices of religious groups. In addition, the economics and ethics of popular culture will receive some attention.

This course does not fulfill theology foundations requirements.

Prerequisites: THEO 250

THEO 380 - Earthly Good: Christian Ethics

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

An examination of the nature of ethics, the relationship between the Bible and Christian ethics, several biblical concepts determinative for Christian ethics and ethical issues in areas such as politics, business, law, medicine and personal decision-making.

Prerequisites: THEO 250

THEO 391 - Philosophy of Religion

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

An inquiry into selected philosophical issues concerning religion such as the presuppositions underlying various accounts of the origin of religion, the relationships among faith, reason and revelation, the possibility of giving a rational defense of religious belief, and such topics as the problem of evil, immortality and the supernatural.

This course does not fulfill theology foundations requirements. Same as PHIL 391.

Prerequisites: PHIL 230 and THEO 250

THEO 396 - Understanding Eastern Religions

2013-14, Winter 3(3-0-0)

A study of the major eastern religious traditions with a focus on Buddhism. Understanding Buddhism will form the centerpiece of this course. A detailed examination of the various religious traditions that are connected to Buddhism within its various contexts in East Asia (i.e., Hinduism, Jainism, Sikhism, Confucianism, Daoism and Shinto) will be included. Attention will also be paid to the modern interpretations of some of these traditions, especially in the North American context. The focus of the course is to understand Eastern Religions (and Buddhism in particular) from the perspective of their historical development, NOT to critique them.

This course does not fulfill theology foundation requirements.

Prerequisites: THEO 397

THEO 397 - Engaging Difference: World Religions
2014-15, Fall 3(3-0-0)

Through studies of the histories, sacred texts and practices of Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, native Canadian and tribal religions, students will gain some understanding of the variety and complexity of living religious traditions in the modern world. Attention will be paid to the current debate on religious pluralism and Christian claims about the person and work of Jesus Christ in this context.

This course does not fulfill theology foundations requirements.

Prerequisites: THEO 250

THEO 399 - Special Topics in Theology

Non-Recurring, 3(varies)

A course on a topic or figure of special interest to a member of the theology faculty and offered on a non-recurring basis.

This course does not fulfill theology foundations requirements.

Prerequisites: THEO 250

THEO 495 - Senior Theology Seminar

Every Year, Winter 3(0-3-0)

All students with theology as a first subject of concentration in the B.A. program are required to take this course. Students further develop skills in biblical, theological and interdisciplinary scholarship through the preparation of a senior research paper and seminar presentations and discussions.

This course does not fulfill theology foundations requirements.

Prerequisites: Six credits in theology at the 300-level

THEO 499 - Directed Studies in Theology

Every Year, 1 to 3 (varies)

An opportunity to do intensive study of a special topic or theologian of particular interest to the student. Students work closely with a theology faculty member in tutorial meetings. For directed studies in theology, students must apply in advance to a theology faculty member.

This course does not fulfill theology foundations requirements.

Prerequisites: Six credits in theology at the 300-level, and consent of instructor
